Public Service Of Roy V. Collins Highly Praised

At Testimonial Dinner By His Friends and Associates

Roy V. Collins of 38 Walker street, Newtonville, who retired from the Newton Board of Aldermen on January 1st after thirteen years of service, six of which he was President of the Board, was honored on Tuesday evening at the Brae Burn Club when seventy-five prominent Newton citizens gathered to evidence their appreciation of the exceptional work he performed for this city. The affair was arranged by a committee composed of C. Ray Cabot, George W. Pratt and Richard M. Ott. Many of those present had served with Mr. Collins on the Board of Aldermen. Mayor Sinclair Weeks officiated as toastmaster. During the dinner community singing was led by R. Max Ott with General Daniel Needham starring as a tenor.

Mayor Weeks, in a tribute to Mr. Collins said that he had taken an important part for many years in making Newton a better place in which to live, and that he had served unselfishly and loyally. The Mayor said that Newton has stood out because of the integrity of its city government. Men have served in the government of the City of Newton for what they could give to the city and not for what they could get out of it. He expressed the hope that this condition will continue. Mayor Weeks commented that the job of having been Mayor of Newton for the past six years was no sinecure, and his path has been smoothed by the loyalty of Roy Collins. The Mayor remarked that the recent snowstorm has been perhaps the most expensive in the history of the city. He introduced the two officials who had been on duty day and night for a week endeavoring to clear the streets of Newton; Richard Ellis, Director of Public Works and Charles Mahoney, Superintendent of Streets.

George W. Pratt, former President of the Board of Aldermen said that Roy Collins was one of the most useful and modest servants this city has ever had, and exemplified good will. Mr. Pratt said that representative government is at stake today and he cited the State government of Louisiana as a travesty. In contrast Newton's government has been a beacon light and Mr. Collins helped largely to make it so.

Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs said that Roy Collins never had the inclination to penalize those who differed from him, that there is no bigotry in him, he has always done his best, and there was nothing small or mean in his service to the city. Mr. Childs commented that Collins retired of his own accord after long and able service, and his capacity for friendship has won for him esteem and affection. Former Alderman James (Buck) Chandler, now a resident of Plymouth, entertained the gathering with stories and a monologue. Leverett Saltonstall, Speaker of the House of Representatives contrasted the fact that Newton aldermen serve without pay to the condition in other cities and State governments where men seek office for the emoluments they can obtain. He lauded Roy Collins as the highest type of public servant who gave of his time without receiving a reward. Mr. Saltonstall deplored the transfer of the powers of local governments to Washington. He expressed the hope that Mr. Collins will return to public service.

Would Restrict Trucks On Parker Street

As a result of a petition entered by residents of Parker st., Newton Centre, the Board of Aldermen at its next meeting, Feb. 4th, will be asked to take action on a traffic ordinance which will prohibit trucks of more than two tons' capacity passing over that street between the hours of 7 p. m. and 7 a. m. Similar restrictions have been placed on Hammond and Chestnut sts. Residents of other streets have also tried unsuccessfully to have such restrictions imposed. If Parker st. is so restricted, among the trucks affected will be those owned by John Janse, who has the contract for the collection of garbage in this city. It will also mean that the heavy trucks which have been travelling over Parker st. between 7 p. m. and 7 a. m. will be diverted onto other streets unless similar traffic restrictions will be placed on these streets.

Horse Falls Into Greasing Pit at Filling Station

Anyone passing by the gasoline filling station at 107 Elm st. last Friday at 3 p. m., might have thought that horses as well as automobiles are now being lubricated. For, in the lubricating pit at this station was a horse. The animal, owned by the Woodland Milk Company of Watertown, and driven by Frank Sargent of that town, was standing on the street near the station, feeding, when it was "righted" by a tractor snowplow. It ran into the station yard and fell into the pit. Bystanders released the horse from the milk wagon and removed some of the harness. An attempt was made to chip off some cement from the sides of the pit so that a rope could be placed under the animal which became tightly wedged. Finally, a rope was tied around the horse's hind legs and the unfortunate equine was pulled out by a tractor. The horse received cuts and bruises on its head and body during its struggles in the pit.

Mayor Reappoints City Officials

Mayor Weeks on Friday announced the reappointment of several city officials including: Albert H. McAuslan, member of Board of Assessors for three years; Herbert J. Kellaway and Dr. Edward Mellus, members of Planning Board; William Flynn, Ralph Laffie, Oscar Reed and Frederick Smith, assistant assessors. These appointments will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen on Feb. 4 for confirmation.

New Autos For Police Department

At the next meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen a recommendation will be received from Mayor Weeks that $1361.75 be appropriated to permit five new Ford cars to be obtained for cruising purposes by the police department. These cars will be obtained in exchange for five Ford cars now used by the department.

Dr. Griggs To Give Read Fund Lectures

To Talk on Goethe's "Faust" In Annual Series

Dr. Edward Howard Griggs has accepted the request of the Read Fund trustees to deliver a series of six lectures on Goethe's "Faust." Commencing February 15, the lectures will be given on successive Friday evenings at the Underwood School Auditorium on Vernon street, Newton. General Daniel Needham, former Massachusetts Commissioner of Public Safety will introduce the speaker at the first meeting. Since Dr. Griggs' popularity ensures a capacity house, those who desire front seats are advised to arrive early. The doors open at 7:30 and the lectures start promptly at 8:00. There is no admission charge.

Distinguished as having made more addresses before American audiences than any other living American, Dr. Griggs returns to Boston and Newton audiences from the Mid-West and New York at popular request. Like our own Charles W. Eliot, he has reached at sixty-seven years a culmination point in his career, his invigorating and ennobling talks finding new strength in his horizon, new friends among the old.

Dr. Griggs is known in Europe and throughout America. When David Starr Jordan became President of Stanford University, he chose the now famous lecturer, then but twenty-three, as a member of the newly formed faculty. Soon the University sent Griggs to acquaint the public with collegiate themes, and the enthusiasm with which he was received at once determined his career. Dr. Griggs is the recipient of many honorary degrees, but long ago he outgrew the classroom and the University; now America is his home and the world his country.

For insight into Dr. Griggs' personality, it is difficult to improve upon the anecdotes of his close friend, Alvin Higgins.

"Edward Howard Griggs lives with the characters he portrays to his audiences. Gifted with a remarkable memory, the literature of the masters is his at all times. Even his family regarded classic authors as intimate friends. His little daughter once picked up Longfellow's 'Dante' from the table and exclaimed, 'Longfellow's 'Dante!' Why I thought father wrote that!'"

"One day at Chautauqua, during a course of lectures that kept the amphitheatre crowded daily, a Kansas city educator standing on the portico of the Athenaeum Hotel was approached by two spinsters who had seen him dining with the lecturer. 'Oh Mr. Drake, do you know anything about Mr. Griggs' private life?' The answer Drake gave was, 'No, I didn't know he had any,' which about states the case.

"His family can best be summed up in the answer his other little daughter made to the question, 'Does your father lecture you at home on poetry and philosophy?'"

"No," she sweetly replied, 'he's a real good father.'"

Dr. Griggs' charm is well known to Boston and Newton audiences. His Tremont Temple courses, arranged originally for Saturday mornings, had to be repeated Saturday evenings in order to meet the popular demand. And Newton audiences also have enthusiastically demanded his return. It is in response to specific requests that Dr. Griggs has chosen Goethe's "Faust" for his subject. Dipping into the past with Dr. Griggs for a guide, learning something about the intriguing life of Goethe who not so long ago stormed Europe by his genius, studying "Faust" itself, promises lasting cultural enjoyment and entertainment.

The Read Fund Lectures are given under a trust fund established through the will of Charles A. Read. A native of Salem, Mr. Read spent most of his life in this city. The income from a $40,000 trust fund which he left to the City of Newton is devoted to these lectures, to the purchase of books for the Newton Free Library, and to an annual picnic for the children of the city. A small remainder each year is divided among poor Newton widows.

Memorial Service For Frank F. Carr At Weeks School

A memorial service for its late principal, Mr. Frank F. Carr, was held in the auditorium of the Weeks Junior High School on Thursday, January 31. James Dealy presided at the exercises. Following his reading of the 100th Psalm, the entire assembly joined in the recitation of the 23rd Psalm. Mr. Carr's favorite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," was then sung. James Dealy next introduced the speakers: His Honor, Mayor Sinclair Weeks; Mr. Walter R. Amesbury, Chairman of the Newton School Committee; Ellis I. Dierdorff, representing the student body of the Weeks School; Mr. Haydn S. Pearson, Principal of the Bigelow Junior High School and former teacher under Mr. Carr; and Mr. Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of the Newton Schools. Each of these paid significant tribute to Mr. Carr, the educator, and to Mr. Carr, the man. His love for and his devotion to his profession was never questioned. His standards were high; his achievement, great; and his noble influence, immeasurably widespread. The spirit of his leadership will serve as an inspiration in the continued growth of the John W. Weeks Junior High School.

During the exercises, Theresa Caruso sang a solo, "Creation" by Haydn, and the program was brought to a fitting close by a brass quartet number, "Now the Day is Over."

Want Bathhouses At Other City's Expense

Residents of Newton will be taxed to pay for the construction and maintenance of two new bath houses, one in Waltham and the other in Watertown. If a bill is passed which has been introduced in the Legislature by members of that body from those towns. One bath house would be erected in Waltham on the Charles River at some location to be designated by the Metropolitan District Commission. The other would be built at a bathing beach to be laid out on the river side of Pleasant street, Watertown. Both would be financed by the Metropolitan District Commission. Senator Hollis of Newton, a member of the committee on Metropolitan affairs, told the proponents of the bill that Newton financed and maintains its own bath houses. Representative Flannery of Waltham replied by saying that Waltham is not so wealthy as Newton and cannot afford to build the bath house.

Faithful City Employee To Be Pensioned

At the next meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Feb. 4th, an appropriation of $724.65 will be made to provide for a pension for William O'Brien of 323 Nevada st., Newtonville. For the past 42 years Mr. O'Brien has been employed by the Newton Street Department and for 15 years he has patrolled the streets in the vicinity of Newtonville square. A courteous, industrious man, "Billie" O'Brien has been one of the most competent and conscientious employees in the history of the Street Department. Although he is being retired because of having reached the age limit, he is still capable of accomplishing more in a day's work than a large percentage of men much his junior in age. One of his five children is Rev. William O'Brien, Jr., who is Father Conon of the Passionist Order.

Change School Boundaries

The Newton School Committee on Monday night voted to change junior high school boundaries. Children who have been attending the Warren school and who will in the future go to the Weeks school include those living in Waban along Beacon st. to the Waban station, thence to Quineboquin and Radcliffe rds. Children who will be transferred from the Day to the Bigelow school will include those in the territory bounded by Washington st., the west side of Cabot park, Edinboro park and Mill st. The changes will go into effect next September.

Removal of Snow Will Cost City Over $50,000

979 Extra Employees Hired To Clear Streets

The removal of the snow which fell in the storm of January 23rd will cost the City of Newton about $50,000. In addition to about 300 employees of the Street Department, a total of 979 men and boys were employed during the several days following the storm. The greatest number of temporary employees at work on any one day was about 800. Several hundred men and boys were hired the morning after the storm and this number was added to on last Friday and Saturday. About 50 trucks were hired to supplement the 20 city owned trucks. Three snow loaders were also hired from the Hugh Nawn Company. These big machines were badly wanted by the City of Boston, but Newton has a contract with the Nawn Company for their use. They can load a 5 ton truck with snow in about a minute, but extra time must be allowed for the maneuvering of these loaders and for mechanical defects which developed from time to time. The unusual depth of snow and the many drifts prevented the Street Department from clearing the main streets and business sections within the same time or to the same extent that is usually done and parking spaces in business sections are still at a premium. All side streets were not cleared until Saturday morning.

Comparatively few sidewalks were plowed. The snow on sidewalks was too deep for the small number of horses now owned by the street department to plod through, and even the small tractors could not plow through the drifts. The only way in which the sidewalks could be cleared was by shoveling. Some owners and occupants of properties co-operated and had the sidewalks in front of their premises cleared. Most did not. The police did not enforce the ordinance which compels owners or occupants of properties to clear improved sidewalks in certain sections of the city within 24 hours after the end of a snowstorm. The result has been that pedestrians have been compelled to walk in streets and risk being hit by automobiles which swerve dangerously on icy and rutted highways.

The storm was a gift from God to hundreds of unemployed men in Newton and their dependents. Scarcely a day had passed since the relief allotments for those aided by this means during the second last week of this month, and no aid what-ever during the last week of January from the ERA. Many of the unemployed received two or three days work from the city and some fortunate ones have been working day and night for about a week, thus qualifying for pay envelopes which will be well filled. Many employees of the Street Department worked almost without any time off for several days and the wage envelopes of these men, on an hourly basis will be quite fat this week. Other employees who are on salaries worked to the point of exhaustion without extra compensation.

The collection of ashes was of necessity delayed in some sections of the city by the storm. In Ward 7, Newton, ashes and rubbish which should have been collected last Thursday, were collected Saturday. Extra men were put collecting ashes on Monday and barrels were emptied in Newtonville as well as in Wards 3 and 4. Ashes were collected in Ward 1 on Tuesday, provided householders had left the barrels out from the preceding Saturday. Ash collections this week were made on the regular days.

Re-Employment Office Closed

The Newton branch of the National Re-employment Service which has been located for nearly two years at Walnut st., Newtonville, has been closed. The files of the office have been transferred to the Waltham office in the Bemis School on Orange st., Waltham. Newton unemployed seeking jobs must go there in the future or telephone Waltham 1549.

Carry Aged Man From Burning House at Newton

With the temperature 5 degrees below zero Hugh McGlynn, 78, was carried from his burning home at 1 a. m. yesterday by Harry Lesser of Jerome avenue, West Newton. Lesser was driving along Middle street, Nonantum when he saw smoke and flames issuing from the house at 16 Middle street occupied by McGlynn and his son, and daughter. Lesser awakened the occupants of the burning house and assisted the aged man to the street. The other occupants had to flee without having time to dress. When the fire apparatus arrived in response to an alarm from 302 241, flames were belching from the windows and door on the first floor of the house and the fire worked up to the second floor. It is supposed to have started in a radio set. The damage to the building and contents is estimated at $4000. The house was owned by Mrs. Mary Ryan of School street, Waltham. The firemen were handicapped by the fact that the hydrant nearest the house could not be used. It had apparently been damaged or tampered with.

Fined $10 For Driving Noisy Automobile

Libero Ricciadelli of Mills st., Natick, was fined $10 in the Newton court last Friday for making unnecessary noise with his automobile. The police testified that he had a device attached to the exhaust of his car which caused a very loud whistling noise. He was also fined $5 for speeding.

Peter Maffei of Worcester street, Natick, was fined $5 for driving a truck on the Worcester turnpike without a rear number plate on it. Maffei told the court he had removed the plate when he attached a sanding device to the truck.

T. B. Clinic For Newton Children

The Newton School Department has requested the starting of a State Tuberculosis Clinic for Newton School children. This clinic would be conducted in the various Newton schools by physicians from the Middlesex County Tuberculosis Hospital in conjunction with Newton school physicians. The test would be given without cost to parents or the city and only to children whose parents would give their consent to have the test made. Of any child who reacted positively, X-rays would be made and the child's parents conferred with.

Overcome by Fumes From Snow Loader

Daniel Zarbo of 440 Hanover st., Boston, an employee of the Hugh Nawn Construction Company, was overcome by fumes from the exhaust of a snow loader while operating the big machine in West Newton square on Saturday night. He was carried into police headquarters and given first aid treatment by Dr. Lowe. Zarbo was then taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. The snow loader was one of three hired from Nawn by the Newton Street Department.

School Committee Asks For Several New Schools

Million Dollar PWA Program Involves Five Projects

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday night a very important recommendation was decided on. It was voted to request Mayor Weeks to co-operate in obtaining PWA funds which will permit a school building program involving roughly $1,000,000. This program would eliminate obsolete, wooden school buildings in certain sections of the city, provide for needed accommodations at Waban and prevent overcrowding for some years to come in the districts where the proposed school buildings will be erected. Although Mayor Weeks in his inaugural address on January 1st asserted that he is opposed to this city asking for any more PWA grants, the School Committee believes that a new system used by the PWA which eliminates much red-tape, may remove the Mayor's objection.

The projects proposed are five in number. One is a 14-room school building at West Newton to replace the Franklin School on River street. This school is a small wooden structure erected about 60 years ago. The second project is the addition of a wing containing four rooms to the Angier School in Waban. The third project is the erection of a six-room grade school at Newton to replace the Eliot and Lincoln schools, both wooden buildings. The Eliot School on Pearl street, near Watertown street, was built 50 years ago. The Lincoln School, on Pearl and Thornton streets was built 81 years ago. The fourth project is the construction of a new trade school and administration building. The present trade school is located in the basement of the Technical High School and the administration offices are also in the high school building. The fifth project is the erection of a new grade school at Oak Hill. The old wooden structure in that district has been little used in recent years. The program as outlined, if accepted by the Mayor and granted by the PWA would extend over a period of several years.

New Record For Newton Savings Bank

It is a most encouraging evidence of the faith of the people in the savings banks that quite generally deposits have grown during these days of hard times. The Newton Savings Bank reflects this condition in that its deposits on January 10, 1935 were the highest in its history, $16,448,171.61.

It would appear from this that people are still able to save money regardless of the depression, but it would also indicate the confidence the public has in the Newton Savings Bank.

On January 1 the market value of its securities was more than $350,000 over the amount carried on the books. Aside from the deposits, the Profit and Loss Account and the Guaranty Fund amount to $1,778,815.41. This is the Surplus Account of the Bank, for the protection of its depositors and shows the constantly increasing strength of the institution, which is now over 103 years old. There are more than 17,000 depositors that own this Bank and they have good reason to be satisfied with its fine showing.—Advertisement.

NEWTON SEXTET TIES ARLINGTON—MACLEOD ONE OF BEST SCORERS

Gus Castoldi and Ernie MacLeod led their Newton High hockey team through the fastest game of the Greater Boston league series last Friday night at the Arena, only to see Arlington come from behind with an unearned goal to tie the game at 3-3.

Goalie Burt Woodward, who made 26 stops in the Newton nets, many of them difficult, was beaten by a long shot from the stick of Bill Collins of Arlington, less than two minutes from the end. Ernie MacLeod figured in both Newton goals in the second period, by virtue of which he shares the league lead in point scoring with Ray Chaisson of Cambridge.

The game started fast. Woodward was forced to dive out for a spectacular save, and made two more before the Arlington attack was turned away. Miner, Daniels and Blodgett were on the forward line for Newton, and the Butterfield, Dennison, MacLeod line came on after three minutes of play.

Preston for Arlington, 1-0

Joe Gardella, belligerent curly-headed center, teamed with Red Preston in a rush that ended in Arlington's first goal, with Preston scoring at 3:32. MacLeod's rush bogged down at the Arlington defense, and Castoldi's hard check stopped a return threat by Arlington.

Keefe went off for tripping, and Dr. Martin changed his forward line, keeping MacLeod on at right wing. MacLeod started a scoring play two minutes later when he carried down the center, losing the puck in front of the Arlington goal. Sakoiian cleared to the left, Bob Miner passed out to Bill Daniels at the goal, and Daniels pushed the puck by Sakoiian into the unprotected left corner, tying the score, 1-1, at 7:45. Keefe returned, snatched up a loose puck, and forced Woodward to make a fine save. Castoldi and MacLeod broke fast, but failed to make a play.

Miner was sent off for batting the puck with his stick, and the stage was set for another Arlington goal. Chipman passed out from the left to Preston, who was left uncovered thirty feet out from the Newton goal. Preston swung at the passout as it came to him, the puck found the strings high in the corner, and Woodward was caught in a statuesque pose, quite unprepared. The score came at 10:52, and Arlington led, 2-1. Castoldi was hurt when he fell near the Newton goal, but he resumed play.

Play was fairly even as the second period began. Bill Daniels was tipped at the Arlington defense, but the officials were both sleepy. An Arlington shot bounded off the goal framework, and another almost into the goal was deflected by the alert Woodward.

Newton's Goals Come Fast

MacLeod's line had taken the ice after four minutes, and Ernie swooped down on Sakoiian, contacted a flat shot by Dave Dennison at the very goal, and the game was tied, 2-2. The puck was dropped at center ice, and Castoldi rushed with MacLeod. Passing to Mac at the Arlington defense, Castoldi took the return pass in front of the goal and beat Sakoiian easily. This goal, which gave Newton a 3-2 lead, came at 6:14, twenty-four seconds after MacLeod's tying goal.

Gardella drew a penalty for tripping, and drew a general chorus of negative applause. Sakoiian was besieged, but made several good saves. Gardella returned and was off after a free puck, but Gus Castoldi stopped him with an effective body-check.

Newton pressed Arlington to begin the third period. MacLeod stayed on the ice as the lines were changed. Woodward kicked out a hard shot nicely. Newton played more defensively. Woodward fell on the puck, Arlington fell on Woodward, fists flew, and Preston was off the ice.

Arlington Ties Score, 3-3

Almost immediately MacLeod was banished for alleged hooking, although someone had skated away with his stick, and hooking is possible only with a stick. Collins got the puck shortly after the ensuing face-off, fired a long one from the right, Woodward slid to his knees, but the puck was under him for the goal that tied the game, 3-3, with a minute and one quarter left to play.

Woodward and Sakoiian were both tested during the last minute. Gardella went off again, this time for batting the puck. The Newtonians swarmed at the Arlington end as the bell ended the game. Woodward had made twenty-six stops to eleven for Sakoiian. The second and third Arlington goals were made when Newton was playing shorthanded, and Newton's first was made with Arlington shy one defender.

NEWTON FIVE SWAMPS BROOKLINE 30 TO 6

Offering little resistance to Newton's high-powered passing game, Brookline High's basketball team was badly beaten on their own floor by a 30-6 count. The Newton margin was piled up in the four period thus, 8-0, 15-0, 24-4 and 30-6. The main feature of the one-sided contest was the tense wait for Brookline's first score. Newton's points were contributed by Byrne, 8; Smith, 7; Laffie, Spillman and Hoey 4 each, Donovan two and Savignano one.

The Newton seconds won 17-7. As in the varsity game, Brookline was outwitted, outpassed and outwitted. Dick Hoey divided scoring honors with sophomore Leonard LeSourd, each accounting for three goals from the floor.

Down The Ice

The Waltham-Newton hockey game, which was to have formed a basis of comparison for the two school hockey leagues, was played to a 3-3 tie at Waltham yesterday. It was more of a dress rehearsal than an important inter-league affair, however, as amateur officiating was the rule and a lot of roughing was allowed.

Waltham ought to play Newton in the Bulwark's Pond rink, as was first planned. The playground workers are laying a fine surface there by flooding the ice with a fire hose, and the result is a great improvement over the ice left by the power-driven plane which has been used in the past.

Newton and Melrose square off at the Arena ice tomorrow for their second encounter. Melrose won 6-1 the last time, but that was during the Christmas season, when Newton was in a giving mood. Last week Melrose was held to a 1-1 tie by Rindge, the team Newton beat 4-0 the week before.

Waban Hockey Club, whose activities halted temporarily when the late blizzard came, will play again Sunday at Bulwark's Pond, weather and the Playground Department permitting.

Splinters

Newton High's track team will not get soft waiting for the day of the B. A. A. games to come around. Today they go to meet Quincy High and next Thursday they entertain Medford on the drill shed oval only two days before the B. A. A. meet at the Boston Garden.

Don Enoch was undoubtedly disappointed when Newton came through the Northeastern interscholastics without a single first place. Warren Wiggins seemed easily the strongest in the 300 field, as did Allen Freeman in the 1000, but both boys came up to their events a bit tired from their earlier efforts in the shorter events.

The annual K. of C. track meet had its evening at the Boston Garden last Saturday night. Mil Green tied the world's record twice in the hurdles, Bob Quigley, another ex-Newton High athlete, was a post entry in the dash and barely failed to place in the final heat.

Carrying the baton on the Northeastern freshman relay, which ran second to the fine Boston College team, were Bob Gutzler, Jim Cahill and Bob Quigley. Francis Tuschler of Newton ran on the Northeastern varsity mile relay which made the best time of the evening for the distance, 3m 28s. Tuschler retained his place on the team during the week's trials, and will run in the Millrose games in New York tomorrow night.

Yale beat M. I. T.'s relay team, but only after a Tech runner had fallen at one of the banks. Dave McLellan ran the anchor leg for Tech and tied the Yale lead down to about twelve yards at the finish, which required some great running.

Bill Porter of Newtonville is running the anchor leg of the Huntington School relay team. Since losing to St. John's in the big meet Saturday night, they have beaten Worcester and Dean Academy teams. Porter runs a very fast 300.

American Legion

Newton Post 48, American Legion Band, is at present in first place in the radio contest now being conducted to determine the most popular American Legion or Veteran of Foreign Wars Band in the State. At a recent election of officers Past Commander Harold D. Ames was elected manager of the Band. In 1930 Commander Ames organized the Newton Band and served as its first manager.

Under Manager Ames' direction the band appeared in the National Convention Parade in Boston and two years later again took part in the Convention Parade in Detroit. The band members are looking forward to the next National Convention to be held this year in St. Louis.

Newton Post Band will conduct a Ladies' Night Thursday evening in the Brown Derby.

MORRIS RETURNS TO LEAD OUR LADY HIGH QUINTET TO VICTORY

With the return to action of Francis "Chicken" Morris, Our Lady's basketball team won their first game in four starts Tuesday at the expense of Cathedral High. Morris showed no effects of gripe as he sank five field goals and two foul shots in leading the Newton team to a 28-23 victory on the local school's floor. As a result of this game, Our Lady's goes into a three-way tie for second place in the Catholic League standing.

Our Lady's in Late Rally

Shooting for the south basket, at the open end of the court, Our Lady's led 12-5 at the quarter, then lapsed and trailed the visitors by 14-13 at the half. In the third quarter, with Our Lady's playing toward the walled end, Cathedral increased their lead slightly, holding a 23-19 advantage as the final period opened. The Newton team rallied remarkably, however, and made nine points while holding Cathedral scoreless, so that the game ended with Fr. Haley's club on the long end of the 28-23 score.

"Chicken" Morris was high scorer for the entire league in Tuesday's games, his total of twelve being one better than that of Mel Reid of Mission. Mario Marino was second best for Our Lady's with six points on field goals. Captain Seymour MacLean scored five, including three valuable foul tries in the second half after he had injured his shoulder by colliding with a post at the south end of the floor. Russ Harney made three and Bernard Mullen two points to complete the Newton team's total.

NEWTON HIGH QUINTET TOPS LEXINGTON FIVE

The smooth-passing Newton High basketball team was much too good for Lexington last Tuesday at Newtonville and Frank Simmons' men won their seventh victory by a 36-17 margin. Ted Laffie led the Newton scoring with 12 points, Captain Ellis Donovan made eight, all on long shots from near mid-court, while Jim "Bullet" Byrne and Al Smith were good or six points each on field goals. Tuesday's game was little different from the other extra-league games to date, except that the Newton passing attack seemed to have gained a little in speed.

Newton's regular varsity five started the game at a fast pace. The Smith-Laffie combination gave Newton an early lead. Laffie sunk a foul shot and two baskets and Smith got a floor shot before Lexington was able to score once. Ellis Donovan made good on the first of his long shots, Byrne made another from under the basket, and the quarter ended with Newton ahead, 15-8.

Going into the second period with a rush Newton ran up the count to 20-8, in the first two minutes. Smith got past a guard by feinting, then scored. Savignano sank a free try. Donovan found the basket from mid-court, and Byrne scored on the rebound when he tried it again. Laffie and Byrne each added a goal from in close, then Donovan made two more perfect rainbow goals from near the middle of the floor. The half was over, Newton leading, 25-8, having prevented the Minute Men from adding to their slender score.

Although the points were not as prolific in the second half, Newton had no great difficulty in holding Lexington even. The home team led, 33-13, at the end of the third quarter on baskets by Dick Hoey and Al Smith, and a foul try made good by Ted Laffie. Donovan got a round of applause as he left the game. Ted Laffie followed up his own shot to score in the fourth period, and Bill Spillman made the thirty-sixth point on a foul try. Final score, 36-17.

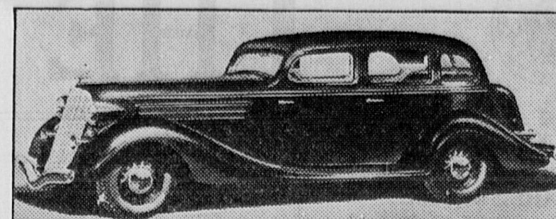

Newton Seconds Win, 26-22

The Newton second team had ample opposition from Lexington in the beginning of their game, and the visitors led, 9-2, after the first period. Dick Hoey and Leonard LeSourd had made good one free try apiece. Newton nearly caught up in the second, goals by Gruber, LeSourd and Savignano making the count 9-5, with Callahan adding another before the half ended at 13-10 in favor of Lexington.

The second half was Newton's by 16 points to 11. Bill Spillman was largely responsible for the success of the Newton drive. Scoring only one goal himself, on a rush from mid-floor, Spillman was nevertheless the key man of the Newton passing game, and added much to the defensive power, whereby Lexington was held to nine points in the second half. Hoey and Al Coletti each made two goals, Coletti on a one-hand toss and a long shot from the left. Pete Donovan and Red Callahan sank long shots from mid-floor, and the final score was 26-22 for Newton seconds. The officials were Flumery and Jones. Ed Jackson accidentally tipped over a girl seated at the end of the court, but there was no damage.

Here and There

Joe Nolan, Newton High School student, fighting under the colors of the Nonantum A. A., made a victorious return in amateur boxing circles by winning the 126-lb. class of a show sponsored by the Schraft Club of Charlestown, last Friday night. Nolan first knocked out Tom Hunt of South Boston in the first round of a trial bout and then came back to take the final round from Benny Henning of Allston, on a unanimous decision. Frank McDonald of Newton and Chester Fairbairn of Medford coached the local boy.

Hudson Six Cylinder Sedan mounted on 116-inch wheelbase with a 93-horsepower engine. This new addition to the Hudson line offers exceptional power and roominess in the low-priced field.

NEWTON TRACKSTERS PLACE SECOND IN NORTHEASTERN MEET

Outscored but not outclassed, Newton's track team ran second to Brookline in the Northeastern University interscholastics last Saturday on the Boston Garden track. After Brookline's high score of 19 points, Newton had 14½, Everett 14 and Watertown 11 points. Although failing to win a single first, the Newton team showed power which, a little more strategically placed, may bring the state title to Newton later in the season. Although it is impossible to discredit Brookline's clear-cut triumph, it was the team which got the benefit of the breaks which won the meet.

Fernald Brilliant in 600

Brookline's ace was Robin Hartman, who won the hurdles in record time and the high jump at one-quarter-inch less than record height. Where Brookline really won, however, was in the 300 final, where Leon Rogers beat Warren Wiggins of Newton, and in the 1000, where Al Freeman of Newton lost to Palding of Everett in the last stride.

A real surprise for Coach Enoch was the fine showing of Burleigh Fernald in the 600. An also-ran in three dual meets this year, Fernald was not conceded a chance to place Saturday. He was Newton's man in the fourth heat, and started the race by dropping into fifth place, fifteen yards behind the leader, Frank Mascianica, of Everett. While the latter pulled away from the field, Fernald kept his place patiently, and as the bell clanged for the last lap he was fourth. At this point he took over the field with a rush and started after Mascianica, crossing the finish line at 1:21 3/5s, about 25 yards behind the winner. But Fernald's time was third best in the meet, despite his leisurely gait throughout the race. Don Thurber of Watertown was second, two-fifths of a second faster than Fernald, while Mascianica's time was 1:18.1.

Rogers, Wiggins in 300 Duel

Warren "Bud" Wiggins did a courageous job in the hurdles and the 300. Winning his first trial heat in the hurdles, Warren was third to Hartman and Underwood in the first semifinal. Ray Huling won a trial heat and took third in the other semifinal, and the Newton boys were forced to run an extra heat to determine a fourth man for the final. Wiggins won, then came up strong in the final to beat Underwood for third place. Woods of Roxbury Memorial looked very good, and was not a yard behind Hartman of Brookline at the finish.

Wiggins had a great opportunity in the 300 final, but was unable to overcome the lead of Brookline's Leon Rogers, who had the pole and kept the Newton sprinter at his elbow until the final stretch, when he drew away to win by five yards. Hayden of Lynn Classical had run a 34:4 trial heat, but could not beat Wiggins in the final.

Freeman Strong in 1000

Captain Allen Freeman showed great versatility by leading Palding of Everett to a record in the 1000-yard run. Al stepped out early in the race to lead Palding by ten yards and spread-eagle the rest of the field in the second heat. Palding bided his time, although he seemed to be far back, and had great reserve strength for the bell lap. On the home stretch, Palding closed up the five-yard gap between Freeman and himself, stepping ahead of Newton's captain at the very finish. The time was 2m 27 4/5s, a new record for the meet, and the other places went to Gowell of Malden and Sampson of Brockton. Johnny Quick, who had beaten Sampson the week before at Brockton, had an off day and was unable to place in the heat where Sampson was second Saturday.

Newton scored no points in the shot put, while Brookline picked up three as Charlie Kerins took second with a heave of 48 ft. 1/4 in., only a quarter-inch out of first place. Joe Blair added two points to the Newton total by taking third in the high jump. Blair went out at 5 ft. 8 3/4 in., while Hartman of Brookline won at 6 ft. 1/4 in., and Tuxford of Quincy was just two inches lower.

Relay Quartet Beats Brockton

Of the twelve relay races, the Everett-Watertown event was the fastest of the day, with Watertown winning in good time, 2m, 16s. Everett's time, 2m, 18s, was good enough for second place points. Newton's fine team of Warren Wiggins, Ray Huling, Bob Mather and Allen Freeman was unfortunately never pressed in defeating Brockton, and their time, 2m, 19 s, took the 2½ points for third place among the thirty teams running.

The meet was a good beginning for the indoor interscholastic whirl, which will continue a week from tomorrow in the Boston Athletic Association games, and will wind up with the State Meet on March 9, both meets to be run on the Boston Garden track. The crowd which saw the Northeastern games numbered about 2000, including the athletes. The fine performances deserved more of a gallery, but the fact that many schools did not meet on the two days preceding the meet may have cut into the interest of the school track following.

Rotary Club

"From the sixteenth century on," said Mr. J. C. Connick, in his talk last Monday to the Newton Rotary Club, "the art of stained glass windows declined. From that time on, men made pictures rather than windows. They forgot the value of true symbolism. In our everyday life, we have in our flag an example of what symbolism is. There is the blue for loyalty, the red meaning courage, and the white standing for serenity and peace." The speaker told how he had to turn down an attractive financial offer from a western state for a memorial stained glass window in a new capital building for one of its revered officials because the Committee wanted a portrait when a splendid chance for symbolism offered. The spokesman for the Committee left Mr. Connick's office shouting that the artist was "plumb crazy."

"We in this country are not artistic," continued the speaker, "we need a sense of the aesthetic, we need poetry, we need light. Our stained glass windows must have these qualities to be true art. Above all, they must let in the light." Mr. Connick illustrated his address with fitting quotations from the poets.

Best known are Mr. Connick's stained glass in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, in New York and in the chapel at Princeton University. His studio is in Boston, and Newton is proud to claim him as a citizen of Newtonville. His address was an inspiration for the fifty rotarians and their six guests from the Boston and Needham clubs.

Y. M. C. A.

Squash Racquets
The Newton Y. M. C. A. Class D squash racquets team defeated Tufts College, 5 to 0 in a league match at the "Y" Monday evening. By winning these games the "Y" continues to hold first place in its division.

Volley Ball
The Newton Y. M. C. A. Volley Ball team defeated Melrose Y. M. C. A. 4 to 0 in a North Shore League match played Saturday at Melrose. Newton's lineup was R. J. Ruthenford left forward; R. D. Stauffer, center forward; J. B. Rogers, right forward; W. A. Hitchcock, left back; E. J. Collins, center back; F. B. Teutberg, right back.

This Saturday Newton meets Melrose in a return match at Newton "Y" at four o'clock.

Athletic Contest

Five events have been completed in the 1000 Point Athletic Contest in the Senior gymnasium class at the Newton Y. M. C. A.

This contest is a series of ten track and field events which are held over a period of ten weeks with one event a week. Medals are to be awarded to first three highest point winners and a Newton "Y" emblem to those earning 500 points or more. Next week the event is the 300-yards dash.

The first ten highest point winners so far are: Clayton Hoyt, 269; Arthur Luthwaite, 253; John K. Morris, 234; Ivan Hoyt, 234; Kenneth Bourne, 232; Tom O'Connor, 270; Anthony Liochatti, 267; John Burke, 256; Earle Wulfr, 245; and Joseph McCarthy, 230.

Basketball

The Newton Y. M. C. A. Junior Basketball team made a successful start toward the Junior Championships of Massachusetts and Rhode Island by defeating Lynn "Y" Juniors 19-16 last Saturday afternoon while Boston "Y" defeated Hyde Park Juniors 59-15. In the evening game, the Newton Juniors defeated Boston 42-20, thereby winning the Eastern division of the Y. M. C. A. Junior Championships.

The semi-finals will be played at Newton "Y" this Saturday evening. The winners of the Eastern section (Newton), Narragansett section (Newport R. I.), Western section (either West Springfield or Athol) and Merriam section (Lowell) will play for the right to enter the finals one week from Saturday night at the Newton "Y" gym. The winning team of this tournament will receive a trophy and each boy will receive a gold medal symbolic of the Y. M. C. A. Junior Basketball Championships for Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

NEWTON W. C. T. U.

The regular meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held Thursday, Feb. 7, 2:30 p. m. at the Baptist Parish House, 848 Beacon st., Newton Centre. There will be a Frances Willard Memorial Day program. Hostesses, Dr. Reid and Mrs. Howard. All interested in promoting temperance are cordially invited.

ALL NEWTON MUSIC SCHOOL

Owing to the storm of last week the Pupils' Recital at the Clafin branch had to be postponed. It will be held at the Clafin School, Newtonville, on Friday evening, Feb. 8, at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Kiwanis Club

Mr. James A. Moyer, a resident of Newton and head of the Division of University Extension in the Department of Education of Massachusetts, was the speaker at the Newton Kiwanis Club at Charles River Country Club last Tuesday noon. He gave a very interesting talk on "Leisure Time on Our Hands," bringing out the fact that idleness is almost a sin, and if we do not use our idle time for some good benefit it is a sin.

At the rate of the cutting down of working hours as it has been in the past few years since 1931, in 1950 we will be working five hours a day on a five-day a week basis. What will we do with the leisure time? He advocated study and education in the form of educational courses at home and in the rural high schools. In the past five years nearly three millions of people have gone back to the farm, migrating from the cities and towns on account of the scarcity of industrial employment. This amount will increase yearly as a family in the country is almost sure of three meals a day and a comfortable home to live in, where such is not the case in the cities and towns at present.

The speaker for next Tuesday will be William Reilly, Secretary of Vocational Service of the Boston Y. M. C. A. He will speak on Vocational Service as rendered in the Y. M. C. A. units throughout the United States.

Annual Meeting of Newton Welfare Bureau

"What 1935 Expects of Private Family Social Work" will be the topic of the guest speaker, Mr. Clarence A. Pretzer of Providence Family Welfare Society, at the Annual Meeting of the Newton Welfare Bureau, Inc. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 6th at 4:15 P. M. at 2 Austin Street, Newtonville. There will also be a report of the year's work and election of officers and directors for the coming year.

COMMONWEALTH COUNTRY CLUB

The luncheon bridge at the Commonwealth Country Club, Chestnut Hill, on Monday Feb. 4, is being sponsored by Mrs. Harry E. Moore of 128 Warren st., Newton Centre, and Mrs. Henry John Horn of 1791 Beacon st., Brookline.

THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS

The Dionne quintuplets are right in the news now because the Boston Sunday Post sent a staff representative to live with them in their own home town. He is telling in the Sunday Post all the fascinating details of their daily life, the diet that has made them plump and joyful with health, the exercises that are making them "rarings" to creep — information that is very helpful to all mothers as well as delightfully interesting reading.

The Sunday Post has also just started an authentic life story of Dr. F. E. Townsend, founder of the Townsend Pension Plan, and one of the most talked of men in America today. Also, starting next Sunday, the Sunday Post offers a series of passionate love letters by famous men and women who never expected these epistles would see the light of day and, therefore, wrote from their hearts.

Jaynes League Sponsoring Mid-Winter Cabaret

Five entertainment numbers will feature the Mid-Winter Cabaret under the auspices of the Jaynes League of the West Newton Unitarian Church to be held Friday evening, February 15th, in the Parish House. An amusing one-act play "A Hint to Brides" will be given, the Misses Wright and Wilson and the Messrs. Layton and Vainwright taking part. Three Rhythm Boys will give an act, and Miss Jeanne Bachrach, well-known for her lovely voice, will head a song and dance number assisted by Messrs. Caton, Hoffman, Holman and Ogden. Between the acts, a group of young women of the League will sell candy and serve refreshments. Morris' Tech Orchestra will furnish the music for dancing between the entertainment numbers and afterwards. The several acts are being coached by Mrs. Stearns Poor, Mrs. Raymond H. Piper, and Mrs. Kingsley Van Rensselaer Day. Mrs. Richard G. Warren is in charge of the properties. Miss Meralyn Dalton is President of the Jaynes League, Mrs. Paul Dove is General Director, and Mr. Edward Harrington is Chairman of the Entertainment Committee.

Water Colors By Newtonville Artist Shown at Library

The Newton Free Library has been showing a group of water colors by Warren T. Berry, Newtonville artist, in the Library Art Room. The show opened on Monday, Jan. 21, and will close tomorrow night, Saturday, February 2.

Mr. Berry, who is a graduate of the Newton High School, the Massachusetts School of Art and the Boothbay Harbor Studios, has drawn his subjects from the quaint fishing villages typical of the Maine coast. He has taught block printing at the Art Teachers' Association of Boston, and at the Boston University Extension Art Department, and at Boothbay Harbor, Maine. His work has been shown before in Newton, also at the Grace Home Galleries in Boston and at the Morton Galleries in New York.

Shirley Temple—Quintuplets Head Paramount Features

With Shirley Temple, the Dionne Quintuplets and last but not least Bob Mills and His Kiddie Revue on Saturday at the Paramount, the entire family will want to turn out to witness the activities of this juvenile week.

Shirley Temple will be seen in "Bright Eyes" starting Sunday for four days. It is said it is the best piece this little star of the screen has done yet. She is today the greatest child actress ever discovered. With her in "Bright Eyes" is Jimmie Dunn who has played opposite her in most every production. On the same program will be "The Band Plays On" with Robert Young and Stuart Erwin, a very wholesome college football story and a good companion picture for "Bright Eyes."

Beginning Thursday besides the two features will be seen the latest exclusive pictures of "A Day in the Lives of the Dionne Quintuplets," from dawn to bedtime, feeding, sleeping, bathing, their parents, doctor and nurse, their specially built hospital and at last their washline. This is a most interesting 10 minute film and is really worth the price of admission to see these interesting youngsters. The main feature for the last half of the week will be Laurel and Hardy in "Babes in Toyland" and Ida Lupino and Richard Arlen in "Ready for Love." The management is pleased to announce that their parking space opposite the theatre on Bacon street is quite a popular asset to their patrons.

Chinese Missionary at Newtonville Church

At Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, the Rev. George W. Shepherd spoke last Sunday morning to the Men's Class at 9:45 and to the congregation at 11:00. Mr. Shepherd returned to China in the fall of 1926 and has spent more than eight years in close contact with Chinese communists. As a missionary of the American Board he has been at work in the heart of the Kiangsi-Fukien Soviet territory. Eight of his fellow missionaries have been tortured to death by Red soldiers, he himself has been looted six times, reported captured and dead, held as a Russian spy by the governmental forces until Chinese farmers recognized him, and has been the one missionary that nobody expected to come out alive. He and his family have lived through eight of the most eventful years in the development of China, he has been at work in the villages of Kiangsi and Fukien where he has organized what Sherwood Eddy calls "the finest piece of work that he has seen in any country."

Mrs. Shepherd, known as Dr. Clara Sargent Shepherd, is a specialist in rural health, and has gone through thick and thin with her husband. They will be at home for a few months of rest and study before returning to their work among the farmers and toilers of Kiangsi and Fukien.

The West Newton W. C. T. U. celebrated its forty-fifth anniversary in the parlors of the Lincoln Park Baptist Church Tuesday evening, Jan. 22. A home cooked supper was served at half past six.

At the tables there was community singing the songs being composed by one of the members, Dr. N. Louise Rand. After the supper a most enjoyable program was given. Mrs. M. Millie Beardsley made a few remarks of welcome and the Kovitz trio composed of Miss Anna Kovitz, violinist; Miss Norma Olson, cellist; and Miss Dorothy Kovitz, pianist, rendered several selections. Following this Mrs. Florence Krueger gave readings. Mr. Charles Holland, baritone, sang, Miss Helen Morse, gave a reading. Interspersed through the program were remarks by the Middlesex President, Mrs. Grace M. Hamilton, also by Mrs. Mabelle Graves, president of Newton Union. Rev. J. S. Franklin, pastor of the church, and Dr. Rand, gave a short history of the West Newton Union. Dr. David L. Martin of Dorchester, who is a worker among young men's organizations gave a very interesting talk of his work in the West and urged education along the temperance lines. The evening closed with community singing.

Florist Inaugurates New Service in the Newtons

Eastman's Flower Shop of Newtonville is the sponsor of a new idea in the marketing of cut flowers, through the medium of Eastman's Flower Club. Each member of the club is assured of fresh flowers in the home at all times. For a small nominal charge, flowers are delivered to members twice weekly. Mr. Eastman says, "Although the club has been in existence only a week or two, the response from Newton flower lovers, as evidenced by the enrollment, is very gratifying. Only selected, fresh flowers are being distributed from a large variety of spring flowers."

Annual Dinner Meeting Of Hospital Trustees

The Annual Dinner Meeting of the Trustees of the Newton Hospital was held at the Hospital Tuesday evening, January 29th. Among those present were members of the Medical and Surgical Staffs, Trustees, Heads of Departments and invited guests. Dr. Channing Frothingham, Chief of Staff at the Faulkner Hospital was the guest of honor. The following Trustees were elected for a term of five years, expiring January, 1940:

Mrs. H. B. Day, Louis Harvey, Mrs. C. E. Hatfield, Mrs. H. O. Marcy, Jr., H. J. Nichols, L. B. Rogers, J. S. Schirmer, J. H. Sellman, Mrs. G. H. Talbot, R. C. Thompson, Henry Waters, M.D., R. A. Whidden.

Officers elected were: President, E. J. Frost; Vice-Presidents, W. F. Chase and A. R. Weed; Treasurer, W. J. Spaulding; Clerk, W. H. Rice. Standing Committees elected: Members of the Executive Committee, W. F. Chase, H. M. Cole, Miss Marguerite Flanders, J. A. Paine, A. W. Raynor, L. B. Rogers, W. E. Stanwood, Mrs. V. B. Sweet.

Members of the Finance Committee: S. M. Bolster, A. C. Burnett, G. Calkins, C. B. Gordon, W. H. Hill, H. E. Locke, D. D. McKee, H. J. Nichols, W. H. Rice, J. H. Sellman. Members of the Investment Committee: H. M. Biscoe, W. E. Jones, F. L. Richardson.

Members of the Auditing Committee: C. C. Spring, W. E. Stanwood. The Hospital Staff has elected for Trustees: Dr. Henry F. Keefer, Dr. Frank R. Clark.

Considerable interest was manifested in the report of the Executive Committee by its chairman, Herbert M. Cole. The report in part, follows:

The past year, the fifth since occupancy of our new building, has been one of real progress and achievement and superficial reading of our income account does not tell the whole story. I would mention three major developments. In the first place we have greatly improved the quality of our nursing care by the employment of an increased number of graduate nurses, thereby releasing an even larger number of nurses in training. Second, we have greatly expanded and improved the Out Patient Department and its equipment, and third, we have installed soundproofing material in our corridors and diet kitchens, thus reducing irritating noises to the minimum and affording peace and quiet to the patient. Most enthusiastic approval greeted this improvement.

Our gross business for 1934 in round figures amounted to $276,000, an increase of $17,000 over 1933; our direct operating loss, after charging into expenses all additions and improvements, was $87,000. Our red ink balance, after endowment income and donations, was $2,600, or a few dollars less than the corresponding deficit in 1933.

Last year we did $136,000 worth of private patient business and on January 14 last, only $2,272 of this total, less than 2 per cent, had not been paid. A record which has justly challenged the admiration of other comparable hospitals who simply cannot believe we are telling the truth. Much of the credit for this showing is due to our Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Wyman, who previous to a happy event last summer, was known as Miss Houston. Permit me right here to call attention to the long and faithful service of Miss Darling. She has served us as head bookkeeper for no less than 25 years.

The daily average number of patients treated was 162.8 against 152.4 in 1933, the high point being 215 on June 6. Our baby department did a flourishing business, with a total count of 795. All but 129 babies born in Newton in 1934 first registered here.

In the Out Patient Department there were 15,052 visits against 14,595 in the previous year. We are happy to report that we have at last relieved the wretched working conditions in this department. With an expenditure of $10,000 we have added greatly to the floor space, modernized the equipment, and are now able to serve these very poor but worthy patients properly. A total of 9,152 days of free care were given in the general hospital at a cost of $26,000.

If by any chance anyone should complain to you of our charges, you might tell them that 30 per cent of our patients get free care, 33 per cent pay less than cost, and only 37 per cent pay as much as cost. This is not a money-making institution and is not designed to be. Our per capita cost per day was $6.06, against $5.71 in 1933, and our $5.71 figure of the previous year compares with an average of 30 general hospitals of our type throughout the country of $5.94.

One factor in the higher 1934 figure was the 14 per cent increase in the cost of food. Another was the expenditure of $17,000 for additions and improvements, of which $10,000 was for the previously mentioned addition to our Out Patient Department. $3,165 for a new washer for the laundry, and $3,950 for sound proofing, all of which has been included in our operating expenses.

At two points we have increased our rates, which were manifestly too low. We have advanced the ward rate from $2.50 to $3.00 per day; other hospitals in our class charge from $3.00 to $3.50. We have also increased the so-called maternity ward rate from $40 to $50. This entitles the mother to 14 days of care, including use of delivery room, laboratory, etc., a figure which we believe to be most reasonable in the light of the amount and quality of care rendered. And incidentally we do not double the charge for twins of which we had 8 sets during the past year. At this point may I ask if you heard about the expectant father, who, after hours spent in pacing the Maternity Ward corridor, exclaimed: "Thank God, it's a girl. I'd never want a son of mine to go through what I have today!"

Already the year's Sensation! The ELECTRIC HAND

EASIER, SAFER DRIVING... YOU SHIFT GEARS
AT THE WHEEL... floor all clear in front

"A great idea!" say thousands who are enjoying this brand new driving experience — this vastly better method of gear control — in 1935 Hudson-built cars. With the Electric Hand, you shift as you always have, yet never take your hands from the wheel. You can select in advance the gear you want to use next; the Electric Hand does the shifting.

Crowds are flocking to see this "surprise feature." It's standard on Hudson Custom Eights and optional, for a small amount extra, on all other 1935 Hudsons and Terraplanes. And these cars offer many other things that are new.

The first steel roof. Steel all around you, a steel floor beneath, steel overhead. Bendix Rotary-Equalized Brakes that stop you more quickly, more smoothly, in a short, straight line. Great performance made greater. But you will want to check for yourself. Come and see these cars. Look at the others, too. Compare.

TUNE IN ON HUDSON "NEW STAR REVUE" featuring Kate Smith—Every Monday Evening at 8:30 E. S. T., 7:30 C. S. T., 9:30 M. S. T., 8:30 P. S. T. — over the Columbia Broadcasting System.

If you are not weary of figures, you may get some conception of the size of our institution and the magnitude of work performed here when I tell you that last year we fed an average of 400 people daily. This called for cooking and serving 438,000 meals. A total of 10,466 books were provided patients in the library service and while totally unrelated to either of these items, you will be interested to know how clean we are. No less than 1,438,000 pieces were handled in our laundry. We have made 35,729 laboratory tests, with 4,081 entries in the X-ray Department.

We have lost by death during the past year, two very valuable members of the staff—Doctors Fisher and Baldwin. We record their passing with a deep sense of loss.

From the Executive Committee, by virtue of the limitations under our by-laws of the years of service, we lose Dr. Leonard and Messrs. Whidden and Sellman, all of them highly valuable members, always willing to perform any service, but rotation in office may have its compensations.

You will all regret to learn that Mrs. George H. Talbot has resigned as President of the Hospital Aid Association after a service of 15 years. The work which this Association, under her inspiration and leadership, has accomplished is beyond measure in words. More than $50,000 has been contributed to us in one form or another by the Hospital Aid, including $25,000 for the new building fund. In addition to numerous smaller gifts the ladies of this splendid organization have provided for us a fluoroscopic operating table, a cardiograph, respirator and oxygen tent, all very expensive and highly valuable equipment, to say nothing of keeping our X-ray machines right up to date, at cost of hundreds of dollars.

Mrs. Talbot, we are deeply indebted to you and the ladies who are and have been associated with you. We are delighted to know you have accepted a place on the Hospital Board of Trustees. In the happy selection of your successor, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, we shall expect to continue the same friendly status which has characterized our relationship for so many years.

We owe a debt of gratitude to our President who tried very hard to resign, but we simply would not release him. Mr. Frost is a very busy man with heavy responsibilities which entail great strain upon his energies, but exhibiting his usual fine spirit he has consented again to serve us and for this I know I am but echoing your appreciation and gratitude.

More than to any one man we owe this splendid building to Leon Rogers. He headed a movement which brought into reality a long-cherished dream. In order to avoid any suspicion of partiality toward the Hospital, he resigned his trusteeship when he accepted the Presidency of the Community Chest. Here again, he served with great distinction. At his request his mantle has now fallen upon other shoulders, and we are proud to tell you that he has again been restored to membership on our Board, and I am sure he is just as happy about it as we are.

In conclusion: Somehow we have got the idea that we have a pretty fine institution; others at least, qualified to speak, so tell us. I do not think there is any danger of our becoming swell-headed about it; that would be fatal. Complaints, however, have been reduced to a minimum, but are always carefully investigated. We are not perfect, and do not profess to be, but I can say for the Executive Committee, the Medical and Surgical Staffs and the faithful workers who make up Miss Allen's splendid organization, that the whole force is working most efficiently, with morale at a high point, and with a determination on the part of every individual to make the Newton Hospital justly deserving of high praise.

Annual Meeting of Central Church, Newtonville

The members of Central Congregational Church, in Newtonville, gathered for their sixty-third annual meeting on Thursday, Jan. 17th, not only heard but also saw reviews of the year's activities as Chaucer W. Anderson exhibited motion pictures of the ladies of this splendid organization have provided for us a fluoroscopic operating table, a cardiograph, respirator and oxygen tent, all very expensive and highly valuable equipment, to say nothing of keeping our X-ray machines right up to date, at cost of hundreds of dollars.

Mrs. Talbot, we are deeply indebted to you and the ladies who are and have been associated with you. We are delighted to know you have accepted a place on the Hospital Board of Trustees. In the happy selection of your successor, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, we shall expect to continue the same friendly status which has characterized our relationship for so many years.

Willson, deaconess, constitute the Standing Committee of the church.

The church begins the new year with a membership of eight hundred and seventy-three and a Church School enrollment of 410 pupils and 48 teachers and officers. One hundred and eighty-four are enrolled in the Young People's organizations. Ernest W. Kuebler is the Director of Religious Education.

Daughters of Veterans Install Officers

On Tuesday night, January 22, Mrs. A. E. Cunningham Tent No. 2 Daughters of Veterans held a joint installation with J. Wiley Edmonds Camp 31, Sons of Veterans, in the Memorial Building at Newton Centre. Mrs. Sadie Wilcox, Mass. Department Treasurer was the installing officer. The officers for the coming year are—Agnes Sheridan, president; Velma McKay, S.V.P.; Nina Lovejoy, J.V.P.; Alice Beckwith, chaplain; May Kilder, treasurer; Nellie Osborne, secretary; Matilda Caldwell, patriotic instructor; Grace Keefe, guide; Alice Cunningham, guard; Blanche McGowan, asst. guard. President Sheridan in behalf of the Tent presented gifts to Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Tomphorse who was the guide of the installing staff. Remarks were made by Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Wheeler, Department President of the Relief Corps, and Commander Mick of J. Wiley Edmonds Camp. The officers of the Camp were installed by William Tisdell, District Aide.

President Sheridan was presented with a past president's gold badge and Commander Mick was presented with a past commander's badge.

PRAISES SNOW REMOVAL

Editor Newton Graphic:

On many sides we hear sharp criticism of our city officials in the way the recent unusually heavy storm was handled.

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

Vernon St., Newton Corner

DO YOU KNOW

That one of Newton's finest old houses has been remodelled to serve as a library for boys and girls?

That your library card may be used at the Boys' and Girls' Library?

That this Library is the centre from which juvenile books are ordered, made ready for circulation and distributed to the 9 Branch Libraries of the city?

That many titles included in the larger collection of books at the Boys' and Girls' Library cannot be duplicated in every Branch Library?

That filling in a reserve slip at your local Branch will bring such books to you?

That last month, Dec. 1934, 467 books were sent from the Boys' and Girls' Library to fill such requests received through the Branch Libraries?

That last year 42,415 juvenile books were circulated directly to borrowers who use the Boys' and Girls' Library?

That this Library has a special collection of fine editions and beautifully illustrated children's books for the use of parents and other adults?

That the annual list entitled "One Hundred Important Books for Boys and Girls, 1934" prepared by the Supervisor of Work with Children has recently been published and is available free of charge to any Newton resident?

That the Boys' and Girls' Library directly serves the schools of Newton, both public and private, by sending on request deposits of books for class-room reading?

That the Library also sends professional story-tellers to the schools in order to introduce the library and its books to the children?

That many visitors from other cities and states have come to see Newton's unusual Boys' and Girls' Library?

That young people and adults in all the Newtons are urged to take advantage of the opportunities which their Boys' and Girls' Library offers?

Have you ever visited it? The Library is open every day except Sundays and holidays from 9 until 6 o'clock.

"What Shall We Read to the Children?"

"Young mothers today are so appallingly wise! They know to a day when it is time to add to the quantity or variety of the little one's food; they are fully alive to the importance of outdoor play in making healthy bodies; they have heard and tales of the early graves of young prodigies, forced by parents less wise than ambitious. Perhaps, too, out of their respect for the opinion of the specialist in one line,—that of the child's physical care,—the mother acquires a feeling that it is best to leave to the expert in another the guidance of the child's reading."

"So it happens that we librarians often find the children of intelligent parents strangely narrow in their reading tastes, since we catch the children too late to have the necessary influence upon them. And so it happens that I am writing to urge fathers and mothers, while they are perfecting themselves in the knowledge of the care and feeding of children's bodies, to give more study than has been customary to the care and feeding of the young minds."

CLARA WHITEHILL HUNT.

The Library has suggested books which may be read by parents to children.

Daily Dash for Boston

Why has habit such strength that when it grips us we find it difficult, sometimes impossible, to shake it off? I refer to those of average mentality, or less. If there is any outstanding example of this remarkable hold that habit possesses it is found among those of us who feel that if we do not go to our daily tasks in Boston at a precise moment of the day the whole world will come tumbling down. Hundreds and hundreds of Newton citizens take the "eight something-or-other" train regularly every weekday. If their watches are slow or if for some other reason they are delayed and they hear the train approaching as they themselves are making for the railroad station—well, you know as well as I they become frenzied.

Men whose minds are never known to be flighty, whose business acumen has brought them money and who seldom make a poor guess about the stock market are as frantic when the train rolls in as if pursued by gangsters with machine guns. In order to catch the train they are willing to swing on while it is moving, regardless of the ice on the platform or car steps, and, barely escaping fatal consequences, climb aboard. Hair-raising experiences such as this are matters of almost daily occurrence.

And yet these same men wouldn't take the job of an aviator, structural steel-worker, steeple-jack or window-washer for a skyscraper if the pay were $1,000 a minute. Such occupations, they say, are hazardous. It's difficult to understand, so down it goes as another of life's many mysteries.

New Form of Vexation

Of course, if one is a true crusader one doesn't mind jibes and thrusts made by the less daring or bold. Therefore, I print a communication received by this column, adding a retort that presents the best "come-back" of which I am capable.

Our correspondent wrote: "Well, Lev, you've got to admit that your campaign against bicycle riding on the sidewalks was off when the drifts were piled high and nobody could walk, let alone ride, on any sidewalk in Newton."

To which I reply, "Possibly that is a true statement, but I noticed that you used their sleds instead and coasted under our feet, which was almost as dangerous."

Strange Money

The "Almighty Dollar" may suggest coin as well as greenbacks to some people, but these probably have many gray hairs, stiff joints and other evidences of advancing age. By this I mean that the silver dollar, which used to be called a "cart wheel," is a stranger to many of the younger people. To some it is unknown, if you will take my word for it.

For proof of my assertion I offer an incident which occurred last week when an indigent father handed over to his 15-year-old daughter, a bright and shiny silver dollar. Now this girl is nobody's fool, believe me, no matter what you may think after you have read this. Instead of saying, "O, how grand! Thank you very much," she held the coin for a while and studied it. "What the deuce is it, Dad?" she asked.

The "New Model" Urge

A study of the 1935 models at the big automobile exhibition and the talk I heard of lines and bodies and engines and brakes did not stir me to buying or thinking of acquiring a new car. The fact is I haven't an old one. No, I wasn't carried away with covetousness, either. I was satisfied with my lot as a pedestrian. But what did arouse me was the word "new".

As I viewed my own appearance I began to wonder if I shouldn't try to obtain a new coat. Or possibly a new hat, or new shoes, or a new suit or an entirely new outfit. "Will the model of dress I now wear be good enough for this year or should I worry over the possible purchase of brand new raiment?" I asked myself. It must have been the atmosphere. No doubt contagion was abroad and unwittingly I became infected. However, once outside I recovered and am still wearing what I have, with no plans for innovations.

Changes In Staff Of Newton Schools

Miss Ellen G. McGrath was appointed acting principal of the Weeks Junior High School at the meeting of the School Committee on Monday night, to succeed the late Frank E. Carr, former principal of the school. Miss McGrath, who has served as assistant principal at the school since its opening, has taught in the Newton schools for many years. Her salary will be increased while she is serving as acting principal. Sadie B. Johnstone was appointed temporary principal of the Elementary Evening School of which Mr. Carr was also principal. Miss Johnstone was secretary to Mr. Carr.

Ruth Dorriety was appointed a teacher at the Underwood School. The resignation of Irene Wilson of the F. A. Day School was received. She has taken a position as a high school teacher in Scarsdale, N. Y.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

Referring to the item in "About Town" last week relative to the use of snowshoes on "knee-action" wheels of automobiles, J. W. Tapper of Newton Highlands wrote—"Some time between 1904 and 1910 there was an automobile with runners on back and paddles on front which was operated by its inventor and which had as a passenger the then Governor. I was with the American Express Company at the South Station at that time, and the automobile proceeded from the express office and went down Atlantic ave."

Sudbury is becoming famous because of an inaccurate thermometer.

Several pages of minute details and drivel in newspapers each day concerning the Hauptmann trial. About ten lines about each person killed in this vicinity. Truly, we are an intelligent nation. And the travesty being continued at Flemington explains in part why murders and kidnapping are so prevalent in this country.

Feed the birds.

Funny how these athletic fellows, who have so much surplus energy that they must play golf, tennis or some other sports, or use up vitality in skiing and snowshoeing, refuse to exercise by shovelling the snow off their sidewalks.

The testimonial dinner to Roy V. Collins of the Brae Burn Club on Wednesday night was well deserved. For 13 years Mr. Collins gave freely of his time to the people of Newton as a member of the Board of Aldermen. He received no salary for this long and loyal service. We would like to see the city have the benefit of his knowledge and experience in some public capacity.

In the years before automobiles brought mixed blessings and curses, highways did not have to be cleared of snow after storms and taxpayers were not burdened with the huge cost of this type of public work. In the days of our youth when snow fell on a street it remained there until it melted. The longer it stayed, the better we liked it, for it meant more sleigh rides, more pung rides.

Early on the morning of a storm, or the morning following a storm, at 4 or 5 a. m., one would hear, if awake, the soft thud of a horse's hoofs as a street department employee guided a plow along a sidewalk. Comparatively few persons rode in those years; most used shank's mare, and the sidewalks had to be plowed so that commuters could hike to the railroad stations, or those who worked here could get to the mills and stores. Street crossings were promptly cleared of deep snow, gutters plowed and catch-basins kept open. Pedestrians were in the big majority and they received attention. In recent years they have been forgotten men and women.

In this mechanical age most persons of influence walk seldom along our streets. But, with traffic conditions such as they have been since the big storm, a large percentage of those who usually travel by automobile, have kept their cars in garages and exercised their legs. This condition is apt to occur after any deep fall of snow. It results in a large increase in the number of pedestrians. It is an added argument for having sidewalks promptly plowed, and for insistence that the police should enforce the ordinance relative to the clearing of sidewalks from snow. Any person too old, or because of frail health, too feeble to shovel snow off a sidewalk is entitled to consideration, but persons who are rugged enough to perform such a task, or financially able to hire someone to do it, should be compelled to obey the city ordinance, or else brought into court. There certainly is no reason why the police should be lenient with owners of stores and other business places in business districts, who have 12 or 20 feet of sidewalk to clear of snow and do not do it. It is very hazardous for pedestrians, especially old persons, to be compelled to walk on highways with automobiles passing them by narrow margins, and with such vehicles apt to skid or swerve on icy or rutted streets.

The Waban Improvement Association deserves praise for its action in sending out 1100 notices to residents and property owners of that district exhorting them to clear their sidewalks of snow.

Phineas T. Barnum said—"The American people like to be fooled." As proof that Barnum was right is the fact that so many of our citizens have been duped by propaganda, and favor this country becoming embroiled in the machinations and quarrels of tricky, treacherous European politicians; of becoming involved again in wars which will almost inevitably start in Europe and Asia. We congratulate the 38 Senators who by their votes on Tuesday saved us from being further duped by the European intrigues who have repudiated the debts of billions of dollars they owe to the people of this country. The writer was in France and other of our "dear allies" countries right after the armistice and had opportunities to see directly the change from sycophancy to scorn of their attitude towards the U. S. A. Their attitude towards us is—"What's yours is ours, and what's ours is our own."

Richard Dwyer of the Newton Buick Company was recently presented with a valuable wrist watch by members of the Newton police department in appreciation of his services as instructor of revolver practice to the Newton police. Under Mr. Dwyer's tuition rapid progress has been made in marksmanship. The presentation was made by Lieut. William Mahoney.

who characterized Roy Collins as a "square shooter", added to the joviality of the occasion by giving a character impersonation. C. Ray Cabot said the gathering was just a group of old friends of Mr. Collins who desired to show their appreciation for the 13 years service of the latter as an alderman during the period when Newton grew rapidly. Mr. Cabot said that there are some things left in life that the dollar mark does not control, such as friendship and unselfish public service. He said that Roy Collins can have the satisfaction of having had sincerity of purpose, of having done a good job and of having given freely of his time. In behalf of those present, Mr. Cabot presented Mr. Collins with a beautifully designed silver platter, suitably inscribed.

Mr. Collins said he is unworthy of the praise bestowed upon him and thanked his friends from the bottom of his heart. He said his experience in the Board of Aldermen had been very interesting. He remarked that Newton has had a splendid type of government, quite in contrast with that of New York city where he resided before coming to Newton. He said there is no graft in Newton, and it is the duty of all Newton citizens to maintain this type of government in this city. He commented that local elections here participated in by only 20% of the voters may bring a poorer type of government.

Mrs. Marshall Made Playground Comr.

Mrs. Louis H. Marshall of 10 Hartford street, Newton Highlands has been appointed a member of the Newton Playground Commission by Mayor Weeks to succeed the late Thomas J. Lyons. She is the first woman to be appointed to this commission. She is the wife of Dr. Louis H. Marshall and formerly taught in the Newton schools for seven years. She is a past president of the Newton Centre Catholic Women's Club, a director of the Newton Welfare Bureau, and has been active in the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross Welfare Division of the Newton Centre Council of Women's Clubs and education committee of Newton Federation of Women's Clubs.

Roundman Food Products Enjoys Increased Activity

Convincing evidence of the increasing activity at the plant of Roundman Food Products, Inc., at Newton Lower Falls, was the arrival one morning recently of a carload shipment of cans. In the past two years or more of general business decline, regular delivery of cans by motor truck has been sufficient for the local company's needs, but the recent sales and advertising campaigns have greatly increased the demand for the company's products and necessitated shipments of supplies in larger quantities.

New canning equipment of the latest design and of far greater capacity further attest the growing demand for Roundman Steamed Puddings and Rounds Cocoa products. The company now enjoys practically complete distribution throughout this section, and is fairly general representation in grocery stores throughout New England. The satisfaction of purchasers of Roundman products explains the gratifying repeat business which grocers are enjoying which, in turn, explains the willing co-operation on the part of retailers and wholesale grocers in the company's sales activities.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 3.

The Golden Text is: "Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another" (1 John 4:11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. . . . And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:7, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "A misplaced work changes the sense and misstates the Science of the Scriptures, as, for instance, to name Love as merely an attribute of God; but we can by special and proper capitalization speak of the love of Love, meaning by that what the beloved disciple meant in one of his epistles, when he said, 'God is love.' . . . More than this we cannot ask, higher we cannot look, farther we cannot go" (pp. 319, 6).

Avantaggio Gets City Food Contract

Mayor Weeks on Monday awarded the contract for supplying food to recipients of welfare aid in Newton to Frank Avantaggio of 843 Washington st., Newtonville. Mr. Avantaggio's bid was slightly under that of Peter Guzzi of West Newton who had had contracts for supplying food to the Welfare Department commissary for over a year. These contracts cover all food supplies for recipients of relief who are on a commissary basis, except bread and milk. The bread contract was again awarded to the Hathaway Baking Company. The milk contract was awarded to the Noble Milk Company. Mr. Avantaggio, who will have the contract for the next two months, is a native of this city and conducts the business which his father, Augusto Avantaggio started in Newton 47 years ago.

Eclipses for 1935

SEVEN eclipses this year. Five of the Sun. Two of the Moon.

Which reminds us. The number of depositors in mutual savings banks at the end of 1934 eclipsed all previous records.

If "coming events cast their shadows before them," doesn't this indicate better days ahead?

Recent Deaths

WALDRON H. RAND, JR.

Waldron H. Rand, Jr., of 139 Gibbs st., Newton Centre, died on January 29 following an illness of six weeks. He was born in Boston 59 years ago and attended Boston Latin School where he was colonel of the school regiment. He played on the baseball team at Harvard for four years, and was captain of it in his senior year. He was one of the class marshals in 1898. After graduating from college he entered the employ of Wright & Ditson and in 1899 he became connected with the Security Safe Deposit Company, later becoming its president. Subsequently through mergers of Boston financial institutions he became vice president of the Columbia Trust Company and the Atlantic National Bank. He later became president of the latter bank, holding this position at the time of his death.

While engaged in the banking business, Mr. Rand studied law and in 1905 was admitted to the bar. He was senior member of the law firm of Rand & Sneddon. During the World War he served as captain in the Harvard R. O. T. C. and in 1918 was commissioned a captain in the United States Army, advancing to the rank of Major in the 4th Infantry Brigade. He received the rank of Lieutenant in the national guard in 1923 and was made a member of the general staff of the 26th Division in 1927. Mr. Rand was treasurer of the Riding Club of Boston and a member of Harvard, Union and Brae Burn Clubs, Dalhousie Lodge of Masons, The Villagers of Newton Centre, the Boston and Massachusetts Bar Associations. He was a resident of Newton Centre for 36 years.

His funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at Trinity Church, Newton Centre; Rev. Edward T. Sullivan officiated. Interment was in Newton Cemetery. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gertrude (MacKay) Rand; a daughter, Katherine Rand; his mother, Mrs. Emma Rand of Brookline; and a brother, Leon W. Rand of Brookline.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lincoln Edmonds of Lakeview avenue, Newtonville, announced at a tea last Sunday the engagement of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth Edmonds, to Dr. Fred Samuel Hult of Laramie, Wyoming, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. M. Hult of Ames, Iowa.

Miss Edmonds graduated from Mt. Holyoke College with the class of 1927. Dr. Hult is a graduate of the Iowa State College, was at one time a member of the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College, and is now on leave from the University of Wyoming where he is University Editor and a department head in the School of Agriculture. For the period of his leave, which was granted for purposes of travel and study, Dr. Hult is making Philadelphia his temporary home.

A June wedding is planned.

Waban Residents Asked To Clear Their Sidewalks

The following notice was sent out on January 29 to 1100 property owners and residents in the Waban district:

"SNOW REMOVAL—URGENT"

"Irrespective of any legal obligation to remove snow from the sidewalk in front of your property, we are faced with the Civic necessity of doing the job. The street department has done fine work clearing the streets but the day the sidewalk plows will not handle the deep drifts. These walks must be shoveled clear. It will be many days before this can be done with the street department men. Pedestrians, especially school children, are in peril, through being forced to walk in the streets. For the safety of your family—and your neighbor's family—please remove the snow from your sidewalk—NOW."

WABAN IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.

"Our aim is to be helpful to the Newton Street Department which despite heroic efforts, has been unable to cope with the situation. In this emergency each individual citizen must do his share to ensure the safety of the public."

Yours very truly,
WABAN IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.
L. A. ESTES, President.

LYDIA PARTRIDGE WHITING CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Miss Marion Morse of Newton Highlands opened her home on Tuesday, January 22nd, for a meeting of the Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, D. A. R. The Regent, Mrs. Frank A. Shute, presided. During the business meeting four delegates for the March conference were appointed, Mrs. Frank A. Shute, Miss Fanny Hall, Mrs. Frank G. Voorhies, Mrs. Sterling G. Thomas.

Two delegates were appointed to the Washington Congress, Mrs. Frank A. Shute, Mrs. Albion H. Brown. The business meeting was followed by a delightful half hour of music. Violin solos by Miss Churchill, vocal selections by Mrs. K. J. Waite.

National Defense, the subject of the meeting, was most clearly and interestingly presented by Mrs. Charles M. Ramsay, State Chairman of National Defense.

Expert Advice Offered On Tax Assessments

Owing to the huge appropriations made by the government in their National Recovery Program, there will doubtless be an increase in the tax rate. J. Robert Boomer, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this paper, can give you valuable assistance in appraising your personal property and in making out your forms. Mr. Boomer has been in business since 1909, and his twenty-five years' experience in buying and selling household furnishings, works of art, and other property make his inventories and appraisals exact and in line with the current market values. Beside being in a position to give his customers advice on their tax assessment forms, he prepares accurate lists for fire and theft policies. A conference with Mr. Boomer might save you money this year and in years to come.

School Committee Lauds Work of Frank F. Carr

At its meeting on Monday night the Newton School Committee passed the following resolutions as a tribute to the late Frank F. Carr, who was principal of the Weeks Junior High School at Newton Centre.

MEMORIAL FOR FRANK F. CARR

The Newton Public Schools have suffered a great loss in the death of Frank F. Carr on January 19, 1935. Mr. Carr has served as a principal in the city of Newton since 1904 when he became principal of the Horace Mann District. He was appointed as Newton's first junior high school principal when he became head of the Frank A. Day School in 1922. He served here until his appointment as principal of the John W. Weeks Junior High School in 1931. For thirty-one years he has been an active, dynamic leader and worker for the welfare of Newton.

Mr. Carr was a teacher of teachers, an inspired guide of boys and girls. Aggressive, yet kindly and sympathetic, he always had the best interests of boys and girls in his mind. He did not lose sight of the larger values in education and life. No detail of organization was too small for his earnest consideration. All the workers who were associated with him felt his loyalty, his sincerity, his good judgment, his vision. He had a remarkable ability for putting into practice the sound and defensible ideas of a modern program of education. His passing is a loss not only to the School Department but to the community which he served and which he loved. In character and leadership we have lost one of our finest men and our greatest teachers. The exact place occupied by Mr. Carr will never be filled.

Recognizing the great loss that we have sustained, the School Committee desires to record this expression of our appreciation of the life and work of Frank F. Carr, and asks the Secretary to send a copy of this resolution to the family.

W. C. T. U.

The Annual Institute of the Middlesex County Woman's Christian Temperance Union held in the Y. W. C. A. Building in Cambridge on Jan. 22nd was well attended by Newton members.

Mrs. Grace M. Hamilton, president of Middlesex County, presided at both the morning and afternoon sessions. The splendid program gave much information and also inspiration to those present.

Mrs. John A. Groves presented the subject, "Wholesome America."

The members present at the Institute adopted unanimously the following resolution, "Be it resolved; that we work to restore that Wholesome America which, recognizing revenue made from that which destroys the people is unsound, goes to the polls and votes against legalized liquor, gambling, lotteries and red light districts."

Bryant & Stratton Observe Seventieth Anniversary

In January 1865, Messrs. Bryant, Stratton and Company opened the doors of the Old Mercantile Library Building, Summer st., Boston, "for the reception of pupils in Writing, Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Commercial Calculations and cognate studies."

On Friday, January 25, 1935, some of the 75,000 students who have attended the school since its founding will gather at the Main Ballroom of the Coppley Plaza, Boston, to celebrate the seventieth anniversary of the founding of the school.

The Bryant & Stratton Alumni Association will hold its Annual Meeting in conjunction with the reunion celebration. Mr. J. W. Blaisdell and Mr. L. O. White, assisted by past and present members of the faculty, will welcome the alumni after the short business meeting of the association which will be held at 7:45.

Mr. David Sprague, who is in charge of the entertainment, has secured the WEEL Entertainers, consisting of Miss Willie Morris, Soprano; Russell Dorr, Baritone; Dorothy Curtis, Accompanist, and Robert Brien, Humorist.

Day and Night Adult Classes

Unemployed young people and other residents of Newton will now have an opportunity to enjoy a course of adult education. Such a course is being planned under the auspices of the Emergency Relief Administration in Massachusetts with the co-operation of Mr. Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of Schools.

Classes in French, both Conversational and Advanced, Dressmaking, Fashions and Costume Designing, Advanced Typewriting, Dramatics, and Forum Discussion of Current Events are among those being scheduled. These classes will be held afternoons and evenings at the Stearns School, the Davis School and the F. A. Day Junior High School. Other schools will be added to the project as the demand for classes develops. The classes will be open free of charge to all residents of Newton 18 years of age and over. Students may register on the following days at these schools: at the F. A. Day Junior High School on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday between 3 and 5 p. m.; at the Stearns School on Monday and Tuesday between 7:30 and 9:30 p. m., and at the Davis School on Wednesday and Friday between 7:30 and 9:30 p. m. Further information in regard to these courses may be obtained by writing or phoning the office of the Dept. of Schools, Elm road, Newtonville.

58th Wedding Anniversary

Wednesday, January 30, was the 58th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Walton of 275 Linwood avenue, Newtonville. They were married at Haverhill in 1877 and have resided in this city for 50 years. Mr. Walton was for many years supervisor of music in the Newton public schools. After his retirement he served as an Alderman. They have three daughters, Miss Millie Walton of New York City, Miss Catherine Walton of Niagara Falls, and Mrs. Ruth Critchett of New York City.

Newton Couple Celebrate 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Elkins of 14 Roland street, Charlemont, held an anniversary celebration in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding day on Monday evening, January 28th, at 7:30 p. m. A delicious roast chicken dinner was served to over fifty guests which was followed by an entertainment of instrumental and vocal music, composing baritone solos by Mr. John McMeesters, saxophone solos by Edward Wildman, Jr., and piano solos by Miss Ruth Wildman and Mr. George Haigh.

Old fashioned square dances, Virginia reels and other dancing were enjoyed. Among the relatives attending were Mrs. Elkins' mother, Mrs. Robert Carr of Westbury, R. I., age 83 years, her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoar and their son of Waltham and a sister, Mrs. Carl Eschbach of West Newton.

The table was decorated with a large basket of white carnations with silver trimmings on the basket a gift from friends of the First M. E. Church of Newton Upper Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Elkins received many beautiful and useful gifts in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Elkins is an earnest worker in the welfare work of the First M. E. Church in Upper Falls, where she is the superintendent of the Golden Rule Cottage.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell J. Lowry of 27 Shaw street, West Newton, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Tuesday, January 29. An informal reception was held during the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry were married in Dorchester in 1885. Mr. Lowry who is in the leather business is treasurer of the Leather Benevolent Society. They have three daughters, Mrs. William B. Durkee of Waban, Mrs. Charles Wyman of Ottumwa, Iowa, and Mrs. Samuel T. Tutill of Cambridge, a son, Maxwell J. Lowry, Jr., of West Newton and seven grandchildren.

M. C. O. F. BEANO PARTY

Middlesex Court, No. 60, M. C. O. F., will hold a Beano Party, Tuesday evening, February 12th, at Elk's Hall, Centre street, Newton. Thomas F. Bryson, F. S., is chairman and is being assisted by the Officers of the Court. Many beautiful prizes will be awarded.

NORUMBEGA DISTRICT COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Board of Education of the Norumbega District Council is holding its February meeting this week Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. E. O. Woodward of Newtonville. President Herbert C. Mayer will preside and business will include plans for the Annual District Convention.

The Waltham School of Religious Education, conducted in co-operation with the Norumbega District Council, and open to all church school workers of the District, began auspiciously with over 60 persons showing much interest. This school is held Tuesday evenings at the First Congregational Church, and offers five courses as follows:—

"Planning the Sunday School lesson," Miss Alice Nelson of Newtonville; "Urgent Problems in Social Living," Rev. A. William Loos of Waltham; "Our Pupils and How They Learn," Mrs. H. P. Williams; "Young People's Work in the Church," Everett H. Johnson, formerly of Newton; and "Understanding the Old Testament," Rev. D. D. Hoagland of Waltham.

The Young People's Conference, which is to take place February 8-9, under the auspices of the Norumbega District Council, is to be at Second Church, West Newton. Members of the Young People's Inter-church Council are enthusiastically promoting this event and held an officers' meeting last Wednesday evening, in spite of the stormy weather, to make plans for registration.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE

The young people of the churches in the Norumbega District are looking forward to one of the largest and best conferences ever enjoyed by their group in this community. The interest shown thus far indicates larger attendance than usual.

The Conference dates are February 8 and 9, Friday and Saturday, at Second Church, West Newton.

A speaker who is said to be the originator of the "United Youth Movement" from Pennsylvania. He is Edward H. Bonsall, Jr., Young People's Superintendent for the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association. This United Youth Movement is sponsored by the leading denomination workers with youth and by other organizations in the United States. Its theme is "Christian Youth Building a New World," which is to be considered under the headings, A New Person, New Home, New Church, New Community, New Nation, and New World.

The officers of the Inter-church Young People's Council are as follows: President, Roland H. Jones of West Newton; vice president, Elizabeth Halliday of Newtonville; Secretary, Betty Wright of Newton; Treasurer, John L. Allen of Newton Highlands.

lands, Chairman of Publicity Tom Stuart, assisted by Donald Kirkpatrick, both of Newton Centre; Chairman of Badges, Mary Jowett; Chairman of Publicity, Lewis Wroe of Waltham.

Parish Players Present Three Plays at 'Family Party'

Below-zero weather proved no deterrent to the audience that crowded St. Paul's Parish House in Newton Highlands on Wednesday evening to greet the Parish Players on the occasion of their monthly "family party" for members and guests. Three one-act plays were presented, the first, which was written by the rector, Charles O. Farrar, having its initial performance.

"He Who Commands the Tower," was staged under the direction of the author, who has done much research into the history and romance of bell-ringing during the middle ages, particularly throughout the fifteenth century, in which the incident was laid. The cast included Lloyd Yeager, Dorothy Goddard, Kemp Lambert, Caroline Allingham, William Newby.

"Hush Money," a short act with three characters, was very well done indeed by Mr. Crossen and Miss Sargent, with Mr. Allen representing the strong arm of the law.

"Mrs. Pat and the Law," was an Irish comedy, in an Irish kitchen, with convincingly Irish characters, Irish brogue, and Irish wit.

The cast included Winifred Douglas, Paul Swail, Edgar Swail, Genevieve Dorothy, Emory Leonard.

Woman's Association Sews For Mayor's Relief

Mrs. V. A. Nielson and Mrs. Walter F. Stevenson, co-chairmen of social service work in the Woman's Association of the Newtonville Methodist Episcopal Church, have received a gratifying response to appeals for help in the sewing, which the Association is doing for the work of the Mayor's Relief. One extra all-day meeting has been held besides the regular monthly sewing meeting. Work has been done by the individual groups, twelve luncheons have been held and many of the women have sewed in their homes. As a result of this intensive work, 100 garments were completed during January.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Senora Orozco, instructor in Spanish, and Jeanette Hall of Hackensack, New Jersey, a member of the Senior class, were guests of the New York Lasell Club at its annual luncheon at the Hotel St. Regis on Saturday.

On Monday Rev. Mr. Birks of Natick spoke to the students of Florence Nightingale. At Tuesday assembly moving pictures of White Mountain trips made by Lasell students of previous years were shown by Dr. Winslow as an introduction to this year's week end at the mountains, beginning February eighth.

Mr. Harold Schwab of the Music Department has arranged a musicale for Sunday evening consisting of songs and choruses by the choir of the Union Church of Waban of which he is director.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

"Romany Revels" Royal Presentation

"Romany Revels," the Mid-Winter activity of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, will be staged at the Club House on Friday, February 8th, and Saturday, February 9th, at 8 p. m. There will be dancing also on Saturday evening following the entertainment. The general chairman, Mrs. Thomas Cumner, has adapted delightfully the story of a gypsy camp, told in music and dancing. Mr. D. Ralph MacLean will direct the music, and Mr. Harry Tomlinson the stage. Artists from all Newton will participate. The cast will comprise Marion E. Merrill, Gertrude Cumner, Martha Post Wright, Mada E. Lemont, Mildred Sircom, Beatrice Eastman, Elsie Blanchard, Ivy Westral, Marie Mather, Florence Mansfield, John Tullock, F. Nelson Lane, Ernest Schleicher, Paul Thayer, Omar Campbell, Alexander Logan, Alexander Goodale, Ralph Wheeler, and Norman Dow. The dancers will be Barbara Hastings, Gwendolyn Galle, and Patricia Hoyer, with Mrs. Henry Stanley, accompanying. Twenty-four players from the Newton Symphony Orchestra will give the dance music. The following people are in charge: Tickets, Mrs. George E. Squier; Publicity, Mrs. Joseph T. Bishop; Dance Orchestra, Mrs. Melville D. Liming; Costumes, Mrs. LeRoy A. Schall; Make-up, Mrs. James Mitchell; Scenery, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Noetzel; Stage, Mrs. Fred Shaw; Head Usher, Mr. Francis Douglas; Refreshments, Mrs. A. Harry Hutchinson; and Candy, Mrs. Fred Bond, assisted by girls from the Junior Woman's Club.

"Cuba's Rough Road" is the subject of the next International Supper Discussion to be held on Monday evening, February 4th, at 6:45 p. m., at the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Professor Leland Jenks, of Wellesley College, is to be the speaker. Because of his understanding of Cuba's problems, Professor Jenks was asked to be a member of the 1934 Commission at the request of the President of Cuba. This Commission was appointed to study Cuban affairs and to make constructive suggestions. "Our Cuban Colony" was written by Professor Jenks. Supper reservations, at 65 cents a ticket, may be made by telephoning Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer. Club members will be admitted free for the speaking at 7:45 p. m., for others the fee is 25 cents.

On Tuesday, February 5th, at 10 a. m., at the Club House, Dr. Miriam Franc Skirball will review "My Cousin F. Marion Crawford," by Maud Howe Elliott, and "Roman Spring," by Mrs. Winthrop Chandler.

The American Home committee is sponsoring a series of Cooking Classes by Mrs. Emma M. Tighe, of the Boston Edison Cooking School. The first will be on Thursday, February 7th, at 10 a. m., at the Club House; the subject, "See It and Forget It," automatically-cooked oven meals, and "Refrigeration Cookies."

Mrs. Poole At Auburndale

Grace Morrison Poole will be the speaker at the Auburndale Woman's Club for its Presidents' Day, Tuesday, February 5th. A Reception which will start promptly at 2 o'clock will open the afternoon's program. In the receiving line, which will be headed by the president, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, will be Mrs. Poole, president of the General Federation; Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, president, and Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director for the State Federation; and Mrs. Charles C. Willson, president of the Newton Federation. Also assisting in receiving the guests will be Mrs. George A. Follett and Mrs. Edward B. Gray, vice-presidents, and Miss Anne E. Bunker, treasurer of the Auburndale Club.

Preceding Mrs. Poole's address on "A New Day Dawns," there will be a group of violin selections by Charles Little, the blind violinist.

Mrs. Stuart A. Southgate and the members of her Reception committee will see that the visiting presidents are provided with hostesses, while Mrs. Ralph A. Balch and her Hospitality committee will serve refreshments at the close of the program.

Gen. Needham To Speak

General Daniel Needham, of Newton, will be the guest speaker at the Annual Legislative Meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club, which will be held in Odd Fellows Hall, North Gate park, West Newton, on Friday, February 8th, at 2:30 p. m. This meeting has been arranged by the Legislative department of the Club's Federation committee, of which Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield is chairman, and Mrs. Harry S. Keating the co-worker.

The Sales Tax, an act providing for a Retail Sales Tax in Massachusetts, will be discussed by members of the State committee of the Federation. The merits of the Townsend Plan also will be explained.

This will be a Federation meeting and will, therefore, be open to all club members of the Newton clubs, and a cordial invitation is extended to those interested in legislation to attend.

Music will be furnished by a trio of talented young musicians from the All-Newton Music School, and after the meeting a social hour will be enjoyed in the tea-room.

Entertainment for New Members

Dessert-luncheon for officers and new members, and a Reception at the close of the afternoon will be features of the February 5th meeting of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club, at the Congregational Parish House. The Membership committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry P. Forte, has done excellent work this year, having added 56 members to the Club list since last June.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Dale Warren, author and publisher, publicity director of the Houghton, Mifflin company, whose topic will be "The Publisher Goes to London."

Mrs. W. O. B. Little, chairman of the International Relations committee of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak on the subject "munitions."

Of additional interest on the program, Miss Hannah Sherman, twelve-year-old Junior High School student, daughter of A. C. Sherman, Jr., of Newtonville, will render two 'cello solos. Mr. Sherman will act as accompanist for his daughter.

Newtonville Woman's Club

"The International Outlook," as interpreted by George Sokolsky, is the lecture which Mrs. George Lowry Davis, Program chairman, has arranged for Club Day, Tuesday, February 5th. Mr. Sokolsky, born in Utica, N. Y., is a noted economist and political observer, and has made particular study of the relationship of the foreign policy of the United States to American and to World Economic conditions. His broad grasp of the subject which he presents lucidly and with a bit of humor makes him popular both as a lecturer and as contributor to many well-known magazines. On the same afternoon the Glee Club will make its initial appearance for this season. Under their new coach-accompanist, Mr. William Ellis Weston, the Club will sing miscellaneous numbers, for two of which, Elgar's "Snow," and Mabel Daniels' "Eastern Song," there will be violin obligatos played by Miss Anna Kovitz and Mr. Sigmund Romaszewicz, both residents of Newton, whose musical attainments have been followed with pride by music lovers of this city.

At this meeting time will be allowed to Mrs. Wallace H. Jose, chairman of the Legislative committee, for a brief review of the bills to be considered at the Mid-Year Meeting of the State Federation.

The lecture on "History in the Making" scheduled for January 24th was postponed on account of the storm, and a date in substitution will be announced later. The next lecture in the other series will be on Thursday, February 7th.

Social Science Club

A panel on the subject of the Retail Sales Tax for Massachusetts will be held on February 6th at the business meeting of the Social Science Club.

Mrs. Frederic A. Wetherbee and Mrs. I. S. Dillingham will be hostesses.

Newton Community Club

The meeting of the Newton Community Club scheduled for Thursday, January 24th, was cancelled on account of the storm.

The "movie" sponsored by the Newton Community Club on Saturday, the 19th, at the Newton Community Theatre was a great success. There was a good attendance, and the four pictures shown were enjoyed greatly. Members of the Junior Club sold candy. This undertaking was in charge of the American Home committee. Mrs. Sterling Nye Loveland, chairman, and Mrs. Frederic White, Ticket chairman.

Waban Woman's Club

The Waban Woman's Club will meet at the Neighborhood Club House on Monday afternoon, February 4th, at 2:30 o'clock. The speaker will be Mr. J. Franklin Eberole, Professor at the Harvard Business School, and his subject "The New Deal—A Financial Viewpoint." Mrs. Irving G. Clark will be in charge of the Tea.

West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club

A meeting of the West Newton Junior Women's Educational Club was held at the home of Beatrice Olen on Tuesday, January 22nd. The Club had anticipated having a speaker but due to her illness the Club was disappointed in this program as planned. During the meeting the girls started work on a one-act play called "No Men Wanted." After trying out for the different parts, Dorothy Stimets, Betty Burns, and Janet Buck were chosen. The play will be presented at the next meeting, and if it is considered successful, it will, in all probability, be presented at a meeting of the Senior Club. Plans are also under way for another play to be presented the following week.

Auburndale Review Club

Mrs. E. Sherman Chase, 47 Woodland road will be the hostess for the meeting of the Review Club, on Tuesday, February 5th, at 10 o'clock. The program will be papers entitled "The American Wing of the Museum of Fine Arts," by Mrs. Ralph H. Rogers; "Boston Artists," by Miss Margaret Haskell; and "Sculpture," by Mrs. George A. Follett.

State Federation

RADIO. Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, beloved "Massachusetts Daughter," will be the guest speaker on tomorrow's State Federation Radio program. This is given over Station WBZ from 11:30 to noon each Saturday, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edgar B. Richardson, Radio director. But not every week does Massachusetts have the privilege and honor of the presence of Mrs. Poole, busy president who goes from coast to coast of these United States keeping active the various club interests. Of attraction, too, is the announcement of a message from Mrs. Bernard Sabean, State Federation chairman of Motion Pictures, who will also speak on this broadcast. Music will be by the combined Glee Clubs of West Roxbury and Milton Women's Clubs, with Erdine Oedel conducting.

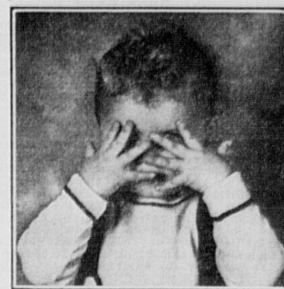

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CONFERENCE. Mrs. W. O. B. Little, chairman of the department of International Relations of the State Federation, will preside at the sixth annual Conference of the department on Friday, February 8th, at Hotel Westminster, St. James avenue, Boston, opening with a luncheon at 12:30 p. m. The guests will include Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, State president; Mrs. Herbert F. French, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith, chairman of the New England Conference; Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, chairman of the 1935 Triennial program at Detroit, and like Mrs. Smith, a past president of the State Federation; Miss Mary D. Clare, Sixth District director; and Miss Irene Armstrong, executive secretary of the Boston branch of the League of Nations Association. Mrs. Little will introduce as the first speaker Mrs. James W. Morrison, member of the National League of Women Voters and sponsor of the Cause and Cure of War Conference recently held in Washington. Her subject will be "What Has the Munitions Investigation Revealed?" Mr. Lewis Rex Miller, the second speaker, will take for his subject, "Highlights of Today's World Picture."

Mr. Miller, who is the editor of the weekly magazine of the Christian Science Monitor, has acted as the Monitor's correspondent in Paris and Geneva which has enabled him to keep in touch with European affairs through acquaintances formed while there. He is a world-wide traveler and a university lecturer. Tickets for the luncheon may be obtained from Mrs. Malcolm Green, 38 W. Ward at Newton Highlands, before February 5th, by telephoning Center Newton 2648.

CLUB INSTITUTES. Mrs. George A. Mellen, chairman of the department of Club Institutes, has arranged the following program for the next institute, to be held on Thursday, February 7th, at 10:30 a. m., in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A.: Welcome, Mrs. George A. Mellen; addresses: Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, second vice-president and adviser to the department, "Financial Helps"; Mrs. John H. Kimball, first vice-president and chairman of finance, "Finances of the Federation"; Mrs. Boyd F. Nowles, of Wollaston, "The Club Spirit"; Mrs. Elbridge G. Davis, of Malden, "The Club Woman's Point of View on the Subject of Motion Pictures"; Mrs. George E. Hutchins, of Cambridge, a lesson in Parliamentary Procedure, "Previous Questions"; Question and answer period, followed by Mrs. Ernest S. Curtis, of Gloucester, speaking on "Characteristics of a Growing Club"; Mrs. Victor P. Ratzburg, West Newton, "Courtesies that Club Members Should Extend to Club Officers"; and Closing remarks by Mrs. Mellen.

The Division of Physically Handicapped, Mrs. Earl J. Smith, chairman, will broadcast from Station WMEX on February 7th, from 3 to 4 p. m. Program: "Extension" Girl Scouting, Dr. Margaret Lewis; "The House of the Good Samaritan," Mrs. Pierce McGinn; and Music: Luda McKenney Dadds, Soprano; Noman Sodorjerna, Violinist.

To Show "King of Kings"
At Community Service

The greatest of all religious motion pictures, Cecil B. DeMille's "King of Kings," will be shown at the community Sunday Evening Service at Eliot Congregational Church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This is a sound picture featuring H. B. Warner as the Christ and Dorothy Cumming as Mary, the mother of Jesus. Other parts are taken by stars, for instance, Ernest Torrence is Peter. This picture preaches a sermon never to be forgotten. Among the records of the world's most tremendous historical events, in all the great writings of all times, nothing even remotely approaches the awe-inspiring magnificence of the story of Jesus of Nazareth; the King of Kings, whose words and deeds have swayed humanity for almost two thousand years. In the eye of the motion picture camera, under the wizardry of a master director and the reverent genius of great playing parts, the story of Christ has taken human form and greater understanding. Here we have a story so tense, so absorbing, so massive in its spirit of magnificent self-sacrifice and passionate grandeur, so breath-taking in its tremendous climax, that its power and force is beyond description. No resident of Newton will want to miss this opportunity of seeing the world's greatest sacred motion picture.

Hunnewell Players Presenting Comedy

On Wednesday and Thursday nights, February 13th and 14th, the Hunnewell Club, corner of Eldredge and Court streets, Newton, will present a three-act comedy, "Sally Shute." This year the entire cast is composed of club members and their families, and a record attendance is expected as many are looking forward to seeing their friends and neighbors in action on the stage. It will be the only club stage production this season.

The play has that distinctive and subtle humor for which the author is noted, and its interpretation by the actors will serve the audience a delicious evening of laughs.

Official word was received here recently by Scout Executive Lyscom A. Bruce Jr., of the Norumbega Council with headquarters at Newtonville that the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America has accepted the invitation of President Roosevelt to hold the first National Boy Scout Jamboree in Washington, D. C., from August 21 to 30, inclusive, in connection with the 25th anniversary celebration of the Boy Scouts of America, next year. Thirty thousand Boy Scouts and their leaders and Scout delegations from several foreign countries will camp together in the greatest gathering of boys ever to assemble on American soil.

The invitation from President Roosevelt to hold a great National Scout Jamboree came in connection with the radio address which he made to the entire membership of the Boy Scouts of America, when he invited them, on the occasion of the 24th Anniversary celebration to participate in a great national service of collecting bedding, clothing and shoes for the needy. In furtherance of the National Jamboree idea he has named a Washington Co-operating Committee to collaborate with the National Scout Jamboree Committee and officials in developing plans for the Jamboree.

There have been four Scout international Jamborees held in London, Copenhagen, Den., Birkenhead, Eng., and Budapest, Hungary. The largest of these at Birkenhead, in 1929, brought together about 50,000 boys from the British Isles and more than forty foreign countries other than the colonies and possessions of the British Empire.

Dr. James West, chief scout executive, explained that the word "Jamboree" has taken on a world-wide connotation to mean "an encampment of Boy Scouts." He continued: "The Jamboree which will be one of the most stirring events that has ever occurred in America, emphasizing the widespread interest in youth, will be one of the principal events of the forthcoming 25th Anniversary year of the Boy Scouts of America which begins on February 8th next, and continues until 1936."

"It will be held in Washington because we are anxious that the Scouts who attend it shall gain the utmost citizenship values and experiences from their ten days at the National Capital. It will be their first trip to Washington in many cases and the great event in their young lives. Through the co-operation of the special Committee appointed by President Roosevelt, the National Government has made available a site of nearly four hundred acres at Washington along the Potomac at Columbia Island, with nearby space to be made available if required. This will provide ample area for this great boys' camp, and for their leaders, who, like the boys will be drawn from all parts of our country. For the demonstrations, events, ceremonies and joint activities, during the ten days the Jamboree is in progress, the National Park officials will make available the grounds around the Washington Monument and in the Ellipse immediately back of the White House.

"The idea is to have every tent of the encampment in sight of the Capital, the Washington Monument, the Lincoln Memorial and the Robert E. Lee mansion at Arlington to provide a constant reminder to these 30,000 boys of what it means to be an American. We want the Boy Scouts who attend to gain the utmost in citizenship values and experiences from their ten days' encampment in Washington, and their visits to the national shrines around the Capital. "The Scouts will live under canvas throughout the period of the Jamboree. They will be permitted to bring their own tentage and camp equipment and the great camp will be a revelation to the hundreds of thousands of expected visitors as to methods of camping in various parts of the United States and, incidentally of the ability of boys adequately to take care of themselves in the open.

"Our great task will be to limit attendance to the 30,000 Scouts and their leaders for whom it is possible to provide camp space without overcrowding. Membership in the Jamboree will be on the basis of one representative to each of about 30,000 Scout Troops throughout the country. The hope is that by this method each Scout Troop in the country will have the value that will come from attendance at the Jamboree. There are already indications that applications for the opportunity to attend the Jamboree will be far in excess of the capacity of the camping space available in Washington. "An invitation will go to each of the forty-four foreign countries who are members of the Boy Scout International Bureau to send a representative group if they so desire. Several of the foreign nations have already indicated their intention to participate, which will insure that the Jamboree will have an international flavor.

"Arrangements are being made for the Jamboree Scouts to see Washington, Arlington, Mt. Vernon and the great national points of interest in and about the capital city. I should like to emphasize again that it is our earnest hope that the occasion will be of the greatest value to the attending Scouts in stimulating a better understanding of the value of citizenship."

On the basis of one representative to each Troop, Scout Executive Bruce said today that the Norumbega Council would be entitled to have a delegation of about 30 boys. Plans for the Norumbega Council to be represented at this greatest of Scouting activities are being developed by a local Jamboree committee headed by Mr. Frank A. Day, 1st vice-president of the Council.

ARGENTINA'S ROMANTIC GAUCHO

The early occupation of catching and taming wild cattle and horses on the great pampas of Argentina produced a type of frontiersman somewhat like that of the American cowboy of the years between 1800 and 1880, yet more distinctly resembling the cossack of southern Russia during the decades preceding the World War.

The gaucho was above all things a horseman, never dismounting except to sleep beside his animal. His weapons against cattle and men were the lasso and the boleatas, the latter being made of balls of metal or stone, fastened together by a thong, and so hurled as to coil around the legs of the man or beast aimed at, producing an immediate halt.

Round the gaucho clings all the romance of the pampas, for he was accepted as the embodiment of the primitive virtues of daring, endurance and loyalty.

Mayor Appoints J. P. Reynolds Head of Welfare Department—Miss Fitzgerald Assistant

Asks Aldermen to Change City Ordinances To Permit Reorganization of Welfare Department

On Monday the announcement was made that Mayor Weeks had appointed James P. Reynolds of 54 Ballard st., Newton Centre, head of the Newton Welfare Department. Mr. Reynolds was born in West Newton 33 years ago, the son of Thomas F. and Louise (Bagley) Reynolds. His father, a native of West Newton, has been associated for many years with the Brown, Durrell Company of Boston. His mother taught in the public schools at West Newton for several years. Mr. Reynolds graduated from Newton High School and from Boston College in 1922. His family has resided in Newton Centre for the past 25 years. He was engaged in the wool business for a number of years and has conducted a boy's camp in Maine for the past two years. During the past year he has been a supervisor at the United States Re-employment Bureau in Boston. He has been a member of St. Vincent de Paul Society of the Sacred Heart parish at Newton Centre and chairman of the troop committee of Troop 21, Boy Scouts of Newton Centre.

In conjunction with Reynolds' appointment, Mayor Weeks sent to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night a recommendation that Chapter 6 of the City Ordinances be revised so that its first section instead of reading—"The charity department shall be under the charge of one overseer of the poor," will read—"The charity department shall be under the charge of two overseers of the poor." The amendment to the ordinance further specifies that one of these two overseers will be designated as chairman and act as Director of the Welfare Department, the designation now given to the charity department in accordance with State laws. The other overseer, according to the revised ordinance, shall serve as assistant to the chairman and be under his direction. The Mayor recommended to the Board of Aldermen that the salary of the chairman of the Overseers of the Poor (or Director of Welfare) be $3500, and accordingly asked that $3150 be appropriated last Monday night to finance this salary for the balance of this year.

The Mayor appointed Miss Florence Fitzgerald as the second overseer of the poor, to serve as assistant to Mr. Reynolds. Miss Fitzgerald has been director of the Newton Welfare Department for the past 12 years, and has gone through the trying period since 1929 when the economic depression started and the number of persons and families receiving aid from the city increased from scores to thousands. Miss Fitzgerald's salary has been $2500, and the Mayor recommends it remain at this figure.

Shortly after the meeting of the Board of Aldermen started on Monday night, Vice President Floyd, who was presiding, announced a record and all 19 aldermen present went into a committee room to hold a secret session and discuss the Mayor's recommendations regarding the change in the ordinance affecting the Welfare Department and the appointment of the two overseers. The secret session lasted for over an hour. According to the rules of the Board of Aldermen such appointments must be on the table for two weeks before being confirmed by the Board. But, when the Aldermen resumed the open meeting, Alderman Holden as chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee asked that the rules be suspended so that action on the change in the city ordinances and the confirmation of the appointments might be acted upon at once. Vice President Floyd asked if any member objected. Alderman Temperley stated that he objected. Floyd then announced that the matters must lie on the table for two weeks, until the February 18th meeting.

Just before the meeting adjourned, Vice President Floyd stated that if Temperley had raised a simple objection to suspension of the rules, it would be necessary to take a vote on the objection, as the rules of the Board specify that three-quarters of the members can overrule such an objection. He commented that if Temperley had raised a "charter objection," no vote need be taken and the matter must lie on the table for two weeks. Alderman Floyd raised this point after Alderman Grebenstein had moved that the meeting adjourn until Feb. 11th, instead of Feb. 18th. This motion was put to a vote and defeated.

Temperley in answer to Floyd's question stated that he had raised only a simple objection, but if a charter objection was necessary to have action on the change and appointments deferred two weeks, in accordance with the rules, he would enter the charter objection. No action was therefore taken either on changing the ordinance governing the Welfare Department or the appointment of Reynolds and Miss Fitzgerald.

Aged Man Dies Suddenly After Shoveling Snow

William H. Welch, 68, of 22 Cummings road, Newton Centre died suddenly of heart failure at his home on Saturday afternoon after he finished shoveling from the sidewalk in front of his residence. He was born in the house where he died, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Welch. Mr. Welch was a retired employee of the Newton Street Department. He is survived by three sisters—Mrs. Mary A. Kent and Mrs. Peter Murphy of Newton Centre, and Mrs. Katherine Dreary of Cambridge; and four brothers, Frank and George Welch of Newton Centre, James Welch of Newton Highlands, and Michael Welch of Portland, Oregon. His funeral service was held on Tuesday at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre; burial was in Holyhood Cemetery.

West Newton Man Ends His Life

Martin J. Herbert, 39, of 112 Warwick road, West Newton, committed suicide on Tuesday morning by inhaling fuel gas. He was found dead in bed by his niece when she visited the house. He had connected a pipe to the gas range in the kitchen and run it through a hole which he bored in the wall between the kitchen and his bedroom. Herbert was alone in the house, his wife having gone to California to visit relatives about a week before. He was a carpenter by occupation and had resided at the address for about a year.

Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery Dies

Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery, for the past 18 years pastor of Our Lady's Church, Newton, died at the rectory on Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. He had been in failing health for the past couple of years. Father Slattery was born in South Boston on Feb. 1, 1858, the son of Edward and Hannah (Pendergast) Slattery. He graduated from English High School, Boston, at the age of 14, the youngest student to graduate up to that time. He attended Georgetown and Holy Cross Colleges, graduating from the latter institution in 1880. He studied theology at Aix, France, and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and was ordained by Cardinal Gibbons in May 1885. For 13 years he served as a curate at St. Charles' Church, Woburn, before being made pastor of St. Mary's Church, Georgetown. While there he erected a mission church at Groveland, St. Patrick's. He was then made the first pastor of St. Patrick's parish, East Cambridge, and erected the church there. He then was transferred to St. Joseph's Church, Boston, and after serving there for 6 years was appointed irremovable parish priest of Our Lady's Church in Newton by Cardinal O'Connell. In 1925 he erected the beautiful parochial high school on Washington st. He had served for many years as a diocesan consultant and synodal examiner.

Father Slattery is survived by a brother, Charles H. Slattery of Grasmere st., Newton, vice president of the Brookline Trust Company; and a sister, Annie Slattery of Grasmere st., Newton. Two other brothers were the late Francis E. Slattery of Brighton, former Transit Commissioner and School Buildings Commissioner of Boston, and the late Dr. John W. Slattery who was superintendent of St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Father Slattery's body will be taken into Our Lady's Church this afternoon and office for the dead will be recited by priests of Newton and vicinity. The body will lie in state until 8:30 o'clock. The guard of honor will be composed of members of the Holy Name Society, Newton Council, Knights of Columbus; Middlesex Court, M. C. O. P.; Ancient Order of Hibernians, Ladies' Sodality and Catholic Daughters of America. A requiem mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock. At 10 o'clock a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated by Rev. Michael Welsh of St. Joseph's Church, Lynn, assisted by Rev. James O'Rourke of Sacred Heart Church, Lynn, as deacon; and Rev. Walter Roche of St. Bridget's Church, Lynn, as subdeacon. The acolytes will be Rev. Francis Driscoll of Roxbury and Rev. Richard McFale of Natick; the thurifer, Rev. Joseph Shea of Wellington, and the master of ceremonies, Rev. Harry O'Connor of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston. The eulogy will be delivered by Rev. Michael Madden of St. Mary's Church, Randolph, Bishop Francis J. Spellman of Newton Centre will be present, and will also lead the communal prayers at Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline, where interment will take place.

Writing Expert Causes Arrest Of Newton Girl

Anna Gallagher, 21, of Newton, who has been living at 12 Hunt st., Watertown, was arrested Monday night charged with stealing a pocketbook owned by Thelma Morris of Thornton st., Newton, and forging the Morris' girl's name on a pay check which was in the pocketbook. Both girls were employed at a radio tube factory in Nonantum. The check for $11.50 was cashed at a Newton store, the forgery discovered when the check was returned to the factory. Inspectors King and Burke of the Newton police examined application blanks of the hundreds of girls employed at the factory and obtained the assistance of George Smith, handwriting expert of the Boston police. The forged signature on the check resembled the Gallagher girl's writing. She was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday, pleaded guilty and her case was continued to February 15 for disposition.

Newton Centre Family Menaced By Gas Leak

Gas From Broken Main Fills Home of Alex Standish

The family of Alex Standish at 183 Lake ave., Newton Centre, was menaced on Sunday afternoon by gas which seeped into the house from a broken street main. The Standish residence is located at the corner of Lake avenue and Berwick rd. About 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mary Standish, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Standish, swooned. Soon afterwards her parents and her 8 year old sister became ill. Then the domestic employed in the home became ill. Surmising that some sort of fumes might be responsible, Mr. Standish opened the door leading to the cellar and was nearly overcome by the odor of illuminating gas. He rushed down into the cellar, shut off the flame in the heater, opened the windows and then telephoned the gas company. Dr. Harold Giddings of Berwick rd. called to give treatment to the family. Employees of the gas company later found the leak on Berwick rd. adjoining the Standish property.

Residents of the section of Newton Centre which includes the Standish home have become alarmed over the number of leaks from broken gas mains which have occurred during the past couple of years, some with fatal results. At 3:15 a. m. on February 16, 1933, gas seeped from a broken main on Walnut st. into the home of William DeRusha at 862 Walnut st. The fumes ignited from the fire in the heater, the house was blown to pieces. Catherine DeRusha, 35, a daughter, was pinned in the wreckage and burned to death in the flames which followed. On Monday morning, February 12, 1934, Mrs. Margaret Boyhan of 45 Pine Crest road, detected a strong odor of gas about her home. She notified the gas company and employees hastened to the scene. They found John Crowley, 30, asphyxiated in his home at 40 Pine Crest rd. and Mrs. Florence Queeney of the same address unconscious. She died at the Newton Hospital the next day. The gas had entered the Queeney home from a broken pipe nearby. Other gas leaks have occurred on Norman road, Newton Highlands, and the Nichols residence and last summer there was a leak on Lake ave.

Chief Randlett Asks For New Fire Stations

Chief Randlett of the Newton Fire Department has recommended to Mayor Weeks the erection of two new fire stations, one at West Newton and the other at Newton Highlands. A similar recommendation was made by the chief a few years past and if P. W. A. funds can be obtained by the city for these projects, without unnecessary red tape or delays being involved, work on the buildings may be started this year. The station at West Newton would be built on city owned land on Washington st. near Felton st. It would replace the old station near the railroad bridge at West Newton and at the corner of Washington and Mount Vernon sts., Newtonville. It would house Ladder Truck 1 and Engines 2 and 4. It would be about a third of a mile East of the present West Newton fire station, and about a half mile West of the present Newtonville fire station. In connection with this proposal a petition in opposition has been circulated among Newtonville business men.

The station at Newton Highlands would be erected near the Street Department plant on Elliot st. about an eighth of a mile from the present quarters of Ladder 2. It would be about two-thirds of a mile from the fire station on Pettes st., Upper Falls, where Engine 7 is housed. Both these pieces of apparatus would be stationed in the new building, if it will be erected.

Boy Coasting on Streets Collides With Automobile

Newton, so far, fortunately has had no fatal accidents as a result of children not heeding warnings about the dangerous sport of coasting on streets, but several have been injured. Such an accident occurred last Saturday. At 11:58 a. m. William Quinn, 9, of 112 Dedham street, Newton Highlands coasted out of the driveway at that address and collided with a car driven by Mrs. Helen Worden of 51 Tarleton road, Newton Centre. The boy was taken to the Newton Hospital. He received an injury to his spine and cuts on his head.

Mayor Weeks Issues Scout Proclamation

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA, incorporated February 8, 1910, and chartered by Congress June 15, 1916, have during the past twenty-five years rendered notable service to the Nation. They have done effective work in this community and throughout the country. During the War their efforts on behalf of Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns and other measures were outstanding. In time of distress from flood, hurricane, tornado and other disasters they have demonstrated the effectiveness of organized boy service. During the period of economic stress through which the country has just passed, they contributed in many ways to the relief of suffering, and on February 10th last, at the request of the President, they undertook as a National Good Turn collection of clothing and house furnishings for the relief of the needy that resulted in the alleviation of much distress and suffering throughout the entire Nation.

The Boy Scouts have not only demonstrated their worth to the Nation, but have also contributed to a deeper appreciation by the American people of the higher conception of good citizenship.

The objective of the present Ten Year Program of the Boy Scouts of America is to provide for the nation a citizenry in which one of every four of the new male citizens each year will have had at least four years of Scout training.

During the past twenty-five years 6,530,330 persons through the various branches of Scouting have enjoyed Adventure, Hiking, Camping, Swimming, Woodcraft, Handicraft, Fellowship, Health and Safety, and have learned how to be helpful to others and have been trained to be participating citizens.

During the week from February 8th to 14th the Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary, continuing with a year of special activities including a National Jamboree in Washington, D. C., as announced by President Roosevelt. THEREFORE, I, SINCLAIR WEEKS, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF NEWTON, MASS., do hereby recommend that the citizens of this city observe this Boy Scout Week and Anniversary Year for the purpose of strengthening the work of the Boy Scouts of America.

I earnestly recommend that our civic organizations, our churches and our schools co-operate in carrying out a program for a definite recognition of the effective service rendered by the Boy Scouts of America, in order that the work of the Boy Scout Program may be extended to a larger proportion of the boyhood of this City.

The Boy Scout Movement offers unusual opportunity for volunteer service. It needs men to serve in various capacities as leaders of boys. I hope that all who can will, through the organizations with which they are connected, enlist for such personal service. Anything that is done to increase the effectiveness of the Boy Scouts of America will be a genuine contribution to the welfare of this City, the State, and the Nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of this City to be affixed.

Done this Thirtieth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

(Signed) SINCLAIR WEEKS.

Newton Dogs Ugly on Saturday

Snow causes most dogs to become exuberant and good-natured, but two Newton dogs were ill tempered last Saturday. A dog owned by Mary Coakley of 28 Wade street, Upper Falls hit Michael Kane of 1229 Walnut street, Newton Highlands, according to the complaint made by Kane to the police. Arthur Howe of Natick reported that he was bitten by a dog owned by J. H. Cochrane of 286 Cherry street, West Newton. Both dogs were ordered restrained and Dr. Boutelle, city veterinarian notified to examine them.

President of Boy Scouts Coming Here To Mid-Winter Meeting

Celebration of Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Founding of Boy Scouts Begins Today

Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, Newton and Wellesley, is holding its mid-winter meeting at the Newton City Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 13th, dinner at 6:30 and program in the Memorial Hall following. Today the Boy Scouts of America begin the observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary culminating in the National Jamboree in Washington, D. C., next August.

The Council is extremely happy to announce its good fortune, says A. L. Harwood, Jr., President, in having several of the leading men in the Scout Movement in America at the meeting next Wednesday. First, there will be Mr. Walter Head, President of the National Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Head lives in the Middle West, is making a trip to New York in mid-February and then coming especially to Norumbega Council for this meeting.

Then there will be Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, who started with the inception of the Scout Movement in the United States in 1910 and under whose leadership, able, aggressive and far-sighted, the Boy Scout Movement in this country has grown to its present standing and strength.

Dr. George J. Fisher, Deputy Chief Scout Executive, will also be among the guests of honor. With a great background of experience in boys' work in the Y. M. C. A., Dr. Fisher came to the Boy Scouts of America in 1919 and, due to his activity, the Regional plan of organization was adopted to take the work of the National Council closer to the local Councils.

Mr. Charles Miller, Assistant Director of the Division of Operations of the National Council, will also be present.

Mr. Ralph H. Nodine, Regional Scout Executive for New England, a resident of Newton and Chairman of Troop 7C, Troop Committee, West Newton, will also be present.

City and Town Officials as Guests

Hon. Sinclair Weeks, Mayor of Newton, will be the personal guest of Mr. A. L. Harwood, Jr., President of Norumbega Council, as will Mr. Arthur Stevenson, Chairman of the Wellesley Board of Selectmen.

There will be about 300 men connected with Scouting in the Council—Chairmen of Pack, Troop and Ship Committees, Cubmasters and Assistant Cubmasters, Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters, Skippers and Mates and the Rover Leaders.

Pageant to Be Announced

Mr. William V. M. Fawcett, Pageant Director for the Silver Jubilee Pageant of Norumbega Council, scheduled to be held on Dickinson Field on the evening of May 24th, 1935, will tell the group about the plans for the pageant, which are practically completed.

Scout Executive L. A. Bruce, Jr., will give a brief report of the activities and condition of the Council for 1934.

Division Directors to Report

In the Memorial Hall, to which the meeting will adjourn about 8 o'clock, President Harwood will call upon the Directors of Divisions to report of their respective fields. The men are as follows:

Division of Cubbing, the program for boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age, Mr. Douglas Francis, Director.

Division of Scouting, in charge of Scout Commissioner Carlton S. Redmond.

Division of Camps and Camping, covering all types of camping in the Council and National Jamboree to be held in Washington in August, 1935, Mr. A. C. Blunt, Jr., Director.

Division of Examinations and Awards, responsible for standards in all tests and in handling Council Courts of Honor, Mr. Lowell D. MacNutt, Director.

Division of the Senior Boy Program, co-operating in Seascouting and Rovering, the latter being the program for "boys" from 18 to 80 years of age, Mr. G. D. Marcy, Director.

Division of Scouting, the "seagoing" program for boys 15 to 18 years of age, Commodore William V. M. Fawcett; Vice-Commodore Morgan H. Harris and Portmaster John H. Kent.

Division of Business, responsible for finances, audit and general business of the Council, Mr. Maynard Hutchinson, Treasurer. There will be two special features in the program by Scouts and Seascouts. Drs. West and Fisher will speak briefly and the major address of the evening will be made by Mr. Walter Head. It will be one of the biggest events ever held in Norumbega Council.

Financial Condition Good

Every activity operated by the Council during 1934 was "in the black."

The Summer Camp at Douglas, Massachusetts, Camp Barker, cleared the sum of $173 in cash and an inventory of property of $500.00. The Scout Exposition held at the State Armory last February, financed simply to cover cost, broke even. The Cub Day Camp, the first in the United States, closed the year with a cash balance of $0.30 and an inventory of about $20.00! The Council Budget at the end of the year, December 31, 1934, showed a surplus of $232.

Camp Property

The Council owns a small Reservation of ten acres with one cabin at Dover, Mass., known as The Ohio. That is owned free and clear and the value of land and cabin totals $2,300.00.

The Nobscot Reservation, located in Sudbury and Framingham, owned by the Council, has 175 acres of land, with 19 buildings all erected and 5 under construction. The land is valued at $12,500.00 with a mortgage of only $600.00 and the cabins are valued at $22,200.00, all free and clear. There are no notes of any sort outstanding!

The splendid financial condition of the Council is due to the character and quality of the men on the Executive Board and particularly the Treasurer, Mr. Maynard Hutchinson.

Membership Total Over 1500

A local Scout Council has a set-up approximating that of any business corporation, for many men are needed to help carry on the Scout program properly.

INJURY TO CASTOLDI HANDICAPS NEWTON SIX AND MELROSE WINS 5-0

Newton slumped to third place in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League race last Saturday, taking a 5-0 beating from Melrose. The Newton team was greatly handicapped by the loss of Captain Gus Castoldi, who was injured in a spectacular attempt to score in the first period, diving head first into one of the goal uprights. The first two Melrose scores came only twelve seconds apart in the first period, and the last two only fifteen seconds apart in the second, all four of these while Newton players were off the ice on penalties. In the other feature game of the Arena program, Arlington was demoted to second place in the league standing by losing an exciting 2-1 contest to Rindge, the last-place team which has improved so much recently.

Woodward Misses Two

The game started with the Daniels-Blodgett-Miner line on the ice for Newton. Goalsie Bart Woodward was wearing a bright orange cap. Newton was briefly the aggressor as the game got under way. Castoldi rushed down the right lane and Bill Daniels made a pass out from the corner, but the Melrose goalie was not tested. Elliott went to the penalty box for interference.

Melrose put on a power attack at once. On the face-off at the right of the Newton goal, Foster of Melrose passed out to DeCoste, who shot, and the puck was well in the goal before Woodward slid to his knees. Melrose sent another attack down after the next face-off, and Priestley let go from the blue line. Woodward dropped to one knee this time, still too late, and Melrose led 2-0. The goals came at 1:15 and 1:27.

Castoldi Badly Hurt

Herbert Buttrick, a junior, took Woodward's place in the Newton goal. Ernie MacLeod's line took to the ice, Elliott returned from the penalty box, and Newton put on a brief show of power. Castoldi rushed, Mayne of Melrose went off for charging, and MacLeod and Butterfield each missed two fine chances at the Melrose goal by shooting wild. Castoldi made plays for MacLeod and Miner in successive rushes, but the puck would not behave for the Newton wings. Buttrick saved nicely as a Melrose wing rushed in ahead of Newton's defense men.

Newton took the worst setback of the game on the next play. Captain Gus Castoldi rushed alone, got through the entire Melrose team, and skated in fast on Thayer. Thayer dove out just as Gus attempted to slide the puck under him, and Castoldi catapulted over Thayer's head first into the farther post of the goal. There was a delay of ten minutes while Castoldi was carried out to be treated for a severe gash on the forehead. Minot Chandler was on defense with Elliott as play began again. The game was lethargic at this point. Page and MacLeod got chances at the Melrose goal, and Newton had whatever edge there was in the rest of the period.

Buttrick Also Falters

The second period was faster than the first, Melrose scoring three times on Buttrick. Foster made a carom shot off both Newton defense men. Buttrick saved, Newton attacked, and Page forced Newton with a stiff shot from the left. Gil Priestley then rushed for Melrose, got the puck in back of the Newton goal, hooked it past the corner post, and Melrose led 3-0 at 3:13. Buttrick fainted at the entirely, being poorly protected on the play. Elliott missed a fine chance with none but the goalie to beat.

Bill Page drew a penalty for a board check, and the Melrose attack came up the ice. Buttrick's view was obscured, apparently, for he had little time to save on DeCoste's low shot from the left. Still another goal for Melrose came fifteen seconds later as Priestley's shot bobbed in at the corner, and Melrose led 5-0 at 6:10 in the second period. There was no further scoring. Buttrick made several good saves in this period. A sophomore line of Fitzgerald, Harrington and Turner came on for Newton. Castoldi, with a hood covering his bandaged head, watched the game from a box.

The third period was uneventful. The ice was sticky and the puck hard to control. John Elliott, playing more aggressively than usual, had two more good chances to score. Dennison and Herrick were used on the Newton forward line. Play speeded up when Chandler of Newton and Priestley of Melrose drew penalties, but there were no serious threats on either goal. For Melrose, Goding made 4 stops, Thayer 3. Woodward had no stops and lost two goals in his minute-and-a-half in the ice, while Buttrick made 14 saves and let three goals get by.

NEWTON DOWNS RINDGE IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE BASKETBALL 26-19

Newton High's fast basketball team won their third Suburban League triumph and their ninth victory of the season in defeating Rindge Technical, 26-19, at the Newtonville floor last Tuesday. Ted Laffie made eleven points for Newton and Suckiel ten for Rindge. Newton's total included eight foul shots out of a possible ten, of which Bullet Byrne and Al Smith made three each.

The alert Newton five got away to a good start, keeping the ball under the Rindge basket until Byrne was free to sink an easy jump shot. Newton had seven points on a foul try by Laffie, a long shot by Donovan, and a two-shot foul try by Byrne, before Joe Watson started Rindge off with a floor goal. Byrne added another foul shot, but Newton's margin was cut to 8-6 as Suckiel sank two for the visitors at the end of the quarter.

Newton Strong in Second Quarter
Newton continued the point-a-minute pace through the second quarter. At first Rindge tied the score on goals by Watson and Suckiel, but Ted Laffie sank one from the right, then snatched the ball away from Watson under the basket and popped in another. Al Smith was awarded a two-shot foul try plus a technical, all on the same play. Al sank the first two and Ted Laffie stepped in to toss in the rebound of the third. The first half ended with Newton ahead 16-11.

Beginning the third quarter, Byrne scored in close, Donovan added a foul shot, and Laffie took a good pass from Smith for another floor goal to send Newton into a safe 21-11 lead. The Smith-to-Laffie combination tallied again, Suckiel made three more for Rindge, and Newton led 23-18 at the end of the third quarter. Captain Ellis Donovan retired on personal fouls and was replaced by Ernie Savignano, while Laffie gave way to Bill Spilman later in the fourth period. Only four points were made in the last quarter, three of these by Newton's Al Smith on his third foul try and a spectacular one-handed toss made on the dead run. Newton's final score was 26-19. Smith made five points for Newton and made scoring plays for Ted Laffie, who had the high total of eleven. Bullet Byrne made seven points and was instrumental in aiding the guards to keep Watson and Suckiel from scoring freely. Pete Morrison was named acting captain when Ellis Donovan left the floor.

Second Team Wins, 14-13

Newton made it a double victory by taking the second team game, 14-13. Ernie Savignano went in for the three-minute overtime period and sank the foul try that settled the exciting contest. Squi Colletti started in where Stan Gruber had left off in the scoring, adding four points to Gruber's six to keep Newton in the game in the second half. Fisher and Callanan accounted for the other three points.

OUR LADY'S QUINTET WINS THIRD STRAIGHT

Our Lady's High School basketball team goes to Roxbury tonight with high hopes of defeating the strong Mission team on their own floor. Mission lost Tuesday to Cathedral, a team Our Lady beat two weeks ago. Fr. Haley's boys seem to have got well under way again after their slump, for they won from St. Clement's 35-22 at Somerville, and made it three straight Tuesday by defeating St. Mary's of Brookline 39-17.

Marino Great at Somerville

Mario Marino, sharpshooting sophomore, was the big gun for Our Lady's at Somerville. He shot four of the Newton team's five field goals in the first quarter to give them a 10-6 start. St. Clement's was unable to stem the steady flow of points, and the invaders made it 19-9 at the half, 35-22 after the third quarter, and 35-23 for the final score. Marino was high point man with fourteen, while Russell Harney and Chicken Morris had six each.

In Tuesday's game at Newton, Our Lady outplayed St. Mary's of Brookline by two to one. Fr. Haley used his entire squad of fourteen players in subduing the visitors. Our Lady was ahead 13-2 at the quarter and 21-4 at the half, and the final score was 39-17. Incidentally, this victory was the third of three consecutive games in which Our Lady has had the high scorer of the entire Catholic League for the four games played. Morris had the honor last Tuesday and a week ago Tuesday, while Mario Marino was high man of the league last Friday.

Down The Ice

Newton had a team of six juniors on the ice during a part of the Melrose game. Minot Chandler and John Elliott were on defense, Ernie MacLeod, Bill Daniels and Bill Page were on the line, and Herbert Buttrick was in the goal. Chandler showed a natural ability for heavy checking in his first league game, while Buttrick also made a very good showing.

While Melrose was beating Boston College freshmen 2-1 at Melrose Wednesday, Newton took on the B. C. varsity in a practice scrimmage at the Bullough's Pond rink. Fred Schipper of Newtonville, former N. H. S. captain, is center for New Hampshire for the third year in a row. He is a very fine team player, and often sets up scoring plays for his wings when he might have made a play for himself. Tom Griffin and Walter Muther of Newton Centre boys, scored five goals between them as Rivers School of Brookline shut out Brooks School of Andover by 6-0 at Brookline Wednesday.

Boy Scout Anniversary

making the work of the Unit Leaders more effective and is valuable only insofar as it accomplishes that end. The Scout program, in its entirety—Cubbing, Scouting, Seascouting and Rovering—rests on the effective work of the Cubmasters, Scoutmasters, Seascout Skipper and Rover Leaders. The major portion of the success rests on them and the many hours they give to carrying on the work of their respective groups.

The work is almost entirely volunteer; with an organization membership of about 1,500 or 1,600 in Norumbega Council, there are but two paid men, men who devote their entire time to the work. They are the Scout Executive, L. A. Bruce, Jr., and the Assistant Scout Executive, W. R. Speirs. The genius of the Scout program is in its great use of volunteers and in its offering of a proven program for boys to institutions or groups of citizens.

December 31, 1934, showed Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, with the following membership: 8 Cub Packs with 225 Cubs and 43 men; 25 Troops with 736 Scouts and 243 men; 1 Seascout Ship with 34 Seascouts and 10 men; 1 Rover Crew with 29 Rovers and 2 men.

In addition, there has been formed one new Scout Troop, 8, West Newton, sponsored by the Lincoln Park Baptist Church; there are 2 Cub Packs in the process of formation—3, Nonantum, sponsored by the Stearns School Community Center and 12, Chestnut Hill, sponsored by the John Ward School. There is also the prospect of a Seascout Patrol sponsored by the N. A. A.

To summarize, there were 1,024 boys, with an additional 70 boys not registered, making a total of about 1,100 boys enrolled in the organization through the year.

There was a total of 468 men, or a grand total of men and boys of 1,562 men and boys actually engaged in Scouting in 1934, in Norumbega Council.

The Camping Record

Camp Barker, the summer Camp of Norumbega Council, leased during the past three summers, and beautifully located on Laurel Lake, at Douglas, Massachusetts, is a pioneer venture in Scouting. There the Scouts slept in tents, by Patrols and each Patrol had its own equipment and kitchen and did its own cooking. The Camp Commissary issued menus and food daily. The effectiveness of this method, for developing self-reliance, self-confidence, ability to meet and overcome difficulties, proved itself many times over.

There are 84 different Scouts from the Council at the summer Camp, or 15.5 per cent of the total Scout membership of the Council. The waterfront system was rated as one of the best in New England and the Camp was awarded the Red Cross banner for waterfront proficiency for 1934, as well as for 1933.

The Cub Day Camp, the first in the United States, was operated for seven weeks during the summer in Hammond's Woods, Chestnut Hill, with the permission of the Metropolitan District Commission and received the fullest co-operation of that Commission. The camp ran from 9 to 5 o'clock daily except Saturday and Sunday. The program consisted of cross-country hikes, all sorts of crafts, games and swimming. Seventy-seven different Cubs or about 37 per cent of the Cubs in the Council, attended the Cub Day Camp and boys and parents were most enthusiastic about the program.

Short-Term Camping

Since Scouting is essentially an outdoor program and the strength of Scouting depends upon the individual unit (Troop, etc.), great stress is laid by Norumbega Council on the short-term camping, for which the Nobscot Reservation is used. This is one of the few Scout reservations of its kind in the United States and is extended use by Troops of the Council.

The following Troops have cabins built or under construction there: 1, 2, 3, 4A, 4B, 5, 6, 7A, 7C, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22. Wellesley. In addition, there is the Gate Lodge, used for a museum and the Ranger's Lodge at the present time; a log tool shed and the Legion cabin. The last was built and presented to the Council by the Newton Post of the American Legion. It is used for the monthly camp-fires, which are handled by members of the Lief Ericson Rover Crew and also for the Scouts' Own Services on Sunday morning, which the Troops take turns in conducting.

Patrols from Troops go to their respective cabins week-ends, with the Patrol Leader in charge and an adult, a Scouter, accompanies the Patrol. Nature Courses are conducted there by Field Commissioner George H. Crosbie, who is in charge of that phase of the work. Archery will be started this year; a former Dartmouth ski man, an expert, is looking over the Reservation for a ski-run and will develop a Scout ski club there during this winter and will carry on next winter.

There is a big Council ring, where outdoor camp-fires are held and an amphitheatre which will seat about 3,500 people where outdoor Courts of Honor are held.

The Reservation is fast having a thirty-foot fire lane around it, cut by the Troops; men and boys have set out over 70,000 trees during the past three years, most of them having been provided by the State Forestry Department free of charge.

Officials Endorse Scouting

Honorable Sinclair Weeks, Mayor of Newton:

"Pointing the way to sterling citizenship by strengthening themselves and serving others, the boys and girls of the Scout organizations are a credit to the community."

"Newton Boy Scouts are a powerful force for law and order. Regardless of weather, Scouts act efficiently as traffic policemen."

Clarence W. Randlett, Chief of the Fire Department:

"The Newton Boy Scouts have done excellently good work in actual fire duty under my personal direction, and have shown great eagerness in learning this work. The Boy Scout Movement is fine training for our boys."

Julius K. Warren, Superintendent of Schools:
"I am glad to have an opportunity to give my word of enthusiastic ap-

"The experiences a boy has as a scout are sure to influence his life permanently and, under the right leadership, to enrich that life. In this world of increasing hours of leisure, the recreational interests that scouting may awaken are likely to be for the future more important than they have been in the past. Therefore, it is with confidence and every good wish that we look forward to another twenty-five year period of scouting for this city."

We Believe in The Boy Scouts of America

BECAUSE

Hundreds of thousands strong, Boy Scouts stand organized, trained and resolved to serve God, native land and all mankind;

BECAUSE

Scouting reveals the way, quickens the pace and illuminates the path that leads to the truest and noblest Americanization of American boys;

BECAUSE

The chosen playground of Boy Scouts is the Great Unfiled Out-of-Doors—amidst the everlasting hills, rocks and rills;

BECAUSE

Scouting arouses an interest in the highest civic aspirations of the community, develops an abiding passion for law and order, champions respect for properly constituted authority, and marshals the virtues of manhood that guarantees a government of the people, by the people and for the people;

BECAUSE

Motto, Oath, Law and Knife of Scouting help boys cut their paths, straight and clean, through the itching, burning, restless years of awkward growth;

BECAUSE

Scouting helps boys to know, revere and commune with Nature—even as the "barefoot boy" drank of the nectar of life;

BECAUSE

Scouting challenges body and soul-warping child labor, routs mischief-making idleness, and fills the self-directed hours of boyhood with life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness;

BECAUSE

Scouting teaches that kindness is strength—knows no fear and helps others at all times—and the dumb animals claim the fellowship of all true Scouts;

BECAUSE

Scouting is a school of play, preparedness and patriotism that fashions the bodies, minds and characters of boys, to do or die;

BECAUSE

Scouting whispers to boys to tackle every job with the tools of cheerfulness, patience, courtesy, obedience and loyalty—and mastery will be theirs because they are "prepared";

BECAUSE

Scouting is a plan of education that bridges the gap between knowing and doing, brings forward the timid and humbles the bully, makes the weak strong and the strong stronger, and crowns physical courage with moral valor;

BECAUSE

Scouting embodies a code of self-discipline that commands boys to talk clean, live clean and fight clean—even as the immortal Roosevelt played the game;

BECAUSE

Scouting is a mighty buttress to home and school, and it kindles a fire in the breasts of boys that drives them forward—crusaders in the moral and spiritual world—even as the Pioneer Scouts blazed their trails and conquered the earth;

BECAUSE

Scouting beckons and calls to patriotic men to love, lead and serve the sons of America yet in plastic years—and all who thus love and lead and serve shall know the beauty, the wisdom, and the power of the words of the Prophet of Old who said, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them."

THE SCOUTS SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Today is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America. The day begins a program of celebration which continues through to February 14th with a schedule of events at other times throughout the year. The entire program is dealt with in other columns and is worthy of the interest of all. Scouting was devised as a game and is carried out in the spirit of a game. But it is much more than a game. Underneath its program of knot-tying, signaling, first aid and nature study, and camping and hiking are character values of most sterling worth. Thoroughness, trustworthiness, resourcefulness, courage, keen observation, habits of good health, the practice of helpfulness and courtesy to others under all conditions, the self-confidence that is not arrogance but knows that it knows, knows that it can—these are the fundamentals of Scouting.

The observance of the Silver Anniversary exemplifies a quarter of a century of amazing progress in significant social values, of character training not by abstract teaching but by actual experience. During these twenty-five years more than six and a half million boys have grown up in its membership. Many of them are now full fledged citizens playing the game of adult life and playing it as they played Scouting, loyalty, helpfully, responsibly, cheerfully. America is the better for them and should pause now and then to rejoice over the movement—it is something for which to be proud and grateful.

ELIMINATING WOODEN SCHOOL BUILDINGS

A program of eliminating wooden school buildings in the Newtons has received the attention of the school committee for some time. Recently a survey was conducted with this as an aim culminating in a request to the Mayor that the program be started during the coming year with PWA funds. The program recommended does not eliminate all the buildings which should be eliminated as rapidly as possible. It does, however, include five projects which are necessary in the most immediate future. Whether or not the work is carried on with the aid of federal moneys is not the deciding issue. The task of providing adequate and safe buildings for the pupils of certain sections of the city must be faced. The opportunity to obtain governmental aid exists. If it is more desirable to undertake the project with the use of PWA grants then let it be done. If it is more desirable to do it entirely by local bond issues then it should be done in this manner. Mayor Weeks stated in his annual address to the Board of Aldermen that he would be reluctant to recommend future PWA projects due to a considerable amount of red tape and other considerations which resulted in greater costs in the end. It is believed that much of the red tape and additional costs have been remedied. At any rate we should do away with the several wooden buildings, now in use, which are becoming more inadequate and undesirable each year.

NEWTON LOSES TWO CLERGYMEN

This week two Newton clergymen who served their respective parishes long and faithfully passed to the great beyond. In the death of the Rev. Lawrence Slattery citizens of Newton have lost a sincere friend, a wise counselor, and a revered leader. Throughout his years of service he has exemplified the life of the Leader he served and followed. Rev. John Goddard was also admired and respected. His active service ending some years ago was recognized by his parish, which honored him by making him pastor emeritus.

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

Vernon St., Newton Corner

THE YOUNG ADULT AND HIS LIBRARY

Time, you old gipsy man.
Will you not stay,
Put up your caravan
Just for one day?
—Ralph Hodgdon.

If the poet's longing were satisfied even temporarily, the greatest challenge that the library has, would not present itself so forcefully. But fortunately or unfortunately, time does not stand still and we librarians discover sometimes with a jolt that boys and girls who yesterday were but children, are today mature young people whose inquiring minds have no limits and whose desires for knowledge are boundless.

It was for this reason that the Boys' and Girls' Library, some time ago, created a special collection of adult books selected with the needs and interests of this group in mind. While this group is homogeneous as to age, the interests and mental and physical development of the individuals in it are often as far apart as the poles. This collection includes the best books which the past and the present have to offer because perhaps at no other period are young people so receptive to the best as well as the worst that is set before them. We believe that the "Great Gates of the Mountain" should never be closed to any desiring, keen minded boy or girl. On the other hand the collection also contains books, ephemeral to be sure, but which we hope will serve as stepping stones to the best in literature. It is heartening to think that each individual is capable of unlimited growth. We can only hope for the wisdom of Dobry's mother, in the very beautiful book of that name, when she said, "Well, children grow out of more things than their clothes. . . . A boy is a shirt woven, cut out, but not made up." Applying that wisdom to the case in point, we believe that boys and girls can grow out of a taste for the ephemeral into a desire for the permanent and that the library by the very influence of good books can have a share in the shaping of the finished "shirt"—in other words the young man or young woman.

The Staff of the Boys' and Girls' Library urges all young people in Newton anywhere, to become acquainted with this collection of carefully selected adult books. Come to the Boys' and Girls' Library, get acquainted with the staff, browse among the books but if that is not possible, avail yourselves of the privileges of this collection by putting in reserves at your Branch Libraries.

The following half dozen titles of recent books may be found in this collection for older boys and girls.

Red Heifer Davison
The story of a sporting red heifer's losing struggle against the advance of civilization upon the Australian Bush.

Desert Wife Faunce
A courageous woman shares with her husband, thrilling and unusual experiences on an Indian trading post in Arizona.

Tale of a Shipwreck Hall
A child's chance reading of the adventures of H. M. S. Bounty led to the writing of "Mutiny on the Bounty" and the subsequent books and to the author's intense desire to visit Pitcairn Island.

Old Farm Prichard
"Dood," young daughter of the Schofields, is the lovable heroine of this pleasant story of life on an Illinois farm during the rush for homestead lands in Kansas and Nebraska.

Magic Mirror Singmaster
The intense longing of young Jesse Hummer to be a writer is satisfied at last when he discovers in his Pennsylvania Dutch neighbors, abundant material for his pen.

Floridan Salten
Horse lovers will enjoy this story of Floridan, magnificent stallion in the Imperial stables of Franz Joseph.

LT. COL. PAUL GRATAN KIRK

By F. F. MEYER

Again an English High School graduate comes forth to assume a position of leadership and importance in our State.

Paul Grattan Kirk has recently been appointed by Governor Joseph B. Ely to the office of Commissioner of Public Safety.

Colonel Kirk was born thirty-one years ago in East Boston, the seventh member of a family later to be comprised of fourteen children. His report cards from kindergarten through grammar and high school were a succession of "A's" and 100 per cents. He entered English High School, where he at once became an outstanding pupil. Everything that was to be earned in the way of prizes and honors Paul Kirk earned. He was president of the Class of '22, Editor-in-Chief of the E. H. S. Record, and a winner of the Cumston Prize. He became a colonel of a regiment in school, and in an interscholastic regimental competition, became colonel, commanding the high school cadets.

The graduation of the Class of '22 might well be called the graduation of Paul Kirk.

On his graduation from English, he entered Harvard College, from which he graduated in 1925, A.B., after establishing an enviable record. In 1929 he graduated from Harvard Law School with a degree of LL.D. While at Harvard he enlisted in the National Guard. In twelve years he rose from a private through the ranks of sergeant, lieutenant, captain, and major, to his present commission of lieutenant colonel.

With many joint committees conducting hearings activities in the State House are at a high peak. More than the usual number of citizens are being attracted to the public hearings. This is partially due to the radio broadcasts which are being officially sent out every Tuesday from the Governor's office, as well as every night on an advertising program. It is also due somewhat to the growing interest in legislation, which may vitally affect all citizens of the Commonwealth.

The Monday, Wednesday and Friday sessions of the two branches of the Legislature have, for the most part, been brief and with little discussion. It is expected that the more controversial topics will soon start to be reported, either favorably or unfavorably, and debate will become more lengthy and roll calls more numerous.

Among the hundreds of matters assigned for hearings next week are several bills pertaining to Newton which have been referred to the Committee on Cities. On Tuesday this committee will hear a bill filed by Mayor Weeks and the city solicitor pertaining to the laying out and improving of certain unaccepted streets in Newton. The bill filed by the Democratic City Committee of Newton seeking to do away with the preferential system of voting and to establish in its place primary elections will be heard the same day. The petition seeking to eliminate the "off-year" election in Newton and changing the length of term and representation by wards of members of the Board of Aldermen and School Committee are also scheduled for the same day but will be postponed. This bill, filed by Alderman William E. Earle and others, has been delayed as the Newton Board of Aldermen has been asked to hold

Manifold Miseries

Reference is often made to the glories of winter. It would be interesting to know if among them are listed the following:

Stumbling through crevices in snow drifts.

Walking in the street because the sidewalks are impassable and wondering if you will be hit from the front or the back by a truck.

Sitting in a stalled electric while the car crew argue with a driver to get him to pull over and clear the tracks.

Loose fire chains rattling against mudguards.

Passing with over shoes.

Watching the white snow turn a ghastly gray as the city's dirt accumulates.

Slipping and sliding on unexpected patches of ice.

Battalions of snow shovelers regimented in trucks like troops headed for the front.

Standing in the cold and waiting for delayed conveyances.

Constant nursing of the furnace.

Wondering if it will ever be summer again.

Somebody's Valentine

If ever there is a time, other than the Christmas season, that I deliberately waste hours gazing in store windows, it is the week or so preceding Valentine's Day. Say what you will they do get up some of the most attractive sweetheart messages. I guess it's the pink or pinkish red of the hearts that stir me most. That and the lace paper, the violets, Cupids and roses. Or it may be candies made in the shape of a heart and flavored with saffron, with "Be My Valentine" in red letters. The lozenges, that's really what they are—look better than they taste, at least to me. Furthermore, I don't suppose you're expected to eat them except in cases of emergency.

Getting back to out-and-out Valentines I find in them much to study and admire. The sentiments seem bold, at least to the faint-hearted, but I feel sure they are appreciated. Otherwise they would not be so freely scattered. But then it doesn't take courage to send a Valentine. And what a "kick" when you receive one!

We've Been There

As if no one before had ever gone on a sleighing party some youthful friends gave me a most complete account of such an affair. It seems that last week they enjoyed an experience almost the same as had thrilled their parents, grandparents and ancestors for I don't know how many years back.

I wanted to say, "You're telling me", but I knew that would make me a tettering gaffer, with a squeaky voice. There's nothing that gives you the appearance of human antiquity as the stare of youngsters when you have expressed contempt of their doings.

It amused me to learn they were obliged to drive by automobile out into the country to find a starting place and the necessary equipment. Once there, however, they had everything that the most fortunate of us can remember—a grand old punge, horses that snorted, pranced and shook their heads; jingling bells, straw on the floor to keep their feet warm and a now-smooth-now-bumpy trip of seven miles or so over hills and through valleys. At the end there was the conventional hot supper of favorite rural delicacies as delicious as anything ever set before the Prince of Wales.

And yet—here's where we get in our chuckle—they had nothing on us grey beards. We've been there, too. Old stuff, kids, old stuff.

Brought it on Himself

It may be traced to a mean disposition. Whatever the cause some of us derive satisfaction when a lawyer conducting a cross-examination has the laugh turned on him by some witness. The former apparently delights in goading his victim. When the latter turns—how good it seems. A recent instance caused me to gloat. The lawyer for the defence walked aggressively up to the witness and in withering tones asked, "What is your business?"

"An electrical worker," came the reply. "Do you know where I can get a job?"

By Edward H. Powers

Frank A. Brooks of Watertown, member of the Governor's Council from the 3rd Councillor District which includes Newton, has incurred criticism from some Republicans since Boston newspapers stated that he would vote to confirm the appointment of Frank A. Goodwin as Registrar of Motor Vehicles. Goodwin is anathema with many Republicans because he ran independently for Governor at the last State election, even though Curley would have defeated Bacon had Goodwin not been a candidate. From the viewpoint of those who insist on absolute party loyalty, Goodwin should be taboo to all faithful Republicans.

Mr. Brooks has two good reasons for supporting Frank Goodwin for Registrar of Motor Vehicles. The first is—that a few years ago when that suave politician from Westfield, Joseph Ely, who, as Governor of this State, was attempting to oust Brooks from the office of Chairman of the State Parole Board because Brooks was fighting the insidious pardon and parole racket which was slithering into this State under Ely's regime, Frank Goodwin was one of the first to come to Brooks' assistance. The latter, among his many fine qualities possesses gratitude. And this is a quality to be commended in this age

When ingratitude is so prevalent. The second reason Brooks advances for supporting Goodwin is—that the latter made an excellent record during the many years he served as Registrar, and no graft or corruption smirched his regime. With the appalling increase in automobile fatalities, a man of Goodwin's type is surely needed in the office of Registrar, even though the East Boston man was disloyal politically.

In the death of Dr. Robert A. Reid we have lost an old friend. The possession of modern, scientific knowledge did not diminish in this physician the Christian faith he inherited from his father, a Scotch Clergyman, whose loyalty to his flock caused him to continue as minister of a small country parish, though he was offered more lucrative pastorates in larger communities. During the long illness of one dear to us Dr. Reid proved himself a sympathetic friend and this quality won for him the respect and affection of the thousands whom he served as a family physician during the two score years he practiced in Newton.

A woman of mature years, who, as a trusted employee of a co-operative bank, stole over $20,000 left with her as savings by persons in humble walks of life, receives as punishment a sentence of 1½ years in jail. No wonder so many in this country yield to the temptation to be dishonest.

Some wise individual long ago coined the phrase—"to have fingers all thumbs." The thumb on our right hand got frost-bitten last week and split in several places, putting it out of commission. We are now convinced that the thumb is easily the most important of the five digits.

One thing the Street Department should do as soon as possible after a snowstorm is—to eliminate deep ruts at street intersections. Such ruts not only bring accidents by causing automobiles to swerve, but they break springs, axles and other parts of motor vehicles. Scores of such rutted street intersections are menacing autoists in Newton.

One of the new members of the Board of Aldermen who impresses us favorably is Henderson Inches of Chestnut Hill. Mr. Inches a middle aged man, is a member of a family well known in Massachusetts and Boston since Colonial Days. But, there is nothing uppish about him. He is genial, natural, unassuming. On those of us who have seen Aldermen come and go, a man of this type makes an immediate, gracious impression. Quite in contrast with the individual who makes his advent in the Board of Aldermen with an air of hauteur, seemingly afflicted with a superiority complex, and taking himself too seriously.

Alderman Benjamin Bowen, as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, in reporting for that committee at the meeting on Monday night, reminded us of his predecessor from Ward 3, William T. Baker. Mr. Baker in making reports as a committee chairman went into details and was deliberate in speech. So is Mr. Bowen. The Aldermen cannot complain of insufficient information after he concludes his reports.

Boys and girls continue to risk their lives by coasting on and on streets. Parents who permit them to do so are to blame for the fatalities and injuries resulting.

The lofty standard of ethics exhibited by Mr. Reilly, attorney for the defence in the Hauptmann trial tends to increase one's respect for the legal profession. The character of the witnesses he has been producing in behalf of his client is proof of the fact that jurisprudence in this country is admirably conducted.

Feed the birds. Evidence of the sorry straits to which feathered creatures have been reduced by the existent snow and ice was presented in Newton this week when sea gulls ventured into yards of residences in a desperate search for food.

DR. ROBERT A. REID

Dr. Robert A. Reid of 36 Hyde ave., Newton, died on February 5th. He was born 86 years ago at Salisbury, Connecticut in the Berkshires, the son of Rev. Adam Reid, D.D., and Wilhelmina (Duncan) Reid, both natives of Lanarkshire, Scotland. His father was a famous clergyman of his day, who refused pastorates in large cities and who received a degree of Doctor of Divinity from Williams College. When 15 years of age, Robert A. Reid went to Brattleboro, Vermont, and started to work in a dry goods store there. Later he travelled to Chicago and entered the employ of the Marshall Field store, becoming head of the silk department there. Becoming interested in medicine, he entered the Bennett Medical School in Chicago, graduating in 1874. During his summer vacations he worked to help finance his studies. Upon graduating he commenced practice of medicine in Marion, Indiana.

On October 16, 1878, Dr. Reid married Carrie Stickle of Rockaway, N. J. The young couple went to Europe where Dr. Reid studied for two years in London and a year in Vienna. He came to Newton to reside over 50 years ago and built up a large practice in this city. For 40 years Dr. Reid published the Massachusetts Medical Journal. He retired from active practice in 1920. He was a charter member of the Monday Evening Club of Newton and for many years a member of the Hunnewell Club. For nine years he was a deacon of Eliot Congregational Church. His wife died in 1929.

He is survived by three sons—George S. Reid of Ipswich, Robert A. Reid, Jr., of West Acton, and Dr. William Duncan Reid of Newton; a daughter, Mrs. William Stewart of Hampden, Conn., and five grandchildren. His funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at Eliot Church; Rev. Ray Eusden officiating. Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

TRIBUTE TO DR. REID

The following tribute to the late Dr. Robert A. Reid was received by his son, Dr. W. Duncan Reid:—

Newton, Feb. 5, 1935.

Dear Duncan:
I am glad that your father has been released and has entered that life which has beckoned him for several years. Your father was one of the best citizens who has lived in Newton during the past 50 years. I want to express my appreciation for the fine Christian gentleman whom we of a younger generation have had for an example these many years. He certainly was a good citizen—intelligent, public spirited, patriotic and honest. His ministry of healing went out to all kinds, creeds and colors. One characteristic always impressed me. He was a busy doctor, but he went to church regularly. His memory will be revered in the church he loved for many years.

Sincerely yours,
EDWIN O. CHILDS.

ANNA A. RAYMOND

Miss Anna Almy Raymond of 71 Montvale road, Newton Centre, died on February 1 following an illness of several months. She was born in New Bedford 46 years ago, the daughter of the late Judge Robert F. Raymond of the Superior Court. She graduated from Mount Holyoke College in 1910 and held a master's degree from Boston University. For fourteen years she was principal of the Milwaukee-Dowry Seminary, a leading mid-west girls' school. She was a member of the Wisconsin Chapter, Society of Mayflower Descendants; Colonial Dames of America; Women's City Club of Milwaukee; Association of University Women and Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary (Walker) Raymond; two sisters, Miss Lois Raymond of Newton Centre and Mrs. Lyndon Oak of Tulsa, Okla.; and two brothers, Allen Raymond of the "New York Herald-Tribune" and Major Robert F. Raymond, Jr., of Hartford, who won fame as an aviator in France.

She studied at Middlebury College, Vt., and is now employed by the New England Mutual Life Ins. Co. of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Townsend Edmonds of Auburndale and Marshfield Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Mr. Aaron L. D. Lockwood, son of Prof. and Mrs. William P. B. Lockwood of West Newton. Miss Edmonds is a graduate of Lasell Junior College, class of 1933, and is now studying at the Child-Walker School of Fine Arts. Mr. Lockwood attended Northeastern University.

Mrs. Chester A. Briggs of 173 Austin st., Newtonville has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Balfour Briggs, to John S. Balfour, son of Mrs. Joseph H. Williams of Bedford. Miss Briggs is a graduate of Dana Hall School and is a member of the class of 1936 at Smith College. Mr. Balfour was a member of the class of 1929 at Bowdoin College.

Stone Institute Annual Meeting

The Annual meeting of the Stone Institute and Newton Home for Aged People was held at the Home on Saturday, February 2nd. The report of the treasurer showed a healthy financial condition with total income in excess of expenditures and income from invested funds substantially the same as for the previous year. Additional gifts and legacies totaling $8738 were announced as having been added during the year to the investment account.

Directors elected included: Lewis H. Bacon, Mr. George W. Bartlett, Russell Burnett, Albert P. Carter, Mrs. Albert P. Carter, Mr. William F. Chase, Mr. Marshall B. Dalton, Mrs. James Dunlop, Mr. Frank Fanning, Mrs. Albert M. Fowle, Mrs. John A. Gould, Frank J. Hale, Mrs. Frank J. Hale, Mrs. Fred R. Hayward, T. E. Jewell, Seward W. Jones, Mrs. Arthur W. Lane, Miss Eleanor W. Leather, Mrs. Elmore L. MacPhie, Donald C. McKay, Mrs. Metcalf W. Melcher, William H. Rice, Mrs. Frank L. Richardson, Charles E. Riley, Mrs. Charles A. Savin, Mrs. Cyrus T. Schirmer, Mrs. Charles L. Smith.

The officers elected were: Metcalf W. Melcher, President; Seward W. Jones, Vice President; Albert P. Carter, Treasurer; and Wm. H. Rice, Clerk and Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The Stone Institute is filling a real need and is limited only by its capacity from being of even greater usefulness. The admissions committee reported a larger waiting list than at any previous recent time.

MIDDLESEX COURT, M. C. O. F.

Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F. will hold a Beano party at Elks' Hall on Tuesday night, February 12. A descriptive lecture, illustrated by moving pictures will be given by Rev. Joseph Shea of Wellington.

School Classes For Adults

Registration for the new courses for grownups under ERA auspices is still going on.

The Superintendent of Schools announces that interest is growing in the opportunity presented by these courses to take up some useful study during afternoon or evening hours for the purpose of self-improvement.

So far the subjects which have been outlined are the following: Conversational and Advanced French, Costume Design and Fashions, Dramatics, Dressmaking, Advanced Typewriting and a Forum on Current Events.

The Day Junior High School has been assigned to accommodate the afternoon classes; they will meet on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 3 to 5 o'clock. The evening sessions will be held at the Stearns School on Monday and Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30, and during the same hours on Wednesday and Friday at the Davis School, West Newton.

Competent teachers have been selected for the various subjects from those who were unemployed in Newton and who needed the work. The courses thus furnish the double purpose of furnishing unemployment relief and at the same time giving residents of Newton, 18 years of age or older, a chance to brush up on a subject previously studied or to gain greater facility in their chosen line.

Anyone who is interested to learn more about these courses is invited to write or telephone Mr. Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of Schools, Newtonville; Newton No. 1570.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Lecture on Interior Decoration

"Inexpensive Interior Decorations," an informal talk by Mr. William B.
Vance, of the F. H. Bacon Company, of Boston, to be given on February 14th, at 10 a. m., at the Newton Highlands Woman's Club Workshop on Columbus street, under the auspices of the American Home committee, should bring many helpful ideas for brightening Newton homes this coming season.

Many artistic combinations of wall-papers, curtains, overdraperies, and floor coverings will be displayed, and an informal question period will follow the talk.

Educational Conference

It has been necessary to make changes in the dates of the two remaining Educational Conferences sponsored by the Education committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club, so that the meetings will be held on February 14th and March 7th, at the home of Mrs. Cecil W. Clark, 363 Walnut street. On the 14th the guest speaker will be Mr. G. Winthrop Bralnerd, principal of the Grade Schools in Newtonville, and he will have for his subject "New Angles on the Elmentary Sixth Grade." The teachers of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will be special guests, and after a discussion and question period, tea will be served by the committee, whose chairman is Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker. All adults, particularly parents, who are interested in the Newton Public Schools are cordially invited to all of these conferences which are planned to bring parents and teachers together for a better understanding and a clearer knowledge of the educational life of the children.

Clubwomen Are Invited to Become Members

The attention of all women's clubs members is called to the Mothers' Rest Membership Week. The dues received from memberships in this organization help to give vacations at the Oak Hill vacation home to many weary mothers to whom two weeks in the country is both a physical and a spiritual uplift. A cordial invitation to become a member of the Mothers'
Rest Association is extended to all Newton Women's Clubs members. A more detailed account of the excellent work of this organization will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Graphic.

Artists' Reception Opens Art Week

There will be an Exhibition in the Art Gallery of the Newton Centre
Woman's Club of Paintings, including oil, water-colors, and pastel, by younger artists of greater Boston, from February 15th through February 21st, from 2 to 5 p. m., except February 16th and 17th. This showing should be very interesting, as indicating the trends among the group of younger artists. Mrs. Richard B.
Cattell and Mrs. Ralph G. Hudson will be in charge.

Mollie Luce, Gretchen Cook, Irene
Higgins, Velma Whorther, Gertrude
Tombs, Allan Crite, Donald E. W-man, Alice Sutton, Elmer Greene, Philip Hicks, Harold Rotenberg, Helen Dickson, Charles Lindsay, Erica Kara-wina, Kay Peterson, Warren Berry, Charlotte Cushman, Prescott M. M.
Jones, and Russell West.

For the evening of February 15th, in connection with the opening of the Exhibition, another of the delicious "Artists' Nights," has been planned to be held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Allen Hubbard, 51 Montvale road. Mrs. Hubbard will serve a supper which will be followed by an informal social evening, affording an opportunity to meet some of the artists who are exhibiting their pictures. Those who attended similar functions last year will remember the charming atmosphere of these occasions and will anticipate the event with great pleasure, so newcomers may be assured of a very enjoyable evening.

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

On Monday, February 11th, the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet

Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club Mrs. George D.
Thomas and Mrs. Wilson C. Dort will be the speakers. Mrs. Thomas will read a paper on "Canadian Wheatlands" and Mrs. Dort a paper dealing with the "Romance of the Fur Trade."
This meeting will be held on Monday,
February 11th, at the home of Mrs.
Ethel Leach, 79 Adella avenue, West Newton. Mrs. Leach will be assisted by Mrs. B. Howard Lester.

The next regular meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational
Club will be held on Friday, the 15th, instead of on the fourth Friday of the month, as is the custom, the 22nd, on account of the holiday. The place of meeting is Odd Fellows Hall, North Gate park. Dr. Samuel Lindsay will tell of Current Events for the program of the afternoon.

Social Science Club

Dr. Hubert C. Herring will speak before the Social Science Club on the 13th of February. His subject will be "Cuba's Struggle for Freedom." Mrs.
Herbert G. Pratt and Mrs. Fred T.
Field will receive.

The International Affairs Study Group of the Waban Woman's Club will meet February 12th at 10 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Walter Bauer, chairman of this special committee of the Club, 263 Woodward street. Mrs.
Coffin will review "The American Diplomatic Game," by Drew Pearson.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Officers from nearly fifty clubs were guests at President's Day of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, the 5th. A reception preceded the program with honored guests and Hostess Club officers in the receiving line, as announced last week.
In the absence of the president of the Newton Federation, Mrs. C. Carter Willson, Mrs. J. Earle Parker, vice-president, and Mrs. Joseph A. McCarron, director, represented that organization.

After the guests of honor had been seated on the platform, the Hostess president, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew, conducted a brief business meeting, introducing the chairman of the Program committee, Mrs. John D. Hel-beck, who gave a notice of a Bridge to be given on February 26th, the proceeds to be used for a Scholarship.

Mrs. Parker, Mrs. John F. Capron, and Mrs. Thomas J. Walker then brought greetings from the Newton and State Federations, after which Mrs. Edwin H. Dyer introduced Charles Little, the blind violinist, who rendered four selections.

The highlight of the afternoon was the presence and address of Mrs.
Grace Morrison Poole, president of the General Federation.

"A New Day Dawns" was the topic for her talk, and incidentally she touched on the Bonus, the Old Age Pension, Non-Employment Insurance, and our country's attitude towards the World Court as shown recently at Washington. Mrs. Poole closed her talk with a plea for the better understanding of the youth of today, since it is they who will shape the destiny of that New Day.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program, with the Hospitality committee, Mrs. Ralph Balch in charge, and Mrs. Charles H. Brown and Miss Anne Bunker assisting at the tea table.

Newtonville Woman's Club

At the regular meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at their Club House on Washington park, following a short business meeting, Mrs.
Wallace H. Jose, chairman of the Legislative committee, read three bills which are to be presented for consideration at the Mid-Winter meeting of the State Federation. The musical part of the program consisted of a group of four numbers by the Club's Glee Club, which has been rehearsing during the winter under the direction of Mr. William Ellis Weston. He accompanied them at this meeting, and they received much applause for their splendid rendition of the music selected. In two of the numbers, they were accompanied by violin obligatos played by Miss Anna Kovitz and Mr.
Sigmund Romanskiewicz, both of Newton.

The speaker of the afternoon was
Mr. George E. Sokolsky, a noted economist and political observer who gave a forceful and graphic account of the International Outlook. Mr. Sokolsky was born in Utica, New York, but spent the years from 1917 to 1931, first in Russia at the time of the Russian Revolution and later in China, and in other countries of the Far East, which enables him to describe from first-hand knowledge the relations between the United States and these countries, and his droll manner of presenting his subject, together with his thorough knowledge of conditions existing throughout the world today, was received with much interest.

Weeks Jr. High

The Weeks' Varsity basketball team has been continuing its winning streak. On Thursday, January 31, in a hard-fought game on the home court, Weeks defeated Day 16 to 11.

On the same day, the Junior Varsity came out on the very short end of an 11 to 3 score. Again, on Monday, February 4, the Varsity were on top when the High School Junior Varsity succumbed to the fast, flashy teamwork of our boys, who won the game to the tune of 23 to 14.

Parents' Day was observed at the school on Tuesday afternoon, February 5.

Tom Burkhardt acted as master of ceremonies at the musical assembly presented Wednesday morning, February 6. The program included a trumpet solo of Ada Merriam, Madeline McDuff, Doris Hayward, a clarinet solo of Charles Bowers; a violin solo by Mary Ruggles; a waltz by the Band; a saxophone solo by Donald Finchbaugh; a medley of Foreign Folk songs by a ninth grade orchestra; and a clarinet duet by Jane Elwell and Curtis Hemmingsway.

At the senior high school three members of last year's ninth grade have been chosen officers of the sophomore class. The Day Junior High extends good wishes to Richard Whitney, Geraldine Wisbach, and Marcela Rennard, the sophomore president, vice-president and secretary.

The boys' varsity basketball team played an interesting and exciting game with the Coletti family. All members of the latter team are pupils or alumni of the F. A. Day.

Mr. Thompson Stone and his E. R. A. orchestra of Newton entertained at the Wednesday assembly with a fine program of music.

On Monday, February 11th, at 2:00 p. m. from station WBZ the Radio Club will repeat the broadcast given on Thursday at the Newton High School. The program will include a radio adaptation of "Abraham Lincoln, Rail Splitter," by Constance D'Arcy Mackay, famous sayings of Lincoln, and stories and quotations about Lincoln.

The Elgth Grade has elected for its officers this year Daniel Needham as president, Ruth Putnam as vice-president, Albert Everts as secretary, and Gloria Martines as treasurer.

Boy Prodigy Violinist At Community Service

Frankie Zecchino, boy prodigy violinist, will play at the Community Sunday Evening Service at the Newton Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Centre and Wesley streets, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Frankie Zecchino was born in East Boston of Italian parentage. His father gave him his early musical training. At the age of five, Frankie appeared at various Italian festivities and created a genuine sensation. He was placed in the charge of Marjorie Posselt under whose tutelage he made rapid progress. Later, Emanuel Onderick of New York and Boston accepted him in his master class, Frankie having won the Onderick scholarship. In 1933-1934 Frankie was winner of the violin contests sponsored by the Massachusetts Federation of Music Clubs, Inc. He is making a name for himself appearing in recitals here and in New York. On Thursday evening, March 7, he is to give a violin recital at Jordan Hall which is sponsored by the Massachusetts Federation of Music Clubs. Music lovers will welcome the opportunity of hearing this young musical genius Sunday evening. Mrs. Emanuel Onderick will accompany him on the piano and Mrs. Dorothy Sprague on the organ. The Rev. Harry Belmont Hill will preach on the theme: "Hidden Treasure."

Eliot Players To Present 3-Act Comedy Next Week

The Eliot Players will present A. E. W. Mason's delightful three act comedy "Green Stockings" in the Eliot Chapel on Friday and Saturday evenings, February 15 and 16, at 8:15 o'clock. This play has become a classic since it was made famous in 1911 by Margaret Anglin. Its unusual plot provides many amusing situations; its characterizations are excellent. In the cast of the Eliot production are: Misses Hazel Albers, Dorothy Bass, Dorothy Howe, Ruth Jenks, Alice Leeds, and Messrs Charles and William Conway, Gurton Dower, Harold Jenks, Howard Paige, Henry Ryan. The plan is under the direction of Miss Marion Graham and Miss Bessie Stratton.

Special Patriotic Service At Channing Church

On Sunday, February 10, a special "Patriotic Order of Worship" will be held at Channing Church, Vernon and Park streets. The service is arranged to emphasize the American ideals of consecration, peace and brotherhood. The sermon, preached by the pastor, Rev. Alfred S. Cole, is entitled, "A Lonesome Place Against the Sky."

Central Church Woman's Association Meets

The Woman's Association of Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, held its regular meeting on Wednesday, February sixth. Lunch was served by Mrs. Holloway and the principal speaker was Mrs. Allison C. Day and her committee decorated the tables in keeping with St. Valentine's Day. Mrs. Allan Brickett, formerly a soloist in Faith Church, Springfield, gave two groups of songs accompanied by Miss Dorothy Curtis. Mrs. Manley F. Albright gave a fifteen minute talk on Current Events in the Mission Field. The principal speaker of the afternoon was Mr. B. Floyd Rinker of the English Department of the Newton High School. Mr. Rinker was the exchange teacher from Newton High School to Birmingham, England, last year. He kept his audience deeply interested and amused, by his comparisons of the social customs of the two countries.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edward H. Powers

Residents of Newton cannot be blamed for becoming alarmed over increasing breaks in gas mains in this city, some of which have had fatal results in the past two years. Gas fumes seeping into a house during daylight hours are insidious enough. Persons may, and have been gradually asphyxiated in residences in the daytime without detecting the deadly menace. The danger from this peril during the night hours is much greater. Gas seeping into a home while its occupants are asleep, gives them less chance to escape its fatal effect. But, the horrible probability is that the cellar of a house may become sufficiently filled with gas fumes to have them ignited from the fire in a heater, with resultant explosion and flames. The tragedy at Newton Centre two years ago evidenced this.

Some means must be devised to lessen the jeopardy caused by breaks in gas mains. In past years gas mains were placed about four feet underground. In recent years many mains have been placed only three and a half feet below street surfaces. When the temperature during winter months gets well below the freezing point, such as during the last winter and this winter, the frost goes lower than the gas mains and danger of breaks becomes much more prevalent. Gas mains should be laid at a greater depth.

To add to this hazard is the fact that Massachusetts, in common with other States, has stupidly and recklessly permitted the operation on our highways of tremendously heavy and large trucks, which with their loads cause pressure of over 15 and 20 tons weight to bear down on pipes laid a few feet beneath the surface. The wonder is that more broken gas and water mains don't result. Possibly some day this country or this state may become sufficiently intelligent to compel a gradual reduction in the size of motor vehicles which will be permitted to travel on public highways.

Another cause for the increased menace from broken gas mains is—that the pressure in these mains has been increased in recent years. Thus, when a break occurs, this added pressure causes the gas to seep with more force and in larger quantities. With the resourcefulness of modern scientists, why isn't it reasonable to suppose that chemical, mechanical and electrical engineers can invent some device which would start to operate if gas times in any quantity would enter a cellar or building, and cause some warning signal to sound an alarm.

The third pastor of a Newton Catholic church to die within the past few months, Rev. Lawrence Slattery, of Our Lady's Church, Newton, had spent almost 50 years as priest. His zeal in the revered vocation which he made his life work was evidenced by the fact that in the various parishes which he served as pastor he was responsible for the construction of two new churches and an imposing parochial high school. His amiability and charity endeared him to the members of the largest Catholic parish in this city where he ministered for over 18 years.

Few clergymen have equalled the record of Rev. John Goddard of Newtonville who died on Tuesday at the age of 95. His service of 35 years as a minister of the Church of the New Jerusalem in Cincinnati, and 30 years in Newtonville was remarkable.

Ruts On Streets Cause Accidents And Injuries

The rutted condition of hard packed snow on Newton streets has been responsible for a number of automobile collisions the past two weeks. On last Sunday at 12:30 p. m. cars driven by Clayton Stanley of Hyde Park and George Andrews of Waltham collided on Dudley road, Newton Centre. Mrs. Stanley received slight injuries. At 2:10 Sunday afternoon cars driven by W. F. Cotting of 243 Park street, Newton and Edward Moore of Groveland, collided at Auburn st. and Commonwealth avenue, Auburndale. Mrs. Louise Moore of Groveland received cuts on her face.

Cars driven by Richard Boynton of Springfield and Charles Houston, a Harvard student, crashed on Hammond st., Chestnut Hill, at 10 p. m. Sunday. Houston received a fractured nose and cuts on his face. Patrolmen Bibbo and Turner took Houston to the homes of several doctors for treatment, but all these physicians were out. Houston was then taken by the policemen to the Newton Hospital, but, after arriving there the injured youth decided to hasten by taxi to the Stillman infirmary at Cambridge.

Cars driven by John Cincotta of Watertown and George Ducrow of Winthrop collided at 11:35 p. m. Sunday at Washington street, near Brooks avenue, Newtonville. Ducrow and Marion Enos of Brighton, a passenger in one of the cars, received injuries.

Soldier's Relief Cost Newton Last Year $49,038

The annual report of the Soldier's Relief Department of Newton has been submitted by Edward T. Duncan, commissioner, in charge. It shows that during 1934 there were 248 cases of such relief financed by taxpayers of Newton. The persons receiving such relief included 194 World War veterans, 16 widows of World War veterans, 12 dependent mothers, 10 Spanish War veterans, 5 widows of Spanish War veterans, 11 Civil War veterans. The total number of persons in families aid-

Warren Jr. High

The Varsity basketball team defeated the Newton High Junior Varsity, 26-21, in a home game, January 31st. Richard Posner, a Warren alumnus, was high scorer for the visiting team.

The newly elected officers of the seventh grade are: President, Brooks Heath; Vice President, Edith Alexander; Secretary, Nancy Chase; and Treasurer, Ralph Burns. Formal installation of officers will be held at the next assembly.

Clinton Ferguson, Warren '33, has attained national prominence as 1934 National Champion in classes A and B outdoor motor boat races. In 1933 he set a World's Record which stood for a year, and in 1934 he won many important races and the National B Championship. While at Warren, Clinton built a boat under the direction of Mr. Acker.

The ninth grade art classes recently witnessed a demonstration of the professional approach to a portrait when Mr. Alfred Spittal, of Waban, did an oil painting of Audrey Stockbridge of I.D.

The meeting of the Eastern Massachusetts Junior High School Publications Association was held at Wellesley Alumnae Hall on January 29th. Warren delegates from the Transmitter staff were accompanied by Miss Walsh, faculty advisor, and Mrs. Koughan. Those who participated in the tour of Wellesley's beautiful halls and dormitories, and enjoyed the delightful program and dinner of the Alice L. Phillips Junior High School were: Jerry Harvey, Grace Ver Plank, Sanchia Thayer, Marcia Gill, Shirley Fuller, Helen Pachus, Sylvia Peirce, Barbara Huke, Virginia Wilder, Betsy Ross, and Audrey Stockbridge.

Edmund Whitten, Warren '34, visited the Aviation Club on Monday, February 4th, and gave a talk on building models and gliders. He also judged the airplane models made by members of the club. These models are now on display in the school exhibit case.

Sugar on snow was the novel dessert for dinner Monday night, when the students enjoyed a "sugaring-off" party.

On Thursday afternoon the Lasell Faculty will be at home in the library to a group of students and invited guests.

A party of twenty-two Lasell girls accompanied by Miss Muriel McClelland, director of the Physical Education Department, will start for Inter-lake, N. H. on Friday morning for a week-end of winter sports in the mountains.

Guest speakers for the week are Dr. Raymond Walsh of the City Must Pay For Fatal Auto Accident

Judge John C. Lynch of Milford announced last Friday a finding against the City of Newton in the suit instituted by the estate of Joseph Brocklesby of Murray ter, Auburndale, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident on the night of Feb. 12, 1934. The judge awarded $1000 for the death of young Brocklesby, which is the maximum damage allowed against a city. He awarded $3500 for conscious suffering. Brocklesby was riding in a car driven by Norman Dow of 66 Eddy st., West Newton. There had been a break in a water main on Commonwealth ave. opposite Norumbega Park and water had gathered over the icy surface of the street. In passing over this place, the car skidded and hit a tree with terrific force. Dow was injured. The plaintiffs, through their attorney, Benjamin Thornburg of Waltham, contended that the city was negligent in not having the ice and water covered street properly guarded. The city, through Joseph W. Bartlett, city solicitor, alleged that Dow was driving at too great a speed under conditions. Tuesday morning the city entered an appeal from the decision and asked for a new trial on the grounds that the verdict is against the law and against the weight of evidence.

N'ville Family Driven From Home By Fire

Fire which apparently started in rubbish in the cellar of the two-family house at 1015 Washington st., Newtonville, about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, caused several persons to make a hasty exit from the building and did damage estimated at about $1000. The apartment on the first floor is occupied by James Gerraughy and family. About 3:10 p. m. Wednesday Mrs. Gerraughy, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amos Switzer of Needham, and Laura Bertrand, employed by Mrs. Gerraughy, felt the floor of the living room becoming hot and then smoke started to spread through the apartment. Miss Bertrand seized William Gerraughy, 2, who was asleep in an adjoining chamber, and the women rushed from the house signalling to firemen in Engine 4 house nearby. John Coffey, who is an occupant of the upstairs apartment, also made an exit from the building. The firemen found a lively blaze in the cellar, which spread to the first floor before it was extinguished.

Unemployed Man Freezes Hand

John Kratochivila, 56, one of the millions of unemployed, and homeless, will have food and shelter for the remainder of the winter. John, who was born in Austria, journeyed from Tarrytown, N. Y., as a non-paying passenger on an open freight car Tuesday. He lost the glove off his right hand during the freezing trip and his right hand was frozen as a result. He had to leave the train some miles up country and was plodding through Newton Tuesday evening, cold, weary and hungry when he met Patrolman John Green at Centre and Walnut sts. The unfortunate wayfarer was taken to police headquarters in a cruising car, arraigned as a vagrant in court on Wednesday and sentenced to State Farm at Bridgewater, where his frozen hand is receiving treatment.

Newton Welfare Bureau Report

How a privately supported relief agency serves the community in the treatment of problems is shown in the report of the General Secretary of the Newton Welfare Bureau, Miss Harriet L. Parsons. She says, in part: Taking the five purposes of the Newton Welfare Bureau, an organization which has given forty-five years of service to Newton, we find that in 1934 the Bureau has in its work consistently carried out these purposes. First, to study problems of individuals and families in need. Taking the 987 families coming primarily for relief in 1934, through careful consideration of all problems involved by the case conference and the workers it was found in every instance that other problems must be considered and constructively handled in order to build up resistance and help each family to stand on its own. Each family was worked with over a long period to help answer the question why, not just what. A few examples statistically are that 266 families were helped with medical problems, legal advice given to 44, budgeting service to 10. Increasing emphasis in 1934 was given them to the consideration of underlying problems and the meeting of them.

Second, to aid — to prevent recurrence of need for the interest of the community. In carrying out this purpose, aid was given frequently not only to meet needs of food and clothing but with the idea of making up for lack in equipment with those things which were definitely helpful in building toward the self-reliance of the family. Included under this are such items as: vacations were planned for 129 children and 46 adults; convalescent care arranged; eyes examined and fully corrected; dental care provided. One of the strongest aids in this work is the privilege given the Bureau, through the Health Committee, to carry out the aims embodied in the Christmas Seal Fund. All this work for tubercular children under the sponsorship of the Federation of Women's Clubs is carried out through the Bureau.

The third and fourth purposes, namely, to consider the social and industrial conditions and to work for the betterment of them are less tangible. However, in the services of these purposes, such an agency as the Newton Welfare Bureau, through its close relation with the problems of the community, naturally becomes the starting point for an active concern in underlying conditions. Whatever the limitations are upon a case-working agency as an instrument of social reform, the Newton Welfare Bureau can lay claim to an influence and a leadership in the attention that has been given to living conditions as expressed in its recent discussion of housing, for example.

The fifth, and last purpose, to promote cooperation of individuals and organizations, has been carried out in part through the forming of a Publicity Conference Committee, which aims to bring about a better understanding of the role of private relief. Three students from Simmons College School of Social Work have received part of their training at the Bureau. Speaking before interested groups of the staff is one of the outstanding functions of the Bureau.

A few outstanding facts of the year 1934 include the distribution of 15,755 articles of clothing through the Clothing Chest. This work is carried on through the interest of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The rallying of church groups to meet this need also has been of utmost value. 261 families were cared for at Thanksgiving and 176 at Christmas. Plans are now under way for toys to be mended by the Scouts and firemen for Christmas of 1935.

1934 Statistics Of Newton Fire Department

The report of Chief Clarence Randlett of the Newton Fire Department for the year 1934 shows that the fire department responded to 1430 calls during the year. Of this total 340 were sent in from fire alarm boxes on streets, 872 were telephone alarms and 198 verbal alarms. Of the alarms received 102 were false. It has been estimated that the expense to the city each time fire apparatus responds to an alarm is about $50. This means that tax payers of Newton were put to the unnecessary expense of $5000 last year by the sending in of false alarms.

The fire loss for the year was $130,966.09. Insurance paid on buildings was $111,228.35; on contents $18,568.04; on automobiles $390. Two buildings were totally destroyed by fires, 93 damaged. No fire loss was sustained in 196 buildings to which fire apparatus was sent in response to alarms. Fires in dumps were responsible for 196 alarms. The new incinerator should eliminate most alarms of this type in the future. Fires in automobiles caused 92 alarms; mutual aid to surrounding communities 82 alarms; 50 needless alarms were received. The fire losses in 1933 were $133,431.49; 1932, $79,130.98; 1931, $166,065.77.

Among the recommendations of Chief Randlett are—the installation of 8 new fire alarm boxes in sections of Newton which have been developed in recent years and the purchase of a ladder truck for location in the fire station at Chestnut Hill. Assuming that the latter recommendation would be approved, the Chestnut Hill station must be remodelled.

Expanding Playground Activities

Mrs. Ragna Hovgaard of the Playground Department is expanding recreational activities at School playground with the co-operation of Principal Winslow and the teachers of that school. At no other school in the city have school and recreation departments worked to such great advantage. The latest co-operative effort is a gell club of 30 young people. It is under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace and Miss Esther Milken. Miss Margaret Magoli, a Waltham school teacher and president of the Waltham Teacher's Association has joined the Newton Playground Department as a leader in Girl Scout work. She will handle junior high school girls. A benefit bridge for Nonantum Girl Scouts will be held on March 1.

Mrs. Frederick White of Sargent street, Newton is conducting a cooking class on Monday evenings. R. Waldo Hamilton is leading a class in manual training. H. Margaret Norcross is instructing a class in First Aid. Dorothy Kennison is training a class in dramatics. A play "Rip Van Winkle" is being rehearsed. Twelve boys and girls are in the cast.

Permanent Wave Racket Duping Newton Women

The Newton Chamber of Commerce has sent out warnings that women in the Newtons have been duped by solicitors who go from house to house giving away chances on a lottery which has as its prizes "permanent waves" on the lucky recipient's hair. Later these solicitors return and tell the dupes that they have won one of the prizes, are entitled to a permanent wave, but must pay 50 cents before they get the coupon entitling them to the "beauty" treatment. They were given an address in Boston where the "permanent" would be done. The "lucky" ladies, after traveling to the address given, found the alleged beauty studio to be nonexistent. Most of the victims, rather than reveal that they had been fooled, have made no complaints to the police.

Newton Woman Falls On Icy Sidewalk

Another victim of the icy sidewalks of Newton, Mrs. Anna Whelan of 42 Carleton street, Newton, fell on Peabody street, Newton on Monday night about 9:15 receiving injuries to her back and head. She was returning from a meeting at Our Lady's Church when the accident occurred. She was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Hit and Run Driver Fined $20

Augusto Ricciardelli of Sachem road, Needham was fined $20 in the Newton court on Monday for leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. A charge of speeding against him was placed on file. Motorcycle Officer Hammill testified that he was following the defendant along Washington street when the latter was travelling 41 miles an hour, when Ricciardelli's car hit a laundry truck and did not stop.

Many Attend Funeral Service Of Fr. Slattery

Tribute Paid to Late Pastor Of Our Lady's Church

Funeral services for Rev. Lawrence W. Slattery, late pastor of Our Lady's Church, Newton, were held last Saturday morning. At 8 o'clock a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. James Fahey of Our Lady's Church. This mass was for the children of the parish. At 10 o'clock the solemn requiem funeral mass was celebrated by Rev. Michael Welsh of Lynn, assisted by Rev. James O'Rourke of Lynn, deacon, and Rev. Walter Roche of Maynard, sub-deacon. Seated in the sanctuary were Bishop Francis J. Spellman of Newton Center, Monsignor Richard Haberlin of Dorchester, and Monsignor Frank Glavin of Rensselaer, New York. The church was crowded with parishioners and friends of the deceased pastor and nearly 100 priests were present.

The eulogy was given by Rev. Michael Madden of Randolph. He said in part: "The Catholic priesthood has ever endeavored to carry out the desires of Christ, their King; to bring the people of all nations to His Sacred Heart. They have held out the hope of eternal salvation by counseling love of God and neighbor among all nations. For all these who are sufficient. Certainly, no man of himself. The priesthood is a ministry which angels might fear to assume, yet it is to men and not to angels that God entrusts these sublime powers,—these awful responsibilities. For well nigh 50 years Father Slattery exercised these powers and carried these responsibilities faithfully, generously and well. Twelve years assistant at Woburn, nine years pastor in Georgetown, nine in Cambridge and Boston, eighteen years here in Newton. Under his supervision new churches were built in Georgetown and Cambridge, also the beautiful, modern parochial high school here in Newton. There was mental and physical strain involved in this planning and building. Father Slattery passed through this ordeal three times. Time proved that he planned wisely and built well. How untiringly he devoted himself to his work is known to you all."

"Father Slattery was gifted with an exceptional personality. Sainthood, priestly, of brilliant intellect, yet simple and childlike, he had a charm of manner that quickly won the friendship and confidence of those who came within his sphere. He was broad and sympathetic in his judgment of men, generous and understanding in his contact with all. He went about doing good. There is no doubt that Father Slattery was an enthusiastic leader, a conscientious guardian of his flock, an exemplary priest. Besides his work as the spiritual welfare of his parishioners, he was identified with every civic movement tending to promote the physical, social and educational advancement of the people. He was proud of the parish, he loved the people, he was deeply interested in the school."

"The illness that finally carried him away began some two years ago. He regarded it as a special grace in that it gave him time to prepare for death. He was singularly fortunate in having, with him assistants who relieved him of all anxiety, who did all they could to make him comfortable. In health he was always kind and solicitous for the young priests, and his good assistants felt it a privilege to assist him in his last hours. Mourn him, he received ones, with the Ralouge of St. Paul, do not mourn him as those who have no hope. Mourn him as Christians with minds illumined with strong Catholic Faith. The Faith he taught you—resignation to the divine will and the sure hope of meeting him, a priest forever, before the throne of God."

The priests' choir sang the musical parts of the mass. The honorary pallbearers, composed of members of the St. Vincent de Paul Conference of Our Lady's Parish, included Joseph Callahan, Michael Collins, John Madden, Jeremiah Madden, William Gerrity, Charles Murphy, Martin Murphy, John Miskella, Joseph Nolan, John Tierney and Thomas Butler. The concluding prayers at the grave in Holyhood Cemetery were read by Rev. Russell Haley.

Liquor License At Lower Falls Suspended

The Newton License Commission on Tuesday voted to suspend for two weeks the license of Max Talent to dispense ale and wine at 2285 Washington street, Newton Lower Falls. Talent, who was a Roxbury resident, was granted the license December over the protests of the Lower Falls Methodist Episcopal Church. Newton police had complained that recently they observed two men in Talent's lunch room being served with ale while they were already under the influence of liquor. Talent told the commissioners that the men did not appear to be intoxicated. The License Commission on Tuesday voted to grant a package store license to J. Neal McDonald at 1377 Washington street, West Newton. This is the second license of this type to be granted at West Newton. The first has been in effect over a year—The West Newton Wine Shop at 1295 Washington street, owned by Peter Guzzi.

Newton Police Capture Three After Robbery

Max Pratt of Dorchester, a Boston taxi driver, was hired Wednesday night in Boston by three young colored men to drive them toward Newton Centre. On Intervale rd. in that section they ordered him to stop, held him up at revolver point, robbed him of $4.15, forced him out of his cab and then started to drive away. Unfortunately for the bandits the cab became stalled in a snowdrift. Pratt went to a nearby house and telephoned Newton police headquarters. Lieut. Mahoney, who was in a cruising car at Auburndale, hastened toward the robbery scene upon receiving the radio broadcast. Another cruising car with Sergeant Crowley and Patrolmen Cummings and Smith also speeded to the vicinity. Near the Lake st. terminal of the Boston Elevated Mahoney captured John Gomez, 26, of Genesee st., Boston. A few minutes after, the policemen in the other car captured James Senna, 17, of New Bedford in an electric car at the Lake st. terminal. At 1:30 a. m. yesterday morning Patrolman Sullivan of the Metropolitan police captured the third alleged bandit in a parked taxi near Lake st. He identified himself as Herbert White, 23, of Roxbury. He is on parole from the Reformatory. The trio were arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and bound over to the Grand Jury. A loaded revolver was found on Gomez and a pistol holster on Senna.

School Dept. Cafeterias Run At Cost

In conformity with the principle that cafeterias in Newton public schools must not be run to make profits, but must be self-supporting, slight increases in prices charged for certain food items went into effect last Monday. At the high school and the four junior high schools salads and hot dishes which were reduced in price from 10 cents to 5 cents last September, will be advanced to 8 cents. A bowl of soup will cost 5 cents as heretofore, but a charge of 1 cent additional will be made for crackers. Special dishes at bargain prices will be offered daily. That for Monday was fricasseed chicken and mashed potatoes for 10 cents. The prices are much lower than charged at privately conducted lunch rooms. Among the reasons given for the advances are—the restoration of the 7½% pay cut to employees and increased costs for food supplies.

Refused Liquor License, Appeals

Charles Weathers of 742 Commonwealth avenue, Newton Centre who applied for a package store license to sell liquors at 315 Centre street, Newton and who was refused the license by the Newton License Commission, has appealed to the State Alcoholic Beverage Commission. The locus where he applied for the license is that where Fred S. Moore of Chestnut Hill had a license last year. Moore was in partnership with one Sam Berkman of Roxbury and the latter tried unsuccessfully to obtain a license at the Centre street address when Moore got a transfer of his license to Washington street, Newton Corner. There are now two package stores at Newton Corner.

Another appeal is that of Santo dePuccio who recently was given a common victualler's license at 97 Elm street, West Newton. Now he wants a license to sell beer and wine after having been refused such a license by the local licensing board which thinks there are enough beer dispensaries at West Newton.

Fire On Porch At Auburndale

The fact that a taxi driver passed by the two family house at 71 Newell road, Auburndale at 2:23 Wednesday morning probably prevented a serious fire at that address. He observed a blaze on the porch of the house and after arousing the occupants of the building, called the crew of Engine 5. The blaze, which is supposed to have started in a sofa cushion on the porch was extinguished before it spread into the house.

Injured While Helping Autoist

Thomas Pillion of 53 Dunklee st., Newton Highlands, received a bad cut on his left thumb Wednesday afternoon when the door of an automobile was closed on his hand. He was taken to the Newton Hospital for treatment. Pillion was assisting Daniel Regan of Capital st., Newton, to free his car from icy ruts on Dunklee st.

Cars Collide At Chestnut Hill

Cars driven by Marguerite Shedd, 16, of 46 Central ave., Newtonville, and Irving Lazarus of Walnut park, Roxbury, collided at 3:45 Friday afternoon at Beacon and Hammond sts., Chestnut Hill. The car driven by Lazarus overturned and he received an injury to his left leg.

Preparing Newton For Disaster

Seven "white collar" workers of the ERA in Newton under the supervision of an architect are making a survey of the city in co-operation with the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross. The purpose of this survey is to obtain information which will provide plans for places of refuge in this city which could be used as dormitories and living quarters for residents of Newton or nearby places should any disaster occur in this city or its vicinity. The "Disaster Committee" of the Newton Red Cross Chapter is composed of Aldermen Charles B. Floyd, chairman; James Dempsey, Mayor's Secretary, 1st Vice Chairman; Chief Clarence Randlett, chairman of survey committee; Chief Michael Hughes, chairman of rescue committee; Dr. Egon Kattwinkle, chairman of medical aid committee; Buildings Commissioner Harry Hageman, chairman of shelter committee; Harold Young, ERA administrator, chairman of transportation committee. The 2nd Vice Chairman of the "Disaster Committee," and the chairman of the food, clothing and registration committees are yet to be appointed.

In each Metropolitan Chapter of the Red Cross a "Disaster Committee" is being organized which is making plans that can be used if and when a disaster occurs. These plans will be on file at City Hall, Fire Headquarters, Police Headquarters and Red Cross Headquarters in each city. They will include the locations of buildings and halls where refugees could be provided with sleeping quarters, cooking facilities and sanitary facilities at each of these places and telephone numbers. In addition the men making the survey are obtaining a list of all trucks in the city which could be used for transportation purposes. The plans when complete will be checked up every six months so that they will be kept up to date. Every agency in Newton which might be called on will be listed and contact with the Army Base in Boston will be available.

Committee Considering New Schools

The sub-committee of the Newton School Committee whose special function is to deal with school sites and playgrounds met last Friday night and considered the proposed program of new schools in this city. The first of two projects of the several under consideration are—the replacement of the old Franklin School at West Newton, and the replacement of the Eliot and Lincoln schools at Nonantum and Newton. These three wooden buildings are the oldest school structures in use in the city. The sub-committee includes Kirtley Mather, chairman; Harry E. Bryan and Mrs. Margaret H. Woods. It will report to the full committee at the meeting on Monday night.

Apollo Club at Newton Centre On Feb. 28th

The Apollo Club of Boston, Dr. Thompson Stone, conductor, will give a concert in the First Congregational Church of Newton, corner of Centre and Homer sts., Newton Centre, on Tuesday evening, February 26th, at 8 p. m. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Men's Club of the church.

Aldermen Hold Special Meeting

Appropriate $140,000 For Removal of Snow

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night by order of Mayor Weeks. Two matters of importance were to be acted upon at the meeting. One was the appropriation of $140,000 for the removal of snow and ice from Newton streets. This appropriation was made. Of this sum, $115,000 already has been expended since the 1st of January, most of it occasioned by the big storm of Jan. 23. In addition to this huge cost men obtaining aid from the Newton Welfare Department have been assisting by clearing snow off sidewalks and gutters.

The second matter which was to have come before the meeting was action on the amending of the city ordinances to change the make-up of the Welfare Department by having it under a director and an assistant director instead of under a director as at present. This change is to permit the appointment of James B. Reynolds of Newton Centre as director and Miss Florence FitzGerald (present director) as assistant director. Because of apparent contradictory clauses in the amendment offered, the Claims and Rules Committee recommended that action on this matter be deferred until the regular meeting of the Board next Monday night. This will give an opportunity to take the matter up with City Solicitor Bartlett, who will return from Florida the end of this week.

New Association Of City Employees Elects Officers

The newly organized Newton City Employees' Association held its first regular meeting on last Friday night at Rockman Hall, West Newton. About 60 employees attended. Michael Quinn of the Street Department, as temporary chairman, opened the meeting. Harry F. Purcell of 52 Eliot ave., West Newton, an employee of the Street Department, was elected president; Arthur Gallant of the Water Department, vice-president; George Considine of the Street Department, secretary; Francis Donnelly of the Street Department, treasurer. Aldermen Cronin and Guzzi addressed the meeting. The new association plans to hold monthly meetings and has applied for a charter which will permit it to pay sick benefits to its members.

Middlesex Court M. C. O. F. Banquet

The annual banquet and ball of Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F., in observance of the 49th anniversary of the Court, will be held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 26, at 7 o'clock in Elks' Hall, Newton. Following the banquet an interesting program of entertainment and dancing will be enjoyed. Miss Mary T. Shea, Chief Ranger of the Court, is honorary chairman of the committee arranging the affair, and Miss Marion Goode, Vice Chief Ranger, is general chairman. They are being assisted by the following Past Chief Rangers and officers of the Court—Mary E. Blake, Margaret C. Vahey, Eleanor G. Mulcahey, Kathryn C. Hannon, Thomas F. FitzGerald, Mary M. Mulligan, Kathryn L. Goode, Thomas F. Bryson, Timothy Gannon, Ann C. Terrio and Joseph Farragher.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

CAMBRIDGE LATIN WINS 35-25 IN LEAGUE TILT

Cambridge Latin took an undisputed lead in the Suburban League basketball standing by defeating Newton 35-25 at St. Mary's gym in Cambridge last Friday. After trailing hopelessly during the first half, Newton put on an inspiring rally in the third period and came within three goals of Latin at 25-19, but three rapid-fire baskets by Frank Coady kept the Cambridge lead out of danger. Captain Mike Kishkis scored 15 points for the winners and Allen Smith made 13 for Newton.

Newton started very slowly, scoring first on a pair of foul goals by Al Smith. Cambridge Latin led 8-2 at this point, mainly through the brilliant shooting of Kishkis and increased it to a 14-5 margin at the quarter. Al Smith's rush and a foul shot by Byrne accounted for the meagre Newton points. There was no let-up in the Cambridge attack in the second frame, and they led Newton 24-9 at the half. Al Smith made a one-hand toss from the end of the foul circle, and foul shots were sunk by Byrne and Savignano.

Newton rallied in Third Quarter
Newton rallied with a spirited attack in the third quarter, outscoring Latin by 12 points to 5. Three goals from the floor, two by Smith and the other by Bullet Byrne, started the scoring for Newton. Byrne tapped in the rebound from a shot by Smith, then Donovan sank a characteristic long shot, and Newton was only six points behind at 25-19. Smith tallied twice on foul shots before the quarter ended with Cambridge leading 29-21. But Cambridge held their lead without difficulty when Frank Coady made three scoring rushes under the basket in the opening moments of the last period. Al Smith sank three more foul attempts, Byrne added one floor goal with a one-hand toss, and the game ended at 35-25.

Whereas the last Cambridge game was lost on poor foul shooting, the Newton average was very good in this game, ten out of twelve attempts being made good for points. Bullet Byrne had eight points in the scoring, Al Smith thirteen, Ellis Donovan two, Ted Laffie and Ernie Savignano one each. Bill Spilman alternated with Ted Laffie and Savignano with Pete Morrison. The defensive troubles of the Newton team were diagnosed casually by Mike Kishkis, Cambridge Latin star and captain, when he told the Newton players after the game, "You had the better team. You should have used a man-to-man defense."

Watertown Defeated 40-17

Newton High won from Watertown in basketball by 40-17 at the Newtonville floor Tuesday. Watertown provided worthy opposition only in the opening quarter of the game, where Newton gained a 5-4 lead. After the next quarter Newton led 15-6, and going into the last period it was 27-6. Newton seconds won 32-23.

Al Smith led the Newton scoring in the varsity game with ten points on floor goals. Ted Laffie had nine points and Ernie Savignano eight, Byrne, six, Morrison five and Hoesy four. Don Colony made five goals from the floor for ten points in the game for second teams, while Leonard LeSourd and Charles Fisher had eight points each, all on floor goals.

STONEHAM TIES NEWTON TO ELIMINATE LOCAL SIX IN LEAGUE HOCKEY RACE

Newton was all but eliminated from the battle for leadership in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Hockey League last week, playing a 1-1 tie with Stoneham. In the other games played, Rindge Tech defeated Medford 2-2, Melrose took Belmont 2-0, and Arlington nosed out Cambridge 1-0. Although the standing of the three leaders remained unchanged, Newton lost a point in the race by playing a tie while Melrose and Arlington were winning.

Newton scored against Stoneham at 4:37 in the first period when Captain Gus Castoldi backhanded the puck past Mustone on a pass from Bill Daniels. Stoneham countered with a goal by John Buckley on a three-man combination at 7:17 in the same period. Ernie MacLeod got a fine chance on a solo rush in the last minutes of the game, but his shot ricocheted off a post, and the game ended in a tie.

NEWTON TRADE BEATS WESTON, SOMERVILLE

Since they suffered their first loss of the season at Haverhill Trade two weeks ago, Newton Trade has won games from Weston High 30-20 and Somerville Trade 55-14. The Trade seconds won their game at Somerville by 28-3. The return game with Haverhill, scheduled for yesterday, was held over until today on account of the track meet which occupied the drill shed yesterday.

Weston was trailing by a single basket at the half, but Newton Trade increased their 14-12 lead rapidly during the second half. Dick Collins led the Trade score with eight points on field goals. Against Somerville on Tuesday, playing on the Somerville Trade floor, the Newtonites ran up the high score of the year. Making the 55-14 total, John Beck led with 12, Riccio made 11, Hoyt and Collins 10 each, Tutunjan 6, Roach 4, Macinnis 3 and Roach 1.

FOUL IN RELAY WINS NEWTON DUAL MEET FOR LYNN CLASSICAL

One of the finest track meets the Newtonville drill shed has ever contained came to a nauseating finish yesterday afternoon when the Lynn Classical relay team went on to run the team race alone after Warren Wittens' Newton lead-off man had been pushed into the boards at the second bank. Since there was no single referee at the meet, Lynn escaped disqualification, won the five points for the relay, and went home credited with a 40-37 victory over the previously undefeated Newton team.

Until the relay began, the meet had been distinguished by sportsmanship of the finest kind. When the Lynn Classical ace, Johnny Hayden, fell in his heat of the 300-yard run and lay in a heap, it was Coach Don Enoch of Newton who stopped the race and made it possible for Hayden to run again, winning the event and setting a new track record. Competition had been very keen all the way, but handshaking had punctuated the end of every event.

Wittens Fouled in Relay
The meet score stood 37-35 for Newton as Warren Wittens and John Hayden got down on the mark at the start of the 4-5 seconds, then it was to decide the meet. After three false starts, they were away. Wittens had the pole, and appeared to be running shoulder to shoulder with his rival at the first corner. Hayden came off the bank with a rush, caught up with Wittens, and tried to pass on the inside. The Lynn runner seemed to be carrying Wittens along to the bank, where he suddenly pushed free, Wittens falling and rolling down the bank. When he recovered the baton, Hayden was half a lap ahead, and Wittens made no attempt to continue. The Lynn team finished the race by themselves.

Hayden Lowers 300 Mark

Until the last heat of the 300-yard run, Bob Mulher was leading the field with a clocking of 35.4 seconds, one-fifth slower than the track record of 35.3 s. made by Bud Wittens against Medford last week. John Hayden of Lynn Classical was bracketed with Duncan Whitehill in the last trial heat, and was leading at the first bank when he tumbled at a wet spot. At a suggestion from Coach Enoch of Newton, he rested and ran again later in a special heat, setting up a new record of 35.2 seconds and winning the event for Lynn Classical. Wittens had run his heat in 36.1 seconds, and got third.

Newton picked up thirteen out of eighteen possible points in the 600 and 1000-yard runs. Burleigh Fernald won a smashing 600 in 1:22, excellent time for the track, with Bob Kiley taking second from Joe Blackjohn of Classical. Jim Milton was pushed all the way by Newton's Captain Freeman in the 1000, but he won by five yards in 2:28.45. Johnson Quick was close to Freeman at the finish.

Wittens and McLean Ross
Warren Wittens and Ross McLean, a pair of great competitors, were forced to clear the high-jump bar at 5 ft. 9 1/2 in. before they shook off the diminutive Abe Brooks of Lynn. Wittens, who has been doing very little jumping this winter, proved his courage by twice clearing the height on his third and last attempt. When Wittens and McLean divided the eight points for the first-place tie, Newton led by 37-35, and the relay was to decide the meet. When Wittens was spilled at the second bank, and Hayden sprinted on without a pause, Coach Don Enoch was shown the apparent futility of the Golden Rule way of doing things.

Wittens Breaks 300 Record

In the meet in which Newton defeated Medford 55-22 last Thursday at the Newton track, Warren Wittens ran the 300-yard run in 35.3 seconds, faster than the race has ever been run before on the 97-yard banked oval of the drill shed. Wittens is a junior and is captain-elect of the outdoor track team.

Against Medford, Newton swept all places in the 600, the 1000 and the shot put. Aside from the record-breaking 300-yard run by Wittens, the most notable Newton performances were Charlie Center's time of 2m. 30.45 in the 1000, and the shotputting of Mel Swig and Charles Heard, who were good for 46 ft. 2 in. and 44 ft. 3 1/2 in. respectively.

OUR LADY'S FIVE THIRD IN LEAGUE

Our Lady high school basketball team won their fourth consecutive victory Tuesday, defeating St. Charles of Waltham, 20-17, on the Newton floor. Francis "Chicken" Morris scored eight points for Our Lady's and Russell Harney five. As a result of this game, the Newton team moved up to third place in the Catholic League standing, led only by Mission and Cathedral. The important game with Mission High, scheduled for last Friday, was postponed on account of the death of Fr. Slattery.

Newton's mile relay team was fourth best of seventeen in the B. A. A. Interscholastic games at the Boston Garden last Saturday. Running against Brookline, the Newton team won their race in 3 minutes 40.45. Warren Wittens led off against Leon Rogers and opened a gap of about six yards. Bob Kiley increased the lead to fifteen yards, and Burleigh Fernald made it twenty over Aronson and Anderson, their Brookline rivals. Al Freeman had a good lead over Robin Hartman at the finish, although he did not push himself. Brookline's time was 3m. 42.5. As a result of the relay victory, Newton scored 3 1/2 points in the meet for tenth place.

Here and There

Suzanne Davis of Waban yielded her national figure skating crown to Maribel Vinson at New Haven last week. James and Grace Madden of Newton were second in the senior pair competition. Madden was third in the men's senior skating, and Grace Madden teamed with Suzanne Davis in the second best of the four teams. All in all, Newton was well represented.

John Holden of Waban, captain of the Bowdoin College winter sports team, scored heavily in the Dartmouth College winter carnival ski meet. Holden took sixth place in the slalom, seventh in the one-mile downhill, sixth in the jumping, and sixth in the combine jumping and cross-country. H. Adams Carter of Newtonville and Harvard placed eleventh in the slalom.

When the dog show arrives in Boston, Edwin Dresser of Waban will be showing his Champion Red Rocket Comet and Irish Setter which has scored high in a number of major exhibitions. Mr. Dresser is president of the Irish Setter Club of New England and one of the leading authorities on the breed in this country.

Speeding Car Hits Car Containing Two Policemen

Ralph H. Henrikus of 105 Washington Park, Newtonville, has been summoned to appear in the Newton court on Feb. 18th to answer charges of speeding and driving to endanger. Sunday morning about 1. Patrolmen Foley and Maloney were riding along Washington st. near Crafts st. when a car passed them at a high rate of speed. The car in which the patrolmen were riding, driven by Joseph Cuniff of 221 Grove st., Auburndale, gave chase. At Newtonville square the pursued car collided with another automobile driven by Patrolman John Bibbo and having as passengers Lt. William Mahoney, his 14-year-old son, and Patrolman Greeley. According to the report made by the police, all the occupants of Bibbo's car received injuries. Joseph Burke of Whitlow rd., West Newton, who was riding with Henrikus, received cuts on his face.

Bowling

Team No. 2 in the House Bowling Tournament made an unusual record on Tuesday evening, getting a total of 1647 pins. Clarence V. Moore's total was 292, Lawrence Smith, 338; Frank Grant, 369; A. F. Tucker, 359, and Walter Cooper, 289.

Chess and Checker Club

Under the direction of the Young Men's Committee, headed by Francis A. Paquin, a group of men formed a Chess and Checker Club at the Newton "Y" on Tuesday evening. Some of the group are experienced players while others are just beginning. Arthur H. Clarke was chosen as leader of the group. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Feb. 20, and any men interested in chess or checkers are invited to attend.

Squash Racquets

The Class D Squash Racquets team at the Newton Y. M. C. A. defeated M. I. T. Freshmen, 5 to 0, and finished in first place in its division in the Massachusetts Squash Racquets League.

Senior Basketball

The Newton Y. M. C. A. Senior Basketball team defeated the Roxbury Boys' Club, 61 to 55, in a fast and close game at the Newton "Y" gym Tuesday evening. "Nate" Dolbier, Gordon Bass, "Andy" Kasper and Ray Clarke were responsible for the bulk of the home team's scoring, while McManus and Cotter took care of the visitors scoring. The line-ups were: for Newton Y. M. C. A.—Bass, Dolbier, and Marino, forwards; Kasper, center; and Colantuono, Clarke, Joyce and Kohler, guards. For the Boys' Club: Cotter, Riechman, and Curley were the forwards; Connelly, center, and McManus and Stoddard played at the guard positions. Jack Barwise refereed the game.

Senior Class Basketball League

Five teams have started play in the basketball league organized for Senior Class members at the Newton Y. M. C. A. The winning team in this league will participate in a tournament at Worcester "Y" on March 16 and 23, along with the winning teams from Senior Class leagues in other "Y's" throughout the state. The teams are: Trojans — W. Allen, Capt.; U. Marino, J. Dacey, David Jennings, Iver Kohler, T. Higgins, William Brown. Mules — Don Wilson, Capt.; Andrew Kasper, John McCarthy, D. Burns, Joseph Morgan, Robert Cummings. Jackaways — Harold Ham, Capt.; Robert Gibson, Allen Stone, John Joyce, Wm. Evans, William Conway. Jewels — Elmer Colligan, Capt.; J. McDonnell, R. Wellman, Joe Herlihy, A. Lochiatti, Addison Raines, J. Mann. Celtics — N. Colantuono, Capt.; John Trumble, Don Skauen, Clayton Hoyt, W. MacDonald, J. Burke, Ivan Hoyt.

Track

Newton Y. M. C. A. Track Team lost 35 to 35 in a dual meet held Saturday afternoon with Boston "Y" at Newton. Arthur Linthwaite was high scorer for Newton, winning the 300-yd. run and taking seconds in the 600 and the high jump. Warren Lewis was the only double winner with first in the 600 and 1000. J. Mann scored twice for Newton, winning the three standing broad jumps and taking third in the high jump. Harold Ham took second in the shot put. Other Newton point scorers were Morris, third in the dash, and R. Collett, third in the 1000.

This Saturday evening Newton "Y" track team will meet Pawtucket "Y" in a meet here.

Athletic Contest

With seven of the ten events completed in the 1000 Point Athletic Contest being held in the Senior Gymnasium Class at the Newton Y. M. C. A., the standing shows Art Linthwaite in first place with 472 points, Johnny Morris in second place with 458, and Clayton Hoyt in third with 441.

The remainder of the first ten places are: Kenneth Scanlon, 392; Ivan Hoyt, 389; A. Lochiatti, 381; Nick Colantuono, 343; J. Burke, 334; Earl Wulff, 331, and Tom O'Connor, 326.

Holiday Week At The Newton Paramount Theatre

Paramount patrons are promised a great program the first half of the week when three of the screen's greatest stars will be assembled in the cast of "Forsaking All Others." They are Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, and Robert Montgomery.

Based on the successful play by Frank Cavett and Edward Roberts, which presents the eternal triangle from a fresh and highly diverting viewpoint, the new picture was directed by W. S. Van Dyke, whose long string of successes culminated with the recent "Thin Man" and "Evelyn Prentice."

On the same program will be the new foreign star Mady Christensen in "Wicked Woman." For the last half of the week, with a continuous program on Washington's Birthday, will be our local star Bette Davis and Paul Muni in "Bordertown." This picture originally carried another title but through the efforts of Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of Newton and the manager of the Paramount Theatre it was changed to the present title "Bordertown," a real story of adventure of the men who work under the earth in the coal mine regions. It has romance, pathos and a really wonderful story. It is said that Bette Davis has done a wonderful piece of dramatic work in this picture. Paul Muni also does a great job playing opposite Miss Davis.

On the same program will be Irene Dunn and Donald Woods in "Sweet Adeline." Bob Mills will have his regular Saturday Matinee Kiddie Revue which is becoming quite popular among the children as well as with the parents of these little performers.

NOTED DIVER TO SPEAK AT ST. JOHN'S MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club of St. John's Episcopal Church in Newtonville will hear Fred J. Wallace at the next meeting, February 21.

Mr. Wallace is New England's most famous "Deep Sea Diver." He has many interesting experiences which he will describe for the entertainment of the club and its guests.

The evening will start with the usual dinner at 6:30. Families of the club members are invited to come at 8 p. m., to hear Mr. Wallace.

Another Series of Literary Lectures By Rev. Hitchen

Again the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church in West Newton is offering a course of four literary lectures by Rev. Herbert Hitchen in the Parish House on alternate Tuesday afternoons beginning February 26th. As last year the hour will be thirty minutes followed by tea at four-thirty. Mr. Hitchen's reputation as lecturer on literature has become firmly established even in the few years he has been with us and only those who have not heard him are unaware of what they are missing. The subjects this year are Feb. 26, "A Nest of Singing Birds"; March 12th, "The Novels of James Hilton"; March 26th, "In Defence of G. B. S."; April 9th, "Two American Troubadours". For further details call the Parish House, "West Newton, 3203."

Mrs. John F. Malley, 188 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. Joseph H. Shortell, 34 Cotton st., Newton, are among the Newton ladies sponsoring the luncheon bridge to be held at the Commonwealth Country Club, Chestnut Hill, on Monday, Feb. 18th.

Guzzi Banquet On February 20

The testimonial banquet to be tendered Alderman Alfred R. Guzzi will be held on Wednesday evening, February 20 at 6:30 at the Newton Catholic Club, West Newton. The banquet is in honor of his election to the Newton Board of Aldermen. Several hundred persons are expected to attend and the invited guests include Mayor Weeks, Ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Leverett Saltonstall, Thomas W. White, Walter R. Amesbury, Senator Arthur W. Hollis and other prominent men. Frank V. Volpe, assistant district attorney of Middlesex County will be toastmaster. The general committee in charge of the banquet includes Bernard Farrell, Jr., chairman; Louis Gregorio, John Finelli, George McNamee, Richard Murphy, James Dangelo, Edward Dalton and John Walker.

Alderman Guzzi is the first person of Italian extraction to become a member of the Board of Aldermen; he is the youngest member of the Board. He has attended meetings of the Board of Aldermen for many years, has taken an active interest in civic affairs and has been responsible for many improvements made in West Newton.

Sailing Direct From Lower Falls to South Sea Islands

Sailing direct from St. Mary's Parish House promptly at 8:15 on Friday and Saturday evenings, the Second Annual Musical Extravaganza presented by the Brotherhood of St. Mary's Parish will take happy passengers to the South Sea Isles in a single evening. The ship, whose actual name is shrouded in mystery, will be in command of that old Sea Dog, Captain Broadside, played by Harold F. Leslie. Serving under him are a crew of twenty-six well drilled mariners and marinettes.

Unique also is this extravaganza in the absence of individuals as leading men and women, but honors are shared by Harold Trefrey, LeRoy Greason, Billy Hollis and Ernest Henley, while the following well-known young ladies are featured on the distaff side: Betty Schofield, Winna Wright, Happy Akeroyd and Georgiana Reader.

The sparkling success which attended the first extravaganza staged by St. Mary's Brotherhood in 1934 was index of the high standard set for these productions from the outset. Since the show is again being produced under the direction of Harold B. Buse, and since extensive additions and elaborations have been added to the stage, the public has every right to look forward to a smash hit that will constitute one of the biggest entertainment values of the local season.

Newton Girl Scouts Hold Camp Reunion

Seventy-five of last year's campers at Camp Mary Day, the Newton Girl Scout Camp at Natick, attended the mid-winter Camp Reunion which was held at St. John's Parish House, Newtonville, on February 8th. The campers gathered at 4 o'clock to play games and to join in a handcraft contest. Each girl was given some toothpicks, marshmallows and gumdrops with which to construct some humorous figure. The judges of the contest were Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Commissioner of the Newton Girl Scouts, Miss Louise Lovett and Mrs. Craig Pattengill, members of the Camp Committee. Mrs. Pattengill, as chairman of the Camp Committee, presented a Girl Scout Diary to Helen Oldfield, the winner of the contest.

Campers then had an opportunity to express themselves and to make suggestions about the camp program. They told Miss Freeman, the camp director, that their favorite activities were swimming and hikes. The Gypsy trip, which a few girls took from camp to Bridgton, Maine, was also very popular. The girls asked for archery and folk dancing and overnight trips for next season.

After supper, the girls played games and sang camp songs. Miss Freeman showed the camp movies for 1934, and the campers were very enthusiastic about their swimming, diving, dramatics and other activities as recorded by the moving picture camera.

The reunion closed with a Good-night circle and many eager "I'll see you at camp" farewell greetings.

Newtonville Mothers Discuss "Scouting And the Schools"

"Scouting and the Schools" was the subject of the meeting of the Mothers' Auxiliary of Group Six, Newtonville, Boy Scouts of America, at the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville, Tuesday, Feb. 12. The speakers were Russell Burkhart, Principal of the F. A. Day Junior High School, and Elmer Ellsworth, Principal of the West Newton Grammar School and Cub Commissioner in Norumbega Council. Mr. Burkhart and Mr. Ellsworth both expressed their approval as schoolmasters of the Scout and Cub program and complimented Group Six on having such an enthusiastic mothers' organization. The Scouting Program, they said, fits in with the school program perfectly, and aids, rather than interfering with, the successful school career. The final responsibility for the cooperative development of the school and Scout program, they said, depends on the home.

At the business meeting which preceded the speakers and was presided over by Mrs. Edgar Burkhart, resigning president of the auxiliary, and wife of the Chairman of the Group Committee, Mrs. Edward Saunier of Newton was elected President for the coming year. Mrs. C. E. Allen of Berkshire rd., Newtonville, was elected Secretary and Mrs. H. C. Thomas of Albemarle rd., Newtonville, was elected Treasurer. The Nominating Committee was composed of Mrs. Frederic B. Eastman and Mrs. L. E. Huston.

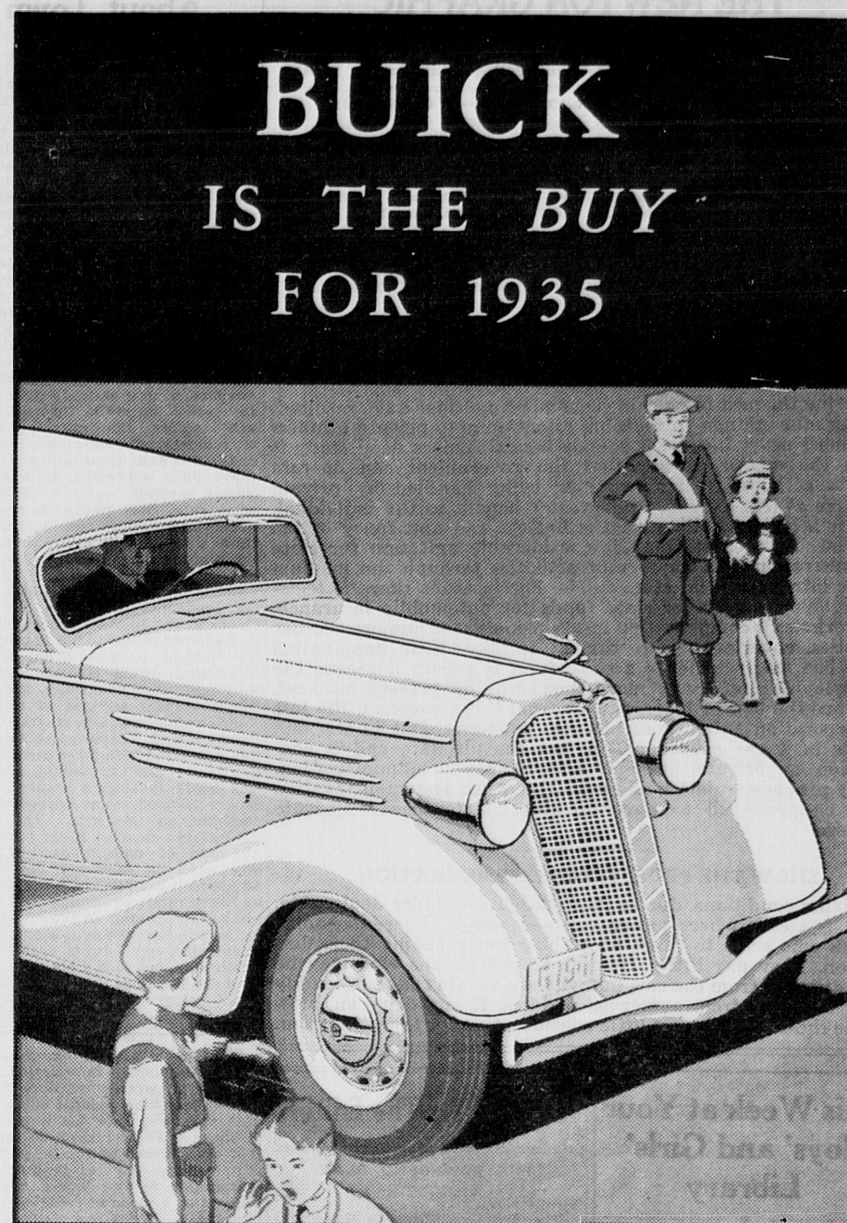

Meeting the second Tuesday in each month from now on until the end of the school year, the Mothers' Auxiliary plans an interesting program, including such events as a round table discussion of individual boy problems led by a well known speaker on boys; a First Aid Course for mothers, and many other features.

Newtonville Townsend Club

The Newtonville Townsend Club has voted to make its first and third weekly meetings each month public meetings; the second and fourth weekly meetings for members only. Interested citizens are invited to the public meetings. At the February 1st meeting the speaker was David C. Reid of Quincy whose subject was "The Three Gates." He explained by aid of a chart different pursuits of humanity including production, capital, consumption and enjoyment. He told how modern machinery has thrown millions of persons out of employment and detailed how the Townsend Plan will afford employment for the younger people, relieve the distress of the older citizens and restore prosperity. The meetings of the club are held every Friday at 8 p. m. at Room 5, 283 Walnut street, Newtonville.

GOVERNMENTAL INTERFERENCE

During the past few years economic conditions have resulted, among other things, in focusing attention upon private business as almost never before. It sounds logical, unless deep study is given the matter, to say that the government can operate certain activities which are now being handled by private business at less expense and greater benefit to the individual. This is largely a fallacy that is but the fad and fancy of the moment. At present there is considerable agitation for state administration of a number of activities through the medium of the introduction of state funds. For instance there is legislation being sought for state funds for automobile insurance, for workmen's compensation insurance, and for numerous other activities, covering a wide range. It takes little imagination to realize that whenever a state fund is set up it means the unemployment of many more thousands by private business. It means the loss of income taxes from these workers, the loss of corporation taxes from business concerns, and in the end results in worse conditions. In fact the ultimate end is confiscation of private business and socialistic administration. Surely proper regulation of profits and a just system of taxation is to be preferred to governmental interference in private business.

SHOW THE PEDESTRIAN CONSIDERATION

Driving conditions, due to the weather, are quite deplorable. Yet it is a case where patience is necessary. There are some drivers who seem to think of nothing but reaching their destination. They pay little attention to pedestrians who may be some distance from the car, but who are within range of muddy water splashed from numerous puddles. If you drive an automobile these days show a little consideration for the pedestrian.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

We believe that if persons who fall and receive injuries on sidewalks in Newton take damage claims against the city into courts, they will have a strong argument because of the failure of the Newton police department to enforce the law requiring tar, cement and other types of improved sidewalks to be cleared of snow. It is now three weeks since the big storm covered the sidewalks. Since then pedestrians have been forced to walk on icy streets facing the danger of being hit by automobiles. And anyone who drives a motor vehicle knows how uncertain is control when streets are covered with ice or hard packed snow, or when ice hummocks and ruts cause automobiles to swerve repeatedly. Announcement was made a couple of days after the storm that the police would enforce the ordinance relative to removal of snow off sidewalks. But at this date, three weeks after the storm, many sidewalks, even on main streets, have not been cleared. Neither have ruts been removed at many street intersections, as motorists well know who have had broken springs and other damages to their cars.

Relative to the survey which is being conducted to prepare a list of places where Newton residents might find shelter in case of a catastrophe, the thought occurs—"What sort of catastrophe could possibly occur in Newton?" A conflagration might occur in certain sections of this city where residences are of frame construction and located close together. But, compared with most communities in Greater Boston, Newton is much less liable to such a menace. The danger of flood seems beyond remote possibility in Newton. The water shed of the Charles River is so limited and of such topography, that even if all the snow now covering it should melt rapidly, and be augmented by heavy rains, no serious flood would result in Newton. While it has not happened since the settlement of this community, some day a cyclone may hit Newton, but such a big wind might level the buildings containing the proposed refugees for catastrophe victims. And the same thing might happen if an earthquake devastated Newton, or some huge meteorite landed here. Compared with cities located in other regions Newton seems fortunately free from catastrophe probabilities, but one can't tell what may happen.

You and nearly every owner of an automobile must pay heavy compulsory liability insurance each year to pay for the deaths and injuries resulting from automobile accidents. Also for the fake injuries which constitute a large percentage of claims. Some "wise" Ales avoid paying this type of insurance by operating cars which are registered in States other than Massachusetts. If any such violator of the law resides in your neighborhood, don't feel any qualms of conscience against reporting him or her to the police or Registry of Motor Vehicles. Any victim of an uninsured car has no redress in practically any case, as almost without exception those who evade the compulsory insurance law possess little or no property. You or some relative of yours may be one of their victims some day.

About a week after the snowstorm of January 23rd, the writer was operating his car along Wolcott street, Auburndale, near Rowe street. The roadway had been plowed just wide enough for one car on either side were high banks of snow. In the middle of the cleared road was a small, black mongrel chewing a big bone. Near him was another dog. We sounded the horn on our car but the black dog paid no heed to it. We brought the car almost to a dead stop and edged it up until it reached the hungry mongrel. But, he would not leave that bone. Slowly we crawled the car over him as he crouched on the street and as we looked back through the rear window of the car he was still gnawing the bone as the other dog looked on.

Newton's streets, in large part, have nothing to brag about since the big snowstorm, but the ashes, garbage and rubbish have been regularly collected. This is a better record than Boston made in its suburban and even downtown residential sections. It is one reason why Newton should not become part of a Greater Boston.

As a mariner "Captain" Seth Parker seems to be a good radio broadcaster. What a realistic setting it would have been if "Seth" could have broadcast one of his "have faith" programs about the time he was sending out those "S O S" calls.

A prominent Newton Centre resident sent us the following item relative to the failure of many Newton residents to clear the snow off sidewalks in front of their homes—"According to a Dutch proverb, 'When every one sweeps before his own house, the streets are clean.'"

Reckless autoists who drive at high speed on icy and rutted streets make one wish that the whipping post survived as a method of punishment, and could and would be used on such drivers who have no regard for the safety of others.

Inasmuch as times are very prosperous and this country isn't faced with any extraordinary expenses such as supporting millions of unemployed and their dependents, the Federal government should appropriate another $5,000,000 or so to build an airship to replace the destroyed MACON. The fact that several of these huge toys of the elements have been destroyed with heavy resultant loss of life shouldn't discourage the navy department and Congress from spending more millions in further folly. Just think how spectacular the big airships are.

It is singularly unfortunate that in a large percentage of cases when Newton policemen are in automobiles which are in collision with other motor vehicles, they receive injuries.

That was a queer order issued for a week's open season to kill the 300 or so deer which were on Little Nantucket Island. These gentle animals have little chance for their lives from "hunters" even in autumn seasons in such a limited area as Nantucket, where no forests exist. With deep snow on the ground they had no chance to escape slaughter from either the Nimrods of Nantucket, or the intrepid "sportsmen" who hastened to Nantucket from the mainland to make their kills. Probably the daring hunters who were disappointed when the deer slaughter was stopped, may get the thrill they anticipated by going to some abattoir and shooting a calf.

The carnival at Flemington, N. J., is over. The intense interest it caused throughout this, the self-proclaimed, most intelligent nation on earth has subsided. And we send missionaries to Asia to civilize the heathen.

Might we suggest as activities (or projects) to give employment in Newton to ERA workers a survey of sidewalks which are supposed to be cleared of snow, and which are not so cleared. Also a survey to ascertain the ownership of automobiles which are garaged night after night on public streets, many of these without proper parking lights.

Governor Curley has announced his determination to purge Boston from earth his influences. He will restore the city to the same high, moral plane it enjoyed while he was its Mayor.

Did you drive your automobile last night? Did it skid on the greasy-like surfaces of the melting ice of the streets? Did the wheels on your car just whirl around until you placed chains on them or under them, if you were fortunate enough to have chains in the car? If you had any or all of these trials, we can sympathize with you.

Great Idea If—

This has been a wonderful winter for snowballing. With an inexhaustible supply available, the youngsters have taken advantage of every opportunity. They must have developed a proficiency well nigh approaching perfection. Their accuracy is remarkable. All this being true, I am troubled for fear they haven't enough legitimate targets.

Unfortunately, some of my best ideas are not always practicable. In this instance the plan I have in mind would work splendidly if it were not illegal. Therefore, I cannot suggest anything forbidden by law. If that were not the case there are two groups of people I would like to see pelted with snowballs. The first is the driver of the automobile who stops just before turning into Boston & Albany depot grounds (and this goes for cars, equally eager to deposit passengers. Usually it is a wife conveying her husband to the morning train for Boston. They pause for a discussion of household matters while a line of cars, equally eager to deposit passengers for the same train, is held up. The other people I want to see properly snowballed and cannot because I do not countenance lawlessness, are those who park at the head of a driveway leading to the rear of some building in the square. They tie up traffic and make more trouble by their indifference than can be undone in a week. A few snowballs in the neck would break up both these practices.

Making Life Easier

If there is anything that has increased my disinclination to unnecessary exertion it is the synopses contained inside the back cover of Public Library fiction. Originally the jackets of such books were used to set forth unstinted words of praise. These blurbs were plainly designed to cause the book-lover to part with his last farthing for some tempting volume. Personally, I never wrestled with the problem because I knew that if I even read the alluring advertising, including comments of the most illustrious of our intelligentsia, I would soon be in debt to a bookseller. Now I may read what a book contains before I borrow it and the lending is made without cost. Think of it—your book predigests for you and handed over for a week's reading free of charge. Life is getting too easy for some of us.

Why Folks Leave Home

Nothing stirs us like the urge to travel. From a friend in Los Angeles this week there came a letter which said, "It does seem a pity that you in New England cannot share with us some of the abundant California sunshine that simply floods our world with warmth and color. The clouds have lifted and what a coat of snow on the higher peaks and even down the lower reaches of the range! The sun has been so hot that the icy blasts from these snowy mountains have been tempered and the whole outdoors invites one to 'lizard.' The wild spring grass is as high as grain might grow in some places and covers every vacant space of the lowlands and hillsides. Nearby are orange groves laden with fruit. Down in the valley the strawberries are ripening and vegetables growing."

No More To Be Said

They tell me that the snowbound paths, driveways and public thoroughfares have hit more or less severely the people who dine out. These folks have been obliged to eat at home for the reason that the family car is sheltered in a garage banked about by drifts, or possibly the driving conditions appeared too risky.

On the question of dining-out I have heard some of my best friends declare that it was not only more convenient and pleasant but less expensive when

Have you four-buckle overshoes or high rubber boots? Did you wear them this morning? Did your feet slip out from under you last night or this morning, causing you to come in sudden and perhaps painful contact with an icy sidewalk or slushy street? A pair of old-fashioned creepers or your shoes would have been a big help. Winter has its drawbacks and fall-downs, but New England is a good place in which to dwell after all. We don't have many serious floods here, and none in most places in New England. We don't have cyclones, earthquakes or devastating droughts. There are no active volcanoes in New England. And there is only one more month of winter to come.

Americans who, before 1929, resided in Europe for any length of time observed how the people there gathered tiny limbs, twigs, every little scrap of wood which could be used for fuel. They piled the poverty of those who had such a struggle with life; they congratulated themselves that back home in the U. S. A. fuel was in abundance, poverty did not prevail. How times have changed! Now, even in Newton, we observe men and boys not only collecting flimsy boxes from stores to carry home for fuel, but also taking every paper and cardboard carton and box in sight from alleys back of stores. These sorry apologies for fuel show to what straits some of our fellow citizens have been reduced.

"The Place for My Savings"

you figure the cost of food, fuel, time, etc. As they have thus argued I have found nothing to say except, "Well, it isn't a New England custom." But now I find my challenge isn't clinching or more than partly accurate. New Englanders are more and more "eating out." In fact, they are likely to give a dinner party at some nice cozy eating place and thus display hospitality without the fuss of cooking or the nuisance of washing dishes.

Possibly I am too Victorian. No doubt I am open to rebuke. As far as that goes I have already received something of a setback. On a recent occasion I expressed my opinion of housewives who compelled their husbands to dine in a tea-room, restaurant or cafe and was quickly reminded that a crusty old bachelor who didn't approve had better learn, not only to cook but also to mind his own business.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Soul" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 17.

The Golden Text is: "Set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God" (I Chronicles 22:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust. . . Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore" (Psalms 16:1, 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind, and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul. Higher enjoyments alone can satisfy the cravings of immortal man. We cannot circumscribe happiness within the limits of personal sense. The senses confer no real enjoyment. The good in human affections must have ascendancy over the evil and the spiritual over the animal, or happiness will never be won" (p. 60).

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

Vernon St., Newton Corner

THE YOUNG ADULT AND HIS BOOKS

The books listed below are only representative of what the Boys' and Girls' library has to offer older boys' and girls':

Captain Caution — Roberts
An exciting story of the struggle between England and America on the sea during the War of 1812, of a self-willed heroine and an Arundel boy who ill deserved the nickname "Captain Caution."

Last Pirate — Untermeyer
The interest stimulated by the fine productions of the D'Oyly Carte Opera Company may well lead young people to read Mr. Untermeyer's fine retelling of the inimitable Gilbert and Sullivan operas.

Courage in her pocket — Longley
A pleasant story of a girl brought up on a Texas ranch who finds in New York, romance and success upon the stage.

Story of Mt. Everest — Noel
This expedition up the almost unconquerable slopes of Mt. Everest ends in tragedy.

Jeb Stuart — Thomason
A vividly written biography of one of the most colorful figures of the Civil War, a remarkably adroit cavalry leader of the Confederacy.

Men, fish and boats — Stanford
Exceptional photographs give the pictorial story of the North Atlantic fishermen.

Mary Peters — Chase
A remarkable story of sea-going folk from Maine, suggested to young people today, for the qualities these characters display in the face of danger, hardship and sacrifice.

A Backward Glance — Wharton
An outstanding American novelist recreates for us her life in a section of American society which has for the most part disappeared from the scene.

Shipmates — Carter
A tale of the seafaring women of New England.

Alan Breck again — Smith
Alan Breck Stewart, famous Jacobite agent, remembered as an important character in "Kidnapped" and "David Balfour," takes the stage again in another thrilling adventure.

Yonder Sails the Mayflower — Morrow
A tale that gives a different picture of the Pilgrims and sheds a new light on their character.

Little Era in Old Russia — Skariatina
Memories of a happy childhood re-told in a vital manner that will keep alive those colorful days in Czarist Russia.

West Newton

—Mrs. William C. Safford of 343 Otis st. is spending a season in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Letters To The Editor

THE TOWNSEND PLAN

To the Editor:

The Townsend Plan in these anxious days is to many worried people like the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. That they may not set out on a vain search I would like to point out the reasons which seem to me to show conclusively the folly of the Plan.

I have not only had the pleasure of hearing it presented by Dr. Samuel Dick, a most persuasive advocate—but of reading his considered presentation in his booklet, "2000 Per Month in Action." In summarizing the Plan I shall merely refer to the pages of that booklet.

The Plan rests upon three pillars: 1. The co-operation of 8,000,000 persons of over 60 years of age, about half of whom are now employed but who will give up their jobs. p. 16. 2. All of these 8,000,000 persons will receive $200 each per month which must be spent within the month, thus being returned in toto to the Treasury from which it was received. p. 16-17. Each $200 will produce a job for some younger person, making 8,000,000 jobs in all. The 4,000,000 jobs resigned by elderly persons added thereto will produce enough jobs to provide for all the unemployed. p. 17. 3. The Revolving Fund will be provided after the first month by a 10% tax upon wholesalers. The additional business produced by the $1,600,000,000 will so reduce the overhead that this tax can be absorbed by them without being passed on to consumers. p. 22.

In the discussion following the address the suggestion was made to Dr. Dick that elderly persons who gave up jobs might, if the Plan should fail, find it difficult to recover them. His reply was that he should not advise any one possessed of a job to give it up until the Plan was proved a success.

But see how that destroys the whole fabric. The 4,000,000 jobs to be released by elderly persons go aglimmering. The $800,000,000 to be distributed by them also disappears. The 4,000,000 jobs to be created by their share of the Revolving Fund likewise vanishes.

The continual circulation of the Revolving Fund without diminution is essential. But this Fund is to be employed in giving jobs to younger people and in paying them. What is to prevent these employees from putting their savings into the bank or using them for travel abroad, either of which would in so far, diminish the Fund?

Finally with the diminution of the Fund to one-third the fivefold increase of wholesale business disappears and with it the possibility that the Fund would be provided by wholesalers without being passed on to consumers.

In short the whole success of the Plan depends on the willingness of 4,000,000 persons to exchange a certainty for a chance.

Those who believe that this plan is only a delusion are urged to write to their Congressmen, especially to their representatives, urging them to vote against the measure, thus counteracting in some degree the flood of letters from deluded believers in the scheme.

DR. M. A. WILLCOX,
63 Oakwood Road.

CRITICIZES INVESTIGATORS

To the Editor:

There are going about Newton at present men attempting to gather from householders information to be used in preparation of a New Deal sucker list to be peddled out to business men who may use it to obtain business. When I read of the fact that the canvass was to be made we, at our home, decided to furnish no information for we looked upon the attempt as a piece of meddlesome impertinence. Today one of the investigators, or snoopers, called at the house in our absence and by representations made it appeared that he had a right to enter and to ask questions which of course he had not. The mischief done, I seem to have no remedy, but I write this to inform others who may feel as I do about having others nosing into private affairs. It is bad enough to have the New Deal use us as so many guinea pigs on which to try experiments but, as Josh Billings said, "it is too much" to have them make gold fish of us and have their noses pressed against the glass of the bowl to watch us as we live our lives.

One good thing may result from this added impertinence, if persisted in enough it may tire the people of the whole New Deal hocus pocus and lead them to sweep the whole pestiferous bunch into oblivion, including what the Negro comedian calls "the head man."

REGISTRAR GOODWIN

To the Editor.

In answer to the comments made by Edward H. Powers in the column "About Town" (under date of Feb. 8) concerning the vote cast by Frank A. Brooks of Watertown, member of the Governor's Council from the 3rd Council District, which embraces Newton, along with other parts of suburban Boston, I would like to reply.

The writer believes that Mr. Powers has overlooked, in his effort to present the facts, one point of view which many people who were persuaded that Mr. Brooks represented the best interests of Newton and its surroundings still hold.

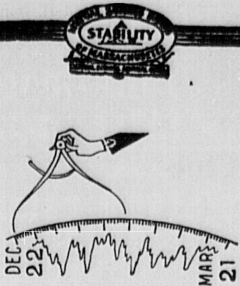

Mr. Goodwin, in his desire to become a political figure, has without question, in my opinion, befogged many issues by becoming party to such controversies and political alignments that the average person is left bewildered and confused as to what premises and foundation his logic—and consequently his actions—is attached.

While certainly friendship is a quality much to be admired, Mr. Powers, in his eagerness to comment on Mr. Ely's activities in the Parole Board and Mr. Brooks' position (which may or may not have been an unenviable one), forgets that merely because Mr. Goodwin supported Mr. Brooks, it is rather retching a point to defend Mr. Brooks' present action where it affects many thinking people and is in direct opposition to the expressed wishes and desires of a large majority of the people whom he represents, by urging the cause of friendship.

Even the best of friends admit that the duties imposed by an elective office come before the ties of comradeship.

As to Mr. Powers' second statement concerning Mr. Goodwin's ally as a Registrar, certainly Mr. Goodwin's past record with its marked quality of evasiveness and his many and varied political acts and the subsequent innuendoes, leaves one doubting his ability to fulfill the requirements of an office which probably, more than any other in the Commonwealth, is subject to political pressure, as has been evidenced by the recent forces which were put to work by His Excellency.

Very truly yours,
HAROLD D. CARVER.

—The Wellesley Concert of the Highland Glee Club is to be given March 1st, 1935, by the Woman's Union, at Wellesley Congregational Church, Wellesley, Mass.

This organization, of many years standing, needs no especial introduction to Newton, but as this is its first Wellesley concert it might be in order to make a few remarks about its members and its accomplishments.

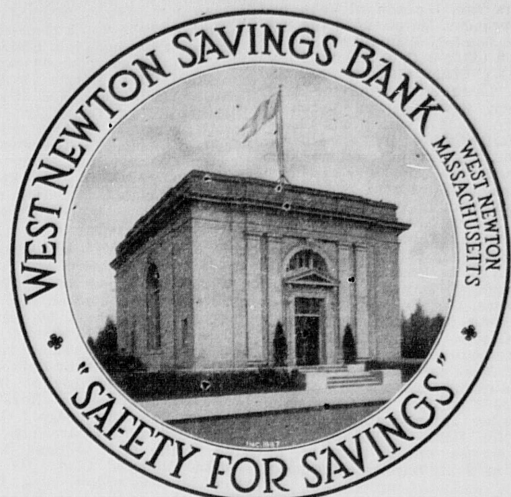

Comprised entirely of voluntary singers, including many highly trained voices, almost all of the members otherwise carrying on in the business world, a singing society has been built up, unequalled in this part of the country. The club was given first prize awarded by the Federated Glee Clubs of New England, in a contest at Hartford, Conn., in May, last.

This club has always been most co-operative in its contribution of service for worthy causes, and each Christmas morning has gone forth, singing carols for hospitals and shut-ins, thus sowing a seed of joy for those not quite so fortunate. This is the spirit that motivates the entire personnel of the club.

The Highland Glee Club gives two concerts each year in their own interest, assisted by talented soloists, and in the past such artists as John Charles Thomas, Royal Dudson, Richard Crooks, Albert Stoessel, Jean Bedetti and many others have been presented by them.

Rotary Club

In speaking on Lincoln to the Rotarians on Monday, the Rev. Dr. William L. Stidger called attention to a time on the old methods and the new methods of fire fighting, warning of conditions which arise in the placing of rubbish in cellars and in apartment building stairways, etc. "The best way to stop fires is to prevent them by careful construction of buildings, especially the one-story type of stores and buildings."

Chief Randlett of the Newton Fire Department was the guest of honor.

The fourteenth annual Young People's Conference of the Norumbega District which took place last Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8-9 at Second Church, West Newton, has set a new high both in numbers and in purpose. After some years of casual interest, the young people's council caught the spirit of adventure and went out to make this conference the best ever held. The total registration was 232, a real evidence of their thorough planning.

The conference theme was, "Christian Youth Building a New World." It was in line with the rapidly growing program so bravely undertaken last year by some young people and their leaders. Beginning in Pennsylvania and then being taken up by the Youth Council of North America this ideal has captured the imagination of thousands of young people with the result that it is rapidly becoming a great crusade. Without any lack of understanding of how great the task is, youth has dared to take Christianity seriously and put its principles into daily living. What the result will be no man can tell. Not for a generation has there been such enthusiastic co-operation among youth.

The conference speaker was Ed. W. C. T. U.

Evening Entertainment Of Interest

The Community Service committee of the Newton Community Club is sponsoring an Entertainment to be given on February 27th, at 8 p. m., in the ballroom of Mrs. Frank P. Scofield's home, at 11 Washington street, Newton.

First on the program will be Italian music by the Twentieth Century Ensemble. Following this will be a reading of the play "Storm Swept," which was written by Mrs. Elizabeth Lawton, of Gramere street, Newton. Mrs. Lorraine Foster Holmes will be the reader. A concert by the Ensemble, which is composed of Mrs. Gladys Troupin of Brookline, Leader and Pianist; Anita Malkin, Violinist; Dorothy Lutz, Cellist; and vocal solos by Esther Oettinger, soprano, will end what promises to be a very entertaining evening.

The proceeds of this affair will go toward the committee's work for war veterans. Tickets are fifty cents and may be procured from the following members of the Community committee: Mrs. David Black, chairman (New No. 0187); Mrs. Frank Deane, Mrs. Louis J. Hunter, Mrs. Kenneth B. Backman, Mrs. Lillian Davis, Mrs. Corabella Francis, Mrs. Paul Doehler, Mrs. Franklin P. Lowry, Mrs. E. J. McKenna, Mrs. George W. Wyman, Mrs. Harold C. Daniels, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Helen Handy, and Miss Rose Coyle.

The families and friends of Club members are also welcome.

Further particulars will be printed later, but notice of this interesting event is called to attention so that the date may be saved and tickets secured.

Mystery Play By Club Talent

A Mystery Play, "The Old Ordway House," will be presented on Tuesday afternoon, February 19th, before the Auburndale Woman's Club. The play, which will be given at the close of the business hour, will be put on under the direction of the Drama committee, with Mrs. Edward B. Gray, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bernard C. Maloney, Mrs. Joseph L. Badger, Mrs. Alfred E. Becker, Mrs. Thomas J. Brown, Mrs. Herman Krueger, Mrs. Rufus H. Lovering, and Mrs. Winthrop A. Stiles.

The cast is made up of Club members, and the play is full of choice humor.

Flower Show at Auburndale

Six classes for entries in the Winter Exhibition are offered to members of the Garden Club of the Auburndale Woman's Club. Mrs. Paul A. Chandler, of 62 Vista avenue, will be in the hostess, and the committee in charge are Mrs. Clinton W. Elwell, Mrs. George A. Felton, Mrs. Frederick A. Goode and Mrs. Charles A. Grover, chairman.

The date for this Flower Show is Monday, February 18th, from 2 until 9 p. m., and tea will be served. Admission to non-members is 25 cents, to include tea.

The six Classes of exhibits will be: 1. A Breakfast Tray, to include flowers; 2. Mantel Arrangement; 3. House Plants; 4. Winter Bouquets; 5. Fruit or Vegetables arranged for the dining room; and 6. Flowers, any container, cost limit 50 cents.

Important Meeting of State Federation

LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE. The Brookline Morning Club will be hostess to the fourth and twelfth districts on February 18th, for a Legislative Conference, at the Unitarian Parish House (50 Sewall avenue, corner of Coolidge avenue, Coolidge Corner) at 1:45 p. m., with Mrs. Walter H. Woods, Fourth District director, presiding.

Special guests will be Mrs. John H. Kimball and Mrs. John F. Capron. The speakers, who will be introduced by the State Legislative chairman, Mrs. Arthur C. Sennett are: Mr. Henry F. Long, Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation, and Mr. Daniel Bloomfield, manager of the Retail Trade Board of Boston, both of whom will speak on "The Retail Sales Tax"; Mr. John McLaren, on "Unemployment Insurance"; and Mrs. Bernard Sabeau, chairman of the Motion Picture department in the State Federation and Mrs. Mary T. deSilva, vice chairman of the Legislative department, both of whom will speak on "Compulsory Book-Buying and Blind Buying of Motion Pictures."

MID-WINTER MEETING. The official call for the Mid-Winter Meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation has been issued by the president, Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, and by Mrs. W. Scott Austin, secretary. It will be held in the Hotel Bradford, Boston, 1275 Tremont street, on Thursday, February 28th. The morning session will open at 10 a. m. and close at 12:45 p. m. The afternoon session will open at 2 p. m. and close at 4 p. m. The morning program, except for routine business, will be in charge of Mrs. Arthur C. Sennett, State chairman of Legislation, who will present speakers for and against the various legislative measures to be discussed. The afternoon session has been arranged by the president and her council. The speakers will be Cornelia Stratton Parker, who will address the

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The Garden Club of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will hold its Annual Meeting on Monday, February 18th, at the home of Mrs. Francis H. McCadden, 19 Stoneleigh road, West Newton. Mrs. Robert A. Stinson will be the assisting hostess.

At 12:30 o'clock a picnic luncheon will be enjoyed, after which the election of officers for the coming year will take place. Mrs. Harry S. Wells, chairman of the Club, will preside.

On Tuesday, February 19th, the International Relations Group of the Educational Club will meet at 10 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Ernest A. Dockstadter, 303 Highland avenue, West Newton. Mrs. Dockstadter, leader of this group, will preside, and will address the Class. All of the Educational Club members are invited to attend.

The Legislative meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club was held on Friday, February 8th, with Mrs. John S. Franklin, first vice-president, presiding. Two reports of important meetings were read. The first, by Mrs. D. Earle Brackett, who represents the department of Mothercraft and Child Welfare, was a resume of the Mother Conference held at the Hotel Lenox on Monday, February 4th. The second was a report given by Mrs. George H. Jackson on the Club Institute, held on Thursday, February 7th.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath introduced the Irene Forte Trio, who entertained the Club and its guests with three delightful musical selections.

The meeting was then turned over to the chairman of the Legislative committee, Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield, who introduced the speakers of the afternoon. Mrs. Frank Learned, a member of the Legislative committee of the State Federation, outlined the arguments for and against the Retail Sales Tax Bill, after which the Club members voted upon it, expressing opinion for and against.

General Daniel Needham, of Newton, was the next speaker. The subject of his address was "The Place of Women in Civic and Political Life." He emphasized the importance and the necessity of all intelligent men and women taking genuine interest in all legislative questions. He stressed the fact that women can have much influence in political life if they will give serious thought and study to its many aspects.

At the conclusion of the meeting a delightful social hour was enjoyed by Club members and their guests in the Tea-room.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

Dr. Miriam Franc Skirball will give the sixth and last of her series of Book Reviews at the Newton Centre Woman's Club on Tuesday, February 19th, at 10 a. m. "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh" will be the book reviewed.

The second in the course of Cooking Lessons by Miss Emma M. Tighe will be held at the Club House on Thursday, February 21st, at 10 a. m., with the subject "Grand Slam" Lunches, Seasonal Recipes for Bridge Lunches, and Frozen Desserts.

Newton Highlands Woman's Club

Mrs. Thomas J. Walker, president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, will be guest of honor at the mid-month meeting of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club on Tuesday, February 19th, at the Congregational Church Parish House.

Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director, will also be a guest. The second of her delightful and informing talks on "History in the Making" will be given by Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor.

There will be special music, and tea will be served by the Social committee, Miss Marion H. Dorr, chairman.

An All-Day Sewing meeting for the Red Cross will be held in the Club Workshop on Monday, February 18th.

Newtonville Woman's Club

Park Pressey, an authority on the development of the New England house from primitive cabin to the best type of Colonial architecture, will have for his subject "Historic Homes of New England" when he speaks before the Newtonville Woman's Club on February 19th. Mr. Pressey will show many slides, and will describe the characteristic features of the very old buildings. Anecdotes of colonial history and of the early settlers will be included in the afternoon's lecture. The Music committee will present Mrs. Virginia Gardiner Hatchelder, Soprano, and Mrs. Malcolm Ball, Accompanist, on the same program.

At the Tea in the Social Hall immediately following the program, Mrs. Henry M. Weidner, chairman of Hospitality, has invited Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden and Mrs. J. Mace Andress to pour, and the following Club members to be the hostesses for the afternoon: Mrs. Edgar S. Barker, Mrs. Charles A. Rouillard, and Mrs. Warren D. Thompson.

Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor will continue her series on "History in the Making" on February 21st at 10:15 a. m. This is one of the lectures in the course free to Club members upon presentation of Club tickets. There is a fee for non-members.

The Drama committee has prepared a different and most interesting program to be followed by a Silver Tea on the afternoon of February 26th. A more detailed announcement will be made later.

Auburndale Review Club

The next regular meeting of the Review Club will be held on Tuesday, February 19th, at 10 o'clock. The hostess will be Mrs. Ralph H. Rogers, 39 Grove street. Papers will be read on the following subjects: "A Department Store," by Mrs. Walter Van Patten Steiger; "The Leather Industry," by Mrs. Mervyn H. Bailey; and "The Judge Baker Guidance Clinic," by Mrs. Harold W. Knowlton.

Social Science Club

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on Wednesday, February 20th, Mrs. Everett E. Kent will read a paper on "Latin America Faces the World." Mrs. Henry O. Marcy, Jr., and Mrs. Newton A. Merritt will receive.

West Newton Community Service Club

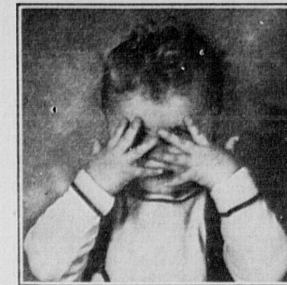

The Community Service Club of West Newton is looking forward to the meeting in the Second Church on February 20th, when Professor Anton de Haas will speak on a subject of universal interest, "Internationalism." Professor de Haas is well known as William Ziegler, Professor of International Relations at Harvard University Business School, and also as a vigorous and convincing speaker.

The Club Chorus will sing, and the Club Exchange will have articles for sale. Tea will be served under the direction of Mrs. Julian C. Jaynes.

The Executive Board has decided to try the experiment of calling the February and March meetings at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30.

Waban Woman's Club

The Study Group in International Affairs of the Waban Woman's Club will meet at 10 o'clock on Thursday, (Continued on page 9)

Weeks Jr. High

The second meeting of the year of the Weeks Parent-Teachers Association was held in the auditorium on Wednesday evening, February 6, Dr.
Karl M. Bowman presiding. A resolution expressing the Association's appreciation of the life and service of Frank F. Carr, late principal of the Weeks School, was read and adopted.
Following the business meeting, a most interesting talk was given by Mr. Edward C. R. Bagley, Deputy Commissioner in the State Department of Correction. In his brief discourse on "Crime, Criminals, and the Community," Mr. Bagley brought out the point that most of us are prone to overlook crime until it strikes close to home. He further stated that it is his conviction, as a result of many years' personal experience and investigation that the basis of most crimes can be traced to unfortunate home conditions, and his talk was concluded with a strong plea for a closer comradeship between parents and their children.

During the program, vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Kenneth Waite, accompanied by Mrs. W. H.
Eaton.

Weeks defeated Bigelow at Newton on February 7 by a 22 to 17 score.
The fine teamwork of William Johnson and Donald Manchester was the outstanding work of the game. The Junior Varsity also won a clear victory by a 22 to 2 score.

On Monday, the Varsity played the High School Intermediate and added another victory to their record when they won by a score of 27 to 23, and the Weeks Varsity Seconds defeated the High School Junior Varsity 24 to 11.

At the assembly on February 13, the Lights and Shadows Drama Club presented a one-act comedy, Lil Black Heliotrope. The cast, announced by Helene Rabinovitz, included Gertrude Dolber, Martha Stephenson, Marcia Jackson, Ann Wright, Louise Russo.

Day Jr. High School

Parents are cordially invited to attend an open session at the F. A. Day on Thursday, February 25th, from 9-11 A. M. It is the desire of the school that the community be aware of what the school is trying to do.
The classes therefore will show exactly the same kind of work that is done from day to day. Since the classes are to be conducted as usual, parents are urged not to talk with the teachers about their problems on the Thursday visiting day. The regular

FEELING

UNDER PAR?

Winter suns are weak in vitality. Winter winds are harsh. And if you let your system become "run-down" there is a dreaded enemy lying in wait for you in every crowded place. Disease germs find a ready prey in those who are physically under par.

Keep your summer strength and vigor right through the winter! There's a sure, pleasant way to increase vitality and build up resistance against infection—with MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS OF COD LIVER OIL. Those tempting, chocolate-coated tablets give you abundant supplies of the protective vitamins A and D. And they are the only vitamin concentrate tablets containing the needed minerals, calcium and phosphorus.

Each tablet brings you all the vitamins in one teaspoonful of U. S. P. X. (revised 1934) Cod Liver Oil. At all good drug stores. Protect your health the vitamin way, with six of these tablets daily. A $1 bottle holds 100 MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS.

A Waterspout

Capt. Warwick M. Tompkins of Yacht Wander Bird is coming to Channing Church on Tuesday evening, March 5, with his lecture and pictures. He shows the whole process of fitting out a sailing ship for a voyage; fair weather ocean and stormy ocean. Among the moving pictures is one of waterspouts, something quite unique.

Last year he took his ship and crew to Baltic Ports and one picture from there is the last fleet of full-rigged ships, still used in the grain trade from Australia.

The young men of the crew return to America on steamers, and this last year Capt. Tompkins brought the Wander Bird home with only one man in the crew but they were ably assisted by little Anne Tompkins, aged 5. She is so competent she rates as 2nd mate. Her younger brother, aged 3 isn't as much help, but he has the honorary title of Commodore.

John Hancock Life Insurance Company Passes Billion Mark

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston passed the billion dollar mark in payments to policyholders and beneficiaries during 1934 and enjoyed the largest income of any year in its long history, according to the report of the Board of Directors, submitted by President Walton L. Crocker to the 72nd annual policyholders meeting held today at the Company's home office, 197 State street, Boston, Mass. Substantial increases in assets, insurance written and in force as well as in surplus, were also shown.

New paid-for insurance written during the year, the report shows amounted to $532,659,313 (an increase over the previous year of $37,591,500), and representing a gain of eleven percent over ordinary insurance; twenty percent in group insurance and five percent in weekly premium insurance. Outstanding insurance amounts to $3,473,967,189, a gain of $62,253,807.

Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries in 1934 amounted to $91,877,154.03.

The total assets as of December 31st are $684,065,767.43, an increase over last year of $23,401,401.11. After deducting all the contractual liabilities of $622,249,522.73, including $569,442,629 for reserves on policies in force, and the $15,709,167.10 set aside to meet dividend requirements for the present year, the Company has a contingency reserve for asset fluctuation of $16,500,000 and, in addition, general surplus funds of $45,316,244.70, making total surplus resources of $61,816,244.70.

In keeping with its policy of preserving sufficient liquidity to meet unusual demands, the Company, President Crocker stated, has on hand in cash and in United States Government obligations, direct and contingent, and other securities, all maturing within the next five years, more than $100,000,000.

MARGARET CLANCY

Mrs. Margaret Clancy of 70 River st., West Newton, widow of Richard Clancy, died on February 13. She was born in Ireland 83 years ago and had resided in this city for nearly 60 years. She is survived by one son, Richard Clancy of the Newton police; a daughter, Mrs. William Stumpf of West Newton, 16 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Her funeral service will be held on Saturday at St. Bernard's Church. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

—Miss Ethel Gardner of Hancock st., who has been seriously ill, is much improved.

—A well attended luncheon bridge for lady members and their guests was held in the club house on Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. A. T. Freeman. Among those having high scores were: Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. Herbert Farrier, Mrs. Raymond Perkins and Mrs. John Ross.

Aldermen Meet

The Board of Aldermen held a regular meeting on Monday night, Feb. 4. The meeting was called to order at 8:07 by Vice President Floyd of the Board, as President Gordon has been acting as Mayor this week during the absence of Mayor Weeks, who is at his country home in Lancaster, N. H. All the members of the Board were present except Gordon and Walker. The open meeting lasted 8 minutes and then the Board went into secret session in a committee room to discuss the appointment of James P. Reynolds of 54 Ballard st., Newton Centre, as chairman of the Overseers of the Poor, and the amending of the city ordinances so that instead of the Welfare Department in Newton being headed by a director, it will have two overseers, one of whom is to be designated as "Chairman." This discussion lasted until 9:27 when the Aldermen scattered into various committee rooms to hold committee meetings. At 10:04 the Board resumed the open meeting.

A communication was received from Mayor Weeks announcing the appointment of Mrs. L. H. Marshall of 10 Hartford st., Newton Highlands, as a member of the Newton Playground Commission to succeed the late Thomas J. Lyons; the reappointment of Herbert J. Kellaway and Dr. Edward Mellus as members of the Planning Board; the reappointments of Albert H. MacAuslan as an assessor, and William Flynt, Ralph Laith, Oscar Reid and Frederick Smith as assistant assessors. Confirmation of these appointments, in accordance with city ordinances, was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Appropriations recommended by the Finance Committee included—pension for William O'Brien, retired street department employee, $724.65; to pay Newton's share for the maintenance of Middlesex County Tuberculosis Hospital for 1934, $19,205; Police Department, for new automobile, $1361.75; Playground Department for a new Toro tractor, $775; Welfare Department for poor out of city infirmary, $7554; Street Department, sewer in Parmenter rd., $407; Cabot Brook drain, $5039; Water Department, main in Roosevelt rd., $525. Alderman Bowen, as chairman of the Finance Committee, explained that the tractor for the Playground Department is to be used largely in clearing snow off the 40 acres of pond surfaces in this city where skating facilities are provided. The covering of Cabot Brook is in conjunction with the improvement of Edmonds Park.

The Board voted to rescind an order passed on January 1st and approved by the Mayor on January 3rd which established the bonds of Francis Newhall as City Treasurer and Collector at $73,500 for each office. A new order was passed establishing these bonds at $50,000 each, thereby saving money for the city on the bonding.

Alderman Grebenstein of the Legislature announced that on February 18 a public hearing will be held on the matter of changing the city charter relative to having biennial elections and electing aldermen and school committee members by Wards instead of at large.

Petitions were received asking for the improvement and acceptance of Oakland street and Winthrop avenue, Newton, and a sewer and drain in Byfield and Gammons road, Waban.

Alderman Temperley offered a resolution asking that Mayor Weeks and City Solicitor Bartlett confer with State officials regarding a condition which has existed along Boylston street for its 3 1/2 miles length in this city since the big snowstorm. Temperley said that when the city gave the State permission to construct the Worcester turnpike, the City Solicitor had told the Aldermen that the city would not lose its rights to control conditions along Boylston street. Temperley said that since the snowstorm plows operated by State employees have repeatedly pushed high banks of snow onto sidewalks and driveways which had been laboriously shoveled by Boylston street residents, and protests made to State officials had not brought relief, he stated that he had appealed to Chairman Callahan of the State Department of Public Works, who is a resident of Waban and the latter had said he would ask engineers of that department to investigate the matter. Alderman Floyd suggested that the resolution be referred to the Public Works Committee, but Temperley said this delay would cause the bad condition along Boylston street to continue.

Alderman Cronin said he had received numerous complaints that city owned snowplows have been shoveling snow onto sidewalks and driveways on many Newton streets, just as Temperley complained the State snowplows have been doing along Boylston street. Cronin commented: "Let's get under the city first." Alderman Grebenstein agreed with Cronin and said that Temperley's resolution should not pass, as this matter is up to Mayor Weeks. Alderman McKay said that the Board of Aldermen has asked the State Department of Public Works to remedy other undesirable conditions along the turnpike and no cooperation has resulted from the State officials. No action was taken on the resolution. The meeting adjourned at 10:40. Total time spent Monday night in open meeting 42 minutes; time spent in secret meeting 72 minutes; time spent in committee conferences, 37 minutes.

The Frances Willard Memorial Day Program arranged by the president, Mrs. Hattie E. Shotts for the February meeting of the Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union, included intimate glimpses of the life of "one of the most eminent women of the United States." Of especial interest was the story of Feb. 17, 1905, when the legislative wheels of the Federal Government were stilled for the first time in paying tribute to the memory of a woman, and the United States Congress for mally accepted from the State of Illinois, the statue of Frances Willard, placing it in Statuary Hall under the dome of the National Capitol.

A commemorative service by the children preceded the formal acceptance by the Congress, a service in which two thousand school children of the City of Washington made up a unique and inspiring procession, the like of which has never been seen there either before or since. Two thousand pairs of childish hands dropped their blossoms at the foot of a white marble statue as with hushed tread these coming citizens filed through Statuary Hall.

Never before in the history of our country had the United States Congress paused in its routine business to pay tribute to the worth of the one it represents.

Tea was served following the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Howard and Dr. Reid.

Newton District Nursing Association Meets

At the monthly board meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association, held on Monday, Feb. 11th, Miss Nelson, the executive director, reported that there are several cases of scarlet fever in Newton, as well as considerable whooping cough and chicken pox. During January the district nurses made 1531 visits to 418 patients, just two hundred more visits than during January of last year. The regular staff has been supplemented by four ERA nurses, who have given 380 hours of service.

Two interesting cases of cooperation with the Welfare Bureau were cited, one, where the mother was helpless as the result of an automobile accident. Her three children, all ill, one with pneumonia, had no care save that given by the district nurses twice a day, until through the cooperation of the Welfare Bureau a practical nurse was sent to care for the family. In the other case a young boy would have died from pneumonia had not the district nurses and the night nurse procured through the Welfare Bureau pulled him through.

At this meeting a new program of education was started. Each member of the board has been assigned to a group with the purpose of learning more about the work of our own District Nursing Association, and of public health nursing in general. The program this month was in charge of the group whose subject is "Organization." This group, headed by Mrs. John A. Paine of West Newton, consists of Mrs. George M. Angier of Waban, Mrs. Stanwood G. Bradlee of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. G. W. St. Amant of Auburndale, Mrs. Leverett Saltontall of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Frank P. Scofield of Newton, and Mrs. C. J. A. Wilson of Newtonville.

In her report on the organization of nursing efforts, Mrs. Paine told of the first trained nurse who went out to care for the sick in 1859, sent by Mr. Rathbone of Liverpool, England. At that time only one training school for nurses existed in England, the Florence Nightingale School. From that beginning have grown the thousands of organizations, both official and non-official in States, counties, and cities. The need of public health nursing is recognized as so great that at present there is a recommendation before Congress that ten million dollars be appropriated for that purpose.

Mrs. Wilson gave a most interesting history of the Newton District Nursing Association, from its organization in 1898, with one graduate nurse, to the present time, when its staff comprises the executive directors, five public health nurses, and two students from the Newton Hospital, as well as the four ERA nurses added in the present crisis.

Telephone Newton North 4880 or call at the Headquarters of the Newton District Nursing Association, 297 Walnut st., Newtonville, any day from eight to five, excepting Sundays and holidays. In case of emergency, visiting nurses may be reached on Sundays and holidays through the Newton Hospital, West Newton 2800. Emergency calls answered at night only through a registered physician.

A nurse is sent at the earliest possible moment in response to any call, but her services cannot be continued unless there is a registered physician in charge. Visit is as long as is consistent to carry out treatment ordered.

Dramatic Club To Present "Another Language"

"Another Language" is the play to be presented by The Newton Dramatic Club on Tuesday evening, February 19th, in the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. Hazel Sholey will play the part of Stella Hallam acted by Helen Hayes in the moving pictures. In the cast are Mrs. Allen Hubbard, Barbara Crossley, Mrs. Harold Kelar, Virginia Cameron, Jack Purple, Robert Peper, Dan Smith, Ernest Braithwaite, Don Cummins and E. J. Carleton.

In charge of properties is Mrs. George Richardson, stage manager, Bolton Wilder. Preceding the play will be the first performance of "The Last Wife," written for the club by Marjorie Chalmers Carleton, an incident in the life of Henry the Eighth and Catherine Parr. In the cast are Hortense Creel Railsback, William C. Grabe, George Hubert Rand and Celeste Callaghan.

S. Hardy Mitchell is president of the club. Albert T. Carpenter is treasurer. Gardner Walworth is vice president. Barbara Lippincott, assistant treasurer. Mrs. Charles M. Clark, secretary. Mrs. E. W. Varney, executive director. Directors are Ted Burton, Bertram Moore, Mrs. Howard North, Harry P. Forte, H. B. Wilder.

Music will be furnished by The Newton Dramatic Club orchestra under the leadership of Charles M. Clark. Dr. Anton Fried, Sigmund Rouszkiewicz, and Edith Orde and Harold Parker are the violins. Doris Forte, cello; Gladys S. Watt, clarinet and saxophone; Walter Morrow, saxophone; Charles Kitchen, flute; Don G. Hill, 3rd, Edward Blakemore, trumpets; Donald Bishop, trombone; Dr. Harry E. Emmons, Jr., drums; Mrs. Beulah F. Bell, piano.

Oak Hill People Petition For School House

More Facilities

Residents of Oak Hill are making a determined effort to convince the School Committee that a new school building in that district should rank as one of the first school projects in this city. The petition presented by the committee of Oak Hill residents which appeared before the School Committee at its meeting on Monday night included the following facts. Oak Hill is sufficiently distant from the schools at Newton Centre and Newton Highlands as to cause transportation inconvenience for pupils who must travel to those villages from Oak Hill, and subject them to the danger of crossing the Worcester turnpike. The rapid growth of new homes and increased tax returns from Oak Hill in the past 10 years are reasons why a school is needed there.

At the old school now in use in Oak Hill there are but two rooms in which three grades and a kindergarten meet. Next year when the large incoming kindergarten takes the place of the outgoing third grade, it will be increasingly difficult for one teacher to handle the increased number efficiently. If the third grade is sent to other schools, a group of very young children would be obliged to travel 12 miles daily. A survey completed over the last week-end indicates that Oak Hill has 202 children between the ages of 4 and 14, and 85 children under 4. If these children were distributed equally in grades from kindergarten up to junior high school grades, they would average 25 children per classroom. This school population is partly accounted for by including all children residing south of Boylston street in the Oak Hill, Walnut street and Brookline street sections. The Oak Hill section has 169 children up to and including age 16, Walnut road section 108, Brookline street section 59. This indicates that a school located in the Brookline street section, as is the present school, is centrally located for most of the children in Oak Hill district, and accounts for the relatively small attendance at the present school.

The petition stated that if the School Committee requires all children in these sections south of Boylston street to attend a new Oak Hill school, the classes within the next two years will average 36 children per classroom. The present Oak Hill school cannot accommodate even 30 more pupils comfortably, much less six to eight times increased enrollment. The concluding paragraphs of the petition stated—"We believe the recent census which we are submitting tonight offers new and convincing evidence that a new school building is a desperate, immediate need to relieve overcrowding in other schools, and to care for a very real problem of 'complete inadequacy' of present school facilities in this district. We urge you to review the facts and weigh further the evidence in relation to other needs elsewhere in the system, and give the Oak Hill district your support in recommending that of the three P. W. A. projects undertaken—this district shall be one." The petition was signed by Henry S. C. Cummings, chairman; Charles F. Treney, Mrs. Charles R. Davis, Mrs. Lawrence Early, Shedd Vandenberg.

City Hall Filled By Opponents of Liquor Plants

"Drys" And Churches Oppose Zoning Change

Over 200 citizens crowded City Hall last night at a public hearing held by the Claims & Rules Committee of the aldermen on the petition to change the zoning ordinance by permitting distilleries and alcoholic rectifying plants in business zones. This matter was brought about as a result of a petition presented a few months ago which sought to have a rectifying plant permitted in the building on Washington st., West Newton, formerly occupied by the Martin Mfg. Company, makers of curtains. This company, which for years gave employment to hundreds of Newton residents had to discontinue business as a result of unfair competition and the depression. The property is heavily taxed. The city solicitor advised that the petition was "spot zoning" and it was first planned to include in a zone for manufacturing purposes where a distillery could be located, the area bounded by Felton, Washington and Chestnut streets. Then, the Claims and Rules Committee conceived the change to the zoning ordinance mentioned above, which would have affected all business zones in the city. The "drys" throughout Newton got busy, many petitions were circulated, churches took action and the big gathering on Wednesday night resulted.

Among those who protested were Charles W. Bond of Newton Centre, who said, "I would rather have a pig in my parlor than a distillery in West Newton square," and who termed the proposal unthinkable and outrageous; Representative Clarence Luitwieler, of Newton Highlands, who said a distillery would injure the city; and Prof. F. L. Anderson of Newton Theological School, who said, "I would like to have the gall of the petitioners presented to me to be placed in a museum as a curiosity." Petitions opposing the zoning change were received from Newtonville Methodist Episcopal Church, Emmanuel Baptist Church, North Congregational Church, First Methodist Episcopal Church, Newton Centre Methodist Church, Waban Improvement Association, Newton Centre Baptist Church, West Newton Women's Christian Temperance Union and the Newton Methodist Episcopal Church.

George Martin stated that it was evident that only a few of those opposing are West Newton residents. A showing of hands counted 60 in favor of the petition and 95 opposed.

The Village Committee of the West Newton Men's Club held a meeting last week and voted not to oppose the petition for the zoning change.

Newton Police Win Pistol Match

Team 3 of the Newton Police defeated Team 2 of the Waltham Rifle and Revolver Club on Tuesday at the State Armory, West Newton, by a score of 688 to 633. Carley was high scorer for the Newton team. The other members were Dungan, Marden and Taffe. Dungan scored high average in his class at the recent shots of the Police Revolver League. Taffe recently obtained a sharpshooter's rating. All the Newton police teams fished well in their respective classes in recent competition.

The team of the West Newton Savings Bank won first honors in their division at the competitive shoot of the teams in the banking league. Coach Richard Dwyer was pleased with this result, as three of the members of the team were ladies.

Aldermen To Make Study of Breaks In Gas Mains

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, Alderman Holden of Ward 6 spoke on the matter of numerous breaks in gas mains in this city the past few years. He said this matter has seriously affected residents of Ward 6 and may affect persons in other parts of the city. He told of three fatalities during the past two years and referred to several persons having been nearly overcome by leaking gas fumes recently. He said he had made an effort to go into this problem himself but found it too technical. He stated that he had discovered two things—that the pressure in gas mains in Newton is greater now than it was in former years, and that certain city officials within recent years gave the gas company permission to lay gas mains in streets 3 1/2 feet below the surface, instead of 6 or 7 feet as in former years. Holden commented that prior to 1930 serious results from leaking gas mains had not occurred in this city. He moved that the Board empower its President to appoint a committee to study the situation and engage expert assistance. He said he did not desire to alarm citizens, but they should have assurance that something is being done regarding the menace of broken gas mains. Alderman McKay seconded Holden's motion and it was carried.

The committee appointed by President Gordon includes: Aldermen Holden, chairman; McCabe, Lyon, Hutchinson, Gordon, McKay and Colby. Wednesday afternoon this committee held a conference with members of the State Public Utilities Commission.

Alderman Guzzi Asks For Open Board Meetings

Just before the Newton Board of Aldermen's meeting adjourned on Monday night, Alderman Guzzi, new member from Ward 3, arose and said, "Before I was elected to this Board citizens complained to me that the Aldermen in recent years have made a practice of spending most of their time at regular meetings holding private sessions behind closed doors." Guzzi stated that the present Board at its first few meetings this year is continuing this practice. He contended that the Aldermen should transact the greater part of their deliberations and business in the open, and that private meetings and committee meetings should not be held on regular meeting nights. President Gordon agreed that Guzzi was correct.

Section 13 of the City Charter says: "All meetings (of the Aldermen) shall be public except when action is taken on appointments or removals." Section 12, Article 4 of the Rules of the Aldermen, says: No committee shall sit later than 6 o'clock in the afternoon of any day on which the Board of Aldermen meets unless previously authorized by said Board of the President.

Both of these rules have been regularly ignored by Boards of Aldermen in recent years.

Moses Gulesian Disappears

Moses Gulesian of 85 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, who has been prominent in the development of that section for many years, disappeared after 9:30 Tuesday night when he left the University Club in Boston. He had intended to drive directly to his home to meet some friends. His automobile was later found parked near the club. Gulesian, who is 71, a native of Armenia, came to this country as a youth, achieved success in the metal business, and later made a fortune in real estate operations. His imposing residence on Commonwealth ave. has long been conspicuous by having in front of it the large lion and unicorn formerly ornaments on the old State House in Boston. About two years ago Mr. Gulesian was instrumental in having arrested a man whom he alleged attempted to kidnap him after luring him to Albany, New York, on a fake real estate deal.

Newton Better Housing Survey

On Monday, Feb. 25th, under the auspices of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, a house-to-house canvass will be started in connection with the better Housing Program. The men making the canvass will carry proper credentials. The Chamber asks the people of Newton to cooperate. The men who are to make the survey will give complete information as to the benefits of modernization and the methods of financing.

Fined $10 For Disturbing Peace

John A. Shaw of 1026 Boylston st., Newton Highlands, was fined $10 in the Newton court on Saturday for disturbing the peace and $5 for drunkenness. He was arrested the preceding night by Patrolman Brayton after he had gotten into a row with the owner of a beer dispensary at Newton Highlands.

Biggest Scout Meeting Ever In Newton

418 People Attend Mid-Winter
Boy Scout Meeting

With 297 men, members of Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, at the dinner, opening the mid-winter Council meeting, and a total of 418 in the Memorial Hall at the ceremonies which started there at 8:40, Newton witnessed the largest gathering of men and women actively interested in all phases of the Boy Scout program that it has ever seen!

Dinner was served in the cafeteria of the Newton City Hall at 6:45 o'clock, the room having been very finely decorated with greens and posters by Scouts of the Sixth Norumbega Group, Newtonville, under Scoutmaster W. Bradford Gove, II.

Immediately following the dinner, after singing led by Dr. Cecil W. C. Clark, President Harwood called for the report of the Scout Executive, Mr. L. A. Bruce, Jr. He commented on the fact that Norumbega Council has active men in the game, paid special tribute to the direct leaders of the boys—Cubmasters' Scoutmasters, Skipp and Rover Leader—and emphasized that Scouting essentially succeeds because of them. Mr. William V. M. Fawcett, Pageant-Master of the Norumbega Council Silver Jubilee Pageant, which will be held at Dickinson Field on May 24th, told the Council about the pageant and aroused great interest. Mr. John MacIntosh, of the Wellesley Board of Selectmen, brought greeting from the town fathers and the town to the gathering.

Mayor Weeks Speaks

His Honor Sinclair Weeks, Mayor of Newton, was called upon by President Harwood. Mayor Weeks took the Scout training course along with a hundred-odd other men in the "Back-to-Boyhood" Troop when it was run in Newton. He has actively cooperated with the local organization since and has been a guest of honor at many affairs run by the Boy Scouts.

President Harwood presented Mr. Charles Cotting, Chairman of the Region One, New England States, Boy Scouts of America, Executive Committee; Mr. Ralph H. Nodine, Regional Executive of Region One and Chairman of Troop 7C, West Newton, Troop Committee; Mr. O. A. Kitterman, Scout Executive of the Boston Council.

Meeting Goes to Memorial Hall

At this point the meeting was adjourned to the Memorial Hall and reconvened there very quickly. In the hall, there were an additional hundred-odd Scouts and the Den Mothers of Cub Division, to whom a very great share is due for the success of the Cub Program in the Council. Scout Commissioner Carlton S. Redmond led the Council in the Scout Oath.

The presiding officer then called on the Directors of Divisions to report on the work of their respective committees. The following reported: Scout Commissioner Carlton S. Redmond, Division of Scouting; Mr. Douglass Francis, Director of the Division of Cubbing; Mr. A. C. Blunt, Jr., Director of the Division of Camps and Camping; Mr. Lowell D. MacNutt, Director of the Division of Examinations and Awards; Mr. William V. M. Fawcett, Commodore of the Seacoast Division; Mr. G. D. Marcy, Director of the Senior Boy Program Division; Mr. Benjamin Guernsey, Chairman of the Wellesley District Committee.

Mr. Harwood reported for Treasurer Maynard Hutchinson that the Budget and all Council activities involving money in 1934 operated in the black, with no notes outstanding and a mortgage of only $800 on property rising $40,000 in value!

Dramatic Investiture Ceremony

A big feature of the evening was the Tenderfoot Investiture ceremony, staged by Scoutmaster John M. Bierer of Troop 10, Waban, with the Troop here formed of the Senior Patrol Leaders of the 25 Troops of the Council. It was very dramatic and most impressive, making a most favorable impression and giving a real inspiration. Following speeches, brief but direct, by Dr. George J. Fisher, Deputy Chief Scout Executive and Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, there were chants by Seacoasts of Ship 13, under Skipper Donald M. Curtis.

Mr. Harwood paid high tribute to Dr. Fisher for having conceived and carried through the Regional Plan of Scout organization in this country.

Dr. West was rightly credited by President Harwood for being largely responsible for the great growth and strength of the Boy Scouts of America. He started with the organization in February, 1910, and has therefore given 25 years of continuous, unselfish and effective service to the movement.

President Head High Spot of the Evening

The meeting was brought to a fitting climax by the address of Mr. Walter Head, President of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Head was inspiring and compelling in his address and was given an ovation at the close of his talk. The meeting closed with the singing of America, with U. S. Colors in a spot-light, followed by the sweet notes of "Retreat."

Alderman Cronin Asks For Lower Telephone Rates

Following the action of the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night in appointing a committee to investigate the matter of broken gas mains in Newton streets, Alderman Cronin of Ward 4 stated—"Now is the time to say something about telephone service in this city." He said that subscribers served by Newton North and Centre Newton exchanges pay 5 cents for calls to Boston exchanges, whereas subscribers served by the West Newton exchange pay 10 cents. Cronin said this is an injustice, because many of the subscribers in the West Newton exchange live nearer to Boston than do many served by Centre Newton; that persons residing in Newtonville pay 10 cents for Boston calls, while persons residing in Waban and near Lower Falls pay 5 cents. He made a motion that the Board vote to have a committee of seven appointed to study this alleged discrimination, and get in touch with telephone and State officials.

Alderman Melcher said it was quite uncalled for to have the Aldermen question telephone rates, that they might next take up electric and gas rates. He commented that the investigation of the leaks in gas mains is a matter affecting life. Alderman Temperley recalled that when Mr. Hatfield was mayor of Newton, the matter of telephone rates was brought up and a hearing held. It was then brought out that West Newton exchange rates were higher because this exchange is outside the 8 miles radius from Boston. Alderman Cronin replied to Temperley by saying that the latter is an advocate of economy, and he should choose between economy for the people or economy for the telephone company. Alderman Guzzi, replying to Melcher's remarks, said it might be a good thing if the Aldermen did take action on Edison and gas rates. He commented that the Governor is doing this and will probably get results.

Cronin's motion was lost. Those voting in favor were—Akins, Cronin, Guzzi, McCabe. Aldermen Barwise and Bowen, employed by the telephone company, did not vote. Neither did President Gordon, a former employee of the company.

Aldermen Hold Lively Session Monday Night

Several Important Matters Are Acted Upon

The Newton Board of Aldermen held a regular meeting on Monday night. All twenty-one members were present and the meeting started at 7:50, practically at the advertised time. The first matter to come before the Board was a hearing on the petition of the John C. Barthelme estate by James Keary, trustee, for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at the northwest corner of John and Boylston streets, on the new Worcester turnpike. Carl M. Eldridge of the Newton Trust Company, trustee for the George Beck estate opposed the petition. He said that the Beck estate consists of about 68,000 square feet of land on which are a few small buildings and it adjoins the locus of the proposed filling station. The Beck property is in a residence zone and to have a filling station next to it will largely destroy its value for residential development. Mr. Eldridge said that inasmuch as there are two filling stations across the turnpike at this point, there is no need for another. He argued that the proposed station would be of the so-called super station type, open until the late hours of the night, and the resultant noise would also lower the value of nearby residential properties.

The next hearing to come before the meeting was that on the petition of Frank Vincenzo of Adams street, Newton for a permit to erect a filling station at 1105 Washington street, West Newton, corner of Cross street. This is the fourth such petition presented by Vincenzo during the past three years. As at the previous hearings a number of persons residing in the neighborhood were present to protest. These included Marian Marsh, 58 Cross street; Robert Jigger, 27 Cross street; Arthur Rogers, 35 Cross street; Mrs. Charles Prescott, 16 Cross street; Mrs. John Goddard, 41 Cross street; Mrs. Clara Quinn, Washington street. Their objections as at the preceding hearings were based on the extreme narrowness of Cross street at this corner, the existent danger and collisions caused by automobiles using Washington street as a "race track," the menace the station would be to small children of the neighborhood, the fire hazard it would create, and the lack if any need for it due to the fact that now there are six filling stations between Newtonville and West Newton squares.

The hearing scheduled on the proposed legislation to change the city charter by having each ward elect its own aldermen, holding elections biennially and requiring more signatures on candidates' nomination papers, was postponed until March 4th at the request of the sponsors of the bill seeking these changes. Two of the leaders of the agitation for the proposed changes had to attend a function in Boston for which they had a previous engagement. President

Aldermen Vote to Reorganize Welfare Department. It Will Have Director and Assistant

Action of Board on Monday Permits Appointment of James
P. Reynolds as Director of Welfare

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night the amendment to the city charter asked for by Mayor Weeks was authorized by a vote of 19 to 2.

As a result of the change the Welfare Department instead of being in charge of a Director of welfare, will be headed by two Overseers of the poor, one of whom serving as Director is James P. Reynolds of 54 Ballard street, Newton Centre, whose appointment to this office was recently announced by Mayor Weeks. The second overseer is Miss Florence Fitzgerald who for the past 12 years has been head of the Welfare Department.

This matter was brought before the Aldermen at the meeting on February 4th, when the Board discussed it at length in secret session. An attempt was made to rush it through at that meeting but Alderman Temperley objected. A special meeting was called on February 14 to act on the change, but an objection was raised by Alderman Lyon. Action was then deferred until the meeting on Monday night to enable the Aldermen to confer with City Solicitor Bartlett. The Board went into conference with Mr. Bartlett at another secret session on last Monday evening.

When the matter was brought before the open meeting for action, Alderman Temperley said that he was not concerned so much with the amendment to the city charter as he was to the fact that we have heard so much regarding economy in Federal, State and city affairs that we should go slowly in creating more expense to the city in the management of the Welfare Department. He said it is true that the work of the department has greatly increased during the past 5 years, but he hopes that the burden on this department may decrease in coming years. He argued that an expert bookkeeper would suffice for the need of the department at less expense than creating the proposed new office of additional overseer to serve as director. He said that to have two directors at the head of the department will invite friction, that it would be better to have one responsible person in control, that he would prefer to see a competent clerk under civil service appointed, and for these reasons he would vote against the change.

Alderman Cronin replied to Temperley by saying—"All the members of the Aldermen are in favor of keeping down the expenses of the city government." He asked Temperley—"Do you want to go on record as wanting the Mayor to discharge Miss Fitzgerald?" Cronin continued by saying that he does not believe the word "Economy" has any place in the Welfare Department. He asked if Temperley believes recipients of welfare should receive one loaf of bread instead of two? Cronin said that he believed Mayor Weeks is trying to solve the problem of the Welfare Department in the right way, and that the departments needs revamping, and that as time goes on and shows that one director would be better, the Mayor or Aldermen may so move.

Alderman Grebenstein said that he had the pleasure of voting for Miss Fitzgerald in past years, and he has heard no complaints that she has not given humane treatment to persons applying for aid. He read statistics to show the increased demands on this department from 1925, and he commented that if any member of the Board of Aldermen were in Miss Fitzgerald's place, he would feel she should be kept at the head of the department. He said he had not been shown any reason why she should be subordinate to the new director, and that she should have been given the courtesy of a hearing, even if behind closed doors. He said had this been done, there would be a better feeling throughout the city. He stated that he would vote against the additional expense of an extra director.

Alderman Temperley, answering Cronin, said he should not be misconstrued regarding his attitude concerning Miss Fitzgerald, and he asserted that she should continue as head of the Welfare Department. Temperley called attention to the fact that about a year ago Alderman Floyd had eulogized her services, in the highest manner when her reappointment came before the Aldermen for a year. He said that criticisms are being made against the department within one short year to so change conditions? He said that criticisms are being made against the disposal of State officials without hearings being accorded them, and he agreed with Alderman Grebenstein in this respect. He said that in his opinion the difficulty in the Welfare Department could have been overcome by the appointment of a competent clerk who would be under civil service. Alderman Grebenstein said he would like to have asked Miss Fitzgerald some questions at a hearing, including whether or not, she had been given a free rein in running the department, and why applicants for welfare are questioned before 25 or more persons.

Alderman Cronin asked why was not the matter of economy brought up several months ago when the office of Director of Public Works was created? Cronin took exception to Grebenstein's reference of welfare applicants being questioned about their private affairs in front of many other applicants. Cronin said that Aldermen have no right to bring out in the open things that occur in the office of the Welfare Department.

Alderman Rawson said "I don't understand that the change in this ordinance is any reflection on the fine work Miss Fitzgerald has done. The purpose is to have the business affairs of the department handled by the director." Alderman Temperley replying to Cronin's assertion that no Alderman has objected to the creation of the office of Director of Public Works, said that he had objected at that time and he told Cronin to consult the records of the meetings of the Board of Aldermen.

Alderman Guzzi said that he agreed with Grebenstein regarding the embarrassing of applicants for welfare by subjecting them to questioning in a roomful of people. He said he had seen this happen in the office of the Welfare Department within a couple of days. Guzzi said that while he was in the office, a man who is employed there as an investigator, pushed a woman applicant, who had asked that she be permitted to see Miss Fitzgerald, out into the corridor. Guzzi remarked that he felt like giving the same treatment to the fellow that he

PAYING ITS WAY

A widowed mother and her daughters had a telephone, among other household conveniences. Sharply reduced income compelled a cut in the household budget, however, and the telephone was scheduled to go.

One of the daughters—an expert comptometer operator—had registered at the school for such part-time work as might be available, and GAVE HER TELEPHONE NUMBER so she might be reached quickly if wanted. Result: Fifteen days' work during the ensuing month. The telephone stays, because, by this service alone, it has more than paid for itself.

Whether you can afford a telephone depends on its value to you. What it would cost you can be learned by calling the telephone business office. . . . (No charge for such a call.) New England Telephone and Telegraph Company.

NEWTON TOPS BELMONT IN G.B.I.S. HOCKEY 5-1

Showing a rare smoothness and precision in their passing game, the Newton High hockey team defeated Belmont 5-1 at the Arena last Saturday afternoon. Opening with a three-goal first period, the Newtons were not pressed at any time, and were not scored on until the last minutes of the game. Ernie MacLeod made one goal and two assists to climb to the top of the league scoring ladder with a total of nine goals, seven assists, sixteen points, a single point ahead of Chaisson of Cambridge and DeCoste of Melrose.

Newton scored its first goal while Phil Grotjohn of Belmont was warming the penalty bench. Goalie Fitzgerald had already made several good saves when the vest-pocket defenseman went off for handling the puck, and with Belmont short-handed Newton surrounded the defensive zone with a five-man power attack. Bill Page worked his way down the boards, passed out to Dave Dennis, and the Belmont goalie was unable to clear Dave's shot. Newton led 1-0 at 3:52.

Page, MacLeod, Daniels Score

The second Newton goal came at 8:11, when Bill Page took a short pass from Ernie MacLeod and lifted it past Fitzgerald. And less than two minutes later, MacLeod again found the puck during a scrimmage before the Belmont goal and drove in a hard shot for the third Newton score. Captain Castaldi set up a goal for Bill Daniels halfway through the second, circling the Belmont defense and laying a pass out in front of the goal, which Daniels converted with a snap shot at 5:52.

Julian Hartwell, second-string left wing for Belmont, made the only goal for the losers by an individual tally at 9:30 in the last period, but the MacLeod-Page combination was quick to add Newton's fifth point, with Page sinking the goal at 9:46. Since Arlington was held to a tie by Stoneham, Newton has a good chance of taking over second place honors in the two remaining games. While there is a mathematical possibility that Newton could win the first-place honors, the actual chance is very slight, since Melrose would have to lose their two games and Arlington at least one. In tonight's games at the Arena, Arlington and Melrose will play an important game, and Newton will face Cambridge Latin in the other first-division clash. When these games were played on January 5th, Newton and Cambridge tied 2-2 while Arlington held Melrose in a scoreless deadlock.

Gordon of the Board stated that if anyone was present to favor or oppose the charter change they might have the opportunity to speak or register their sentiment. Phillip W. Carter of Balaures rd., West Newton, arose and stated that he wished to be registered in opposition to the changes.

Percy E. Woodward of Highland ave., Newtonville, and Albert Schofield of Malden, owners of large tracts of land abutting Albemarle rd., asked for information regarding the construction of a drain and sewer along the easterly side of Albemarle road from Watertown st. to the Charles River. Mr. Schofield said there are no houses along the section of Albemarle rd. where his property is located. He asked—"Is this sewer necessary?" He also inquired why the sewer on the westerly side of Chesapeake Brook, along Albemarle road, cannot be used. City Engineer Morse said the sewer is necessary because of a number of new houses on Brookdale rd. and other streets in the vicinity, that it will be a trunk line sewer, and that the sewer on the West Newton side of Albemarle rd. is too small to care for present requirements. He told Mr. Schofield that his assessment will be $5900, and Mr. Woodward's assessment $1438. Mrs. Furlong of 82 Albemarle rd. registered a protest against the construction of the sewer.

Norman McCutcheon of Gammons rd. objected to the construction of a sewer there with one exception are satisfactorily served by cesspools, some of which have been built at heavy cost. He said that the neighborhood is underlain by puddingstone rock and it will cost the city and property owners there much money to excavate for a sewer.

At 8:30 the Board took a "short recess" to meet in secret session and discussed the matter of changing the city ordinances relative to the Welfare Department. After this closed-door meeting had concluded, committee meetings were held and the Board resumed the open meeting at 9:50.

The following appointments of Mayor Weeks were confirmed unanimously: Albert H. McAuslan, assessor; William Flynn, Frederick Smith, Oscar

BYRNE, SMITH, LAFFIE LEAD BROOKLINE ROUT

Making sure of second place in the Suburban League Basketball race, Newton pinned another stinging defeat on Brookline High 31-12 in the last game on their schedule. The Newton passing attack was much too much for the visitors, although they showed some gain over their previous showing, when Newton won by 30-6 on the Brookline floor. Jim "Bullet" Byrne was high man for Newton with twelve points on field goals. Allen Smith had four field goals and one foul for nine points, and Ted Laffie made three from the floor and two from the foul line for a total of eight. Sullivan, with three field goals, made half the Brookline total.

Newton is now assured of second place in the Suburban League. Cambridge Latin has two games with Rindge and one with Brookline left to play, and needs only two victories to clinch the league title. Having beaten Newton twice, there is little doubt that Cambridge will clean up these three games, since Newton won all four games from the same teams.

OUR LADY'S CONQUERS IMMACULATE BY 29-15

Our Lady's basketball team won easily at Newton Tuesday, taking the measure of Immaculate Conception by 29-15. The Newton team led 12-4 at the half and 23-8 at the end of the third quarter. Francis "Chicken" Morris was the mainspring of the winning team, scoring nine points. Fourteen players saw service for Our Lady's and eight figured in the scoring.

Last Friday Our Lady's was the loser by three points in a 25-23 battle at Lynn St. Mary's. Trailing by four points at the half, Our Lady's was unable to overcome that narrow margin. Fran Morris had eight points on floor goals, while Mario Marino equalled that score with two floor goals and four foul shots. Our Lady's has a good chance of making second place in the league standing, since the team has been handicapped by postponed games.

Here and There

Joe Nolan of Newton High and the Nonantum A. C. came through with flying colors in last week's boxing at the Irish-American A. C. in South Boston. In the final match of the 126-lb. class, Nolan won a decision over Joe Fortunato of Beverly, after having scored a knockout on Frank Eldredge of Brockton in his semi-final.

Elena Ciccone of Newton Centre got through the first round of the women's national indoor tennis championships in New York, only to lose in the second round Tuesday to Norma Taubele, defending champion and seeded No. 2. Elena then paired with Helen Barnard of New York, the girl she defeated in the semi-final in the doubles, where they lost a hard-fought match to Mrs. Fullen and Mrs. LaPrade of New York by 3-6, 6-1, 11-9.

Bill Donnelly, a former captain of the golf team at Newton High, is one of four seniors at Holy Cross, all of whom are co-captains of the golf team for the coming season.

It appears that Bob Quigley of West Newton is about through at Northeastern University, where he has been leading the freshman track team in hot pace. In the recent meet against Dean Academy, Quigley won the hurdles and the dash, then took second in the 300 to his cousin, Jim Cahill.

Among the Appalachian Mountain Club members who are at Intervale, N. H., for an eight-day snowshoe outing are Elizabeth L. Holmes, Helen M. Cobb and Rose Loring of Newton, and William J. Bicknell of Newton Highlands.

Next Friday the Newtonville drill shed will rock on its foundations while Newton and Brookline stage their annual track meet. Records for the shot, hurdles and high jump are in danger of being touched or broken.

Raid, Ralph Laffie, assistant assessors; Herbert J. Kellaway, Dr. Edward Mellus, members of Planning Board; Mrs. L. H. Marshall, member of Playground Commission.

Mayor Weeks submitted the appointment of Nelson B. Vanderhoof of Dexter rd., Newtonville, as a member of the Planning Board to succeed Albert M. Lyon. Mr. Vanderhoof is a prominent Boston attorney.

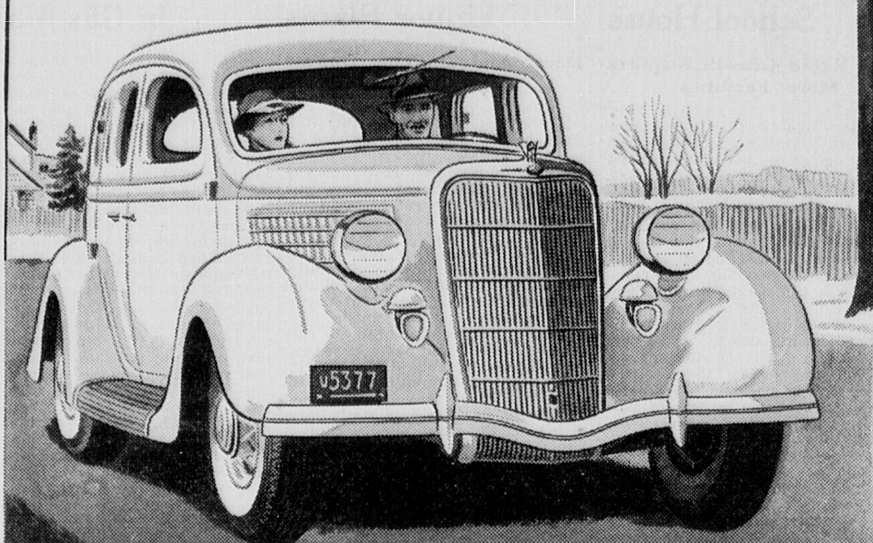

Appropriations passed by the Board included: extension of water mains to abolish dead ends and replace small mains, $20,000; for further improvements and remodeling at house occupied by the engineer of the water pumping station at Newton Upper Falls, $1950; water main on Alexander rd., $350. Alderman Bowen explained that the $20,000 for water mains is to carry on the program started last year, and that the further appropriation for the house at Upper Falls is required because the $2600 appropriated some time ago for materials in connection with this work was not sufficient. The labor costs on this job have come from the E.R.A. The Board authorized loans from the Commons Fund totalling $12,350. A claim was received from John B. Samuda for damage to his automobile caused by a collision with a city snow plow on Feb. 4. Petitions were received from Julia Schwartz and Sarah Burns asking that land on Washington st., Newtonville, between Lowell ave. and Brooks ave., be changed from residence to business zone.

The meeting adjourned at 10:50 and it was announced that the next meeting would be on Thursday night.

Middlesex Court M. C. O. F. 49TH Anniversary

Middlesex Court, M. C. O. F., which has over 900 members and is the largest court in that Order, will observe its 49th anniversary on Tuesday evening, Feb. 26th, at Elks Hall, Newton. A dinner will be served at 7:30, following which members of the High Standing Committee and others will briefly address the gathering. The guest speaker of the evening will be Lt.-Col. Paul G. Kirk, State Commissioner of Public Safety. An entertainment and dancing will follow. The committee in charge of the affair is headed by Miss Mary Shea, Chief Ranger of Court. Hon. Chairman; Miss Marian Goode, Vice Chief Ranger. They are being assisted by officers and Past Chief Rangers of the Court. The five living chapter members of the Court are: Dr. F. M. O'Donnell and James Divert of Newton, Michael McDermott and Thomas Waters of Newtonville, and Patrick Waters of Newton Centre.

Health Report For January

The report of the Newton Health Department for January shows that there were 67 deaths in the city during that month; 26 males and 41 females. The death-rate for the month was 10.63 per 1000 of population. Causes of death included: scarlet fever, 1; influenza, 1; tuberculosis, 2; cancer, 9; diabetes, 1; anemia, 1; meningitis, 1; cerebral hemorrhage, 6; cerebral embolus, 3; heart ailments, 11; arteriosclerosis, 8; pneumonia, 11; accidental falls, 2; automobile accidents, 2.

Communicable diseases reported during January included: scarlet fever, 27; measles, 17; mumps, 1; whooping cough, 23; chicken pox, 79; lobar pneumonia, 6; influenza, 3. During 1934 there were 642 deaths in the city and 926 births.

Red Cross First Aid Class Receive Certificates

A Junior First Aid class has recently been completed at the Warren Junior High School and the following received certificates from the American Red Cross: Clark Shephard, Bruce Freeman, Robert Bruce McCutcheon, Albert Coty, William Golding, Thomas Rogle Covey, Eldred Neagle, Roland Pease, Philip VerPlanck, Stuart Freeman, George Pettengill, Wesley Furbush.

Instruction was given by the Newton Chapter Instructor, Miss H. Margaret Norcross.

Stearns School Centre Elects Officers and Directors

At the monthly board meeting of the Stearns School Centre, which was held at the home of Miss Lucy Cobb, 244 Franklin st., Newton, the officers for 1935 were elected. Mrs. Cecil W. Clark will act as President, Miss Lucy E. Cobb and Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, 1st and 2nd Vice-Presidents; Mrs. George Auryansen, Clerk; Mrs. Lowell Burrows, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Carlo Montanari, Treasurer; and Miss Eugenia Bradshaw, Assistant Treasurer. Mrs. Harry Hartwell was elected a member of the Board of Directors which include: Mrs. J. Mervin Allen, Mrs. George W. Auryansen, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Miss Eugenia Bradshaw, Mrs. Edwin P. Brown, Mrs. Lowell A. Burrows, Mrs. Hubert L. Carter, Mrs. William B. Cary, Mrs. Elliott B. Church, Mrs. Cecil W. Clark, Miss Lucy E. Cobb, Mrs. Calvin Crary, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr.; Mrs. Henry B. Day, Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, Mrs. Carl S. Ell, Mrs. Eben Ellison, Mrs. Frank H. Ferrin, Mrs. William M. Ferris, Jr.; Miss Marguerite Fuller, Mrs. Henry I. Pratt, Miss Mabel L. Riley, Mrs. Charles W. Ryder, Mrs. Garrett Schenck, Jr.; Miss Frances Stebbins, Mrs. Henry Stebbins, Miss Grace Weston, Mrs. Frederick White, Mrs. Kenelm Winslow.

Miss Helen Sandstrom reported that plans are being made for a series of cooking demonstrations to be given at the Centre by Miss Charlotte Raymond of the Red Cross. These classes will include women in the community who are anxious to know about household budgets and inexpensive cooking receipts.

Miss Ann Rae directed "The Birds' Christmas Carol," given by the Dramatic Club on Feb. 3rd. Roles were taken by sixteen children who gave an interesting portrayal of the Ruggles Family and its benefactor. The Aurora Club gave a dance at the Nonantum Athletic Association house, which was a success socially.

Miss Sandstrom told about the club meetings of the Live Wires, a girls' club under the leadership of Miss Mary Tooley, and about the Supper Club's plans for future meetings. A rally of the 4-H Clubs was held under the direction of Mr. John Erickson, who spoke about summer camp work and game programs. Mrs. Max Colligan, leader of the Junior Sewing Club, and Miss Josephine, leader of the Sunshine Club, are members of the 4-H group. A registration of 1646 attendance proves that the activities during the midwinter have been popular.

Rotary Club

Instead of the usual noonday luncheon, the Newton Rotary Club had a "Ladies' Evening" on Monday, Feb. 18, with dinner at the Brae Burn Country Club at 6:30, with about 60 in attendance. The Rotary-Ann joined their escorts in the spirited singing of Rotary songs during the dinner. Later, Miss Adele Neff, of Newton, entertained the company with a number of impersonations excellently rendered. Miss Neff is a second Cornelia Skinner. Music for dancing was furnished by Lou Haffermehl, club member, and those not indulging the "light fantastic" played cards.

Dr. Lester Merritt, former governor of this Rotary district, and Mrs. Merritt, of Fall River, and Mr. Rupert Thompson, Jr., president of the local Kiwanis Club, and Mrs. Thompson, were special guests.

To Present Moving Picture of India

"Padre Sahib," a four-reel motion picture taken amid the color and glamour of life in North India, will be shown at the Community Sunday evening Service at the Newton Methodist Episcopal Church, corner of Centre and Wesley sts., Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

"Padre Sahib" is a realistic motion picture of the Christian missionary's everyday life, joys and sorrows, kingdom-building tasks, and varied undertakings to bring happiness to human lives. Its setting is in Lahore, ancient city of India. Its hero and heroine are the Rev. Mott Keisler and his wife, Edna Beck Keisler, M.D. The four reels of "Padre Sahib" are not random shots but they are a complete film story, a love story, such as was unknown in Hindu India, which gives a romantic touch to the picture. Public invited.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Rev. Hitchen To Speak

The Waban Woman's Club will meet at the Neighborhood Club House 2:30 o'clock, on Monday, February 25th. Rev. Herbert Hitchen, of the First Unitarian Church in West Newton, will be the speaker, and "Some Poets of Today" his subject. The tea hostess will be Mrs. Irving G. Clark.

The Study Group in International Affairs of the Waban Woman's Club will meet at 9:45 o'clock, on Tuesday, the 26th, at the home of Mrs. Walter Bauer, 268 Woodward street. Mrs. Gertrude Goodspeed will review Philip Gibb's "European Journey."

Lecture and Display Of Oriental Rugs

On February 28th, at 2:30 p. m., in Underwood School Hall, the Newton Community Club will have the pleasure of hearing Arthur Gregorian, a Persian-Armenian, speak on "Oriental Rugs." Mr. Gregorian was born in Urmia, Persia; and later lived in Sarouk, Kirmanshan, Hamadan, and in other Persian cities known as rug-weaving centers. He has a technical knowledge of the weaving process, as he comes of a class of Armenians who rank high in skilled workmanship. His personal appreciation of Oriental rugs, as the aesthetic expression of the culture of an ancient people, enables him to explain interestingly the stories depicted by the designs. There will be rugs on display.

The soloist for the afternoon, Arax Odabashian, will give a twenty-minute program of Armenian Folk Songs and legends. She has a voice of beautiful lyric quality, and a charming personality. Her costume will be a gorgeous embroidered Oriental court dress, a family heirloom, more than two hundred years old. Among the members of the Hospitality committee who will arrange for the tea hour, are Mrs. William W. Jennison, Mrs. Harry L. Walen, Mrs. Benjamin C. Vannah, Mrs. Robert P. Waller, and Mrs. Ralph P. Bischoff.

To Detroit In June For Convention

TRIENNIAL CONVENTION. The General Federation of Women's Clubs, comprising clubs and federations in every state in the Union, the District of Columbia, and in twenty-six foreign countries, will hold its Triennial Convention in Detroit, Michigan, June 4th to 12th, with the president, Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, presiding.

This will be the first Triennial Convention in the history of the Federation, conventions formerly having been held biennially. The central location of the convention city, together with the fact that it is the first convention in three years, and will feature discussions of contemporary world problems in government and economics, and the election of all new officers, lead to the belief that the convention will be one of the largest in the history of the Federation. Masonic Temple, which seats 5,000, will house the convention. Special trains and motorcades are being organized in different parts of the country.

Governor William A. Comstock has issued an open letter to the more than 2,000,000 women comprising the Federation, bidding them accept the hospitality of Michigan, and Mayor Frank Couzens, of Detroit, in a similar letter has assured all who attend that the latch string will be out. Mrs. R. I. C. Prout, of Wakefield, Michigan, and Mrs. William R. Alvord, of Detroit, are co-chairmen for local arrangements. A unique and successful means of financing the convention has been devised by Mrs. Prout, who recently issued an attractive book titled "A Cook's Tour." Between its covers are to be found a vast array of the choicest recipes of club leaders in the United States and in distant parts of the world. So well has the book sold that a second edition will be printed.

A trip to historic Greenfield village on "Play Day," the one day set aside in the middle of the convention for recreation, will be a highlight of that day, for here Henry Ford has assembled the Court House from Logan County, Illinois, where Abraham Lincoln practiced law; the Menlo Park group honoring Thomas A. Edison, the first power silk mill in the United States, brought from Connecticut; Sir John Bennett's Jewelry Shop with the four Bennetts, Gog and Magog, the Angel, and Father Time, all brought from the heart of London; the McGuffey group, and many more, besides the Edison Institute Museum. "Play Day" luncheon will be served aboard the boat which will take the delegates to Belle Isle, and in the evening the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will give a concert especially for the visiting clubwomen.

"Prove all things, hold fast that which is good" (1st Thessalonians, 5th Chapter and 21st Verse), the keynote of the Convention, is indicative of the open forum character which is promised in the presentation of both sides of controversial subjects. Some of the country's most brilliant speakers are being assembled by Mrs. Carl L. Schrader, of Belmont, Massachusetts, chairman of the Program committee. The enormous program of the General Federation, including more than 125 activities, will be discussed and reported, and in addition there will be exhibits of a scope and variety never before attempted.

The official headquarters will be the Hotel Statler, and the Juniors will have headquarters at the Book Cadillac. The Junior work of the General Federation was advanced to a major department at the last convention three years ago. This year, for the first time, it will share in time and prominence with the other eight major departments of Federation work, which are American Citizenship, American Home, Education, Fine Arts, International Relations, Legislation, Press and Publicity, and Public Welfare.

At this time, with her term of office drawing to a close, Massachusetts is proud of the honor that has come to Grace Morrison Poole, president of the General Federation, who is the only woman member on Attorney General Homer S. Cummings' recently appointed Advisory Committee which will consider and report to the Attorney General, ways and means of establishing a national scientific and educational center in the Capitol, for the better training of carefully selected personnel in the broad field of criminal law administration and in the treatment of crime and criminals. The Committee is the outgrowth of a resolution passed at the Attorney General's Crime Conference last December.

Scholarship Bridge At Auburndale

A Scholarship Bridge is to be given by the Auburndale Woman's Club at 2 o'clock, on Tuesday afternoon, February 26th, in the Auburndale Club House. Mrs. John D. Heibek, the chairman of the committee in charge, will be assisted by members of the Education committee, Mrs. John F. Wheelock, chairman; by the Art committee, Mrs. Ray Lamb, chairman; Mrs. Herbert E. Althens, who will be in charge of the tables for Duplicate; and Mrs. Charles D. Ansley, James L. Dunlop, Mrs. George A. Follett, Mrs. Joseph C. McCarron, Mrs. Edwin E. Nash, Mrs. Ralph W. Phipps, Mrs. William Thieling, and the president of the Club, Mrs. Ernest F. Drew.

The admission fee of 50 cents includes not only the privilege of playing but also afternoon tea, and as there will be a prize for each table, groups may play either cards or other games.

Home-made cakes, candy, and salted nuts will be on sale. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Newton Federation

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Newton Federation will be held on Monday, February 25th, at 10 a. m., in the Newton Library, Newton.

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C.

On February 25th the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Andrew B. Wright of Harrison street. Miss F. Mabelle Hurd and Miss Marian E. White will present the subject, "The White Man and the American Indian."

West Newton Women's Educational Club

Miss Hattie U. Hutchinson will be the guest speaker of the Travel Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club at the meeting of Monday, February 25th, and will give "Reminiscences of Ontario." Mrs. Malcolm A. Warren will read a paper on "The Northwest Mountains." The Class will meet at the home of Mrs. George D. Thomas, 843 Watertown street, West Newton, with Mrs. Edgar P. Hay the assisting hostess.

The West Newton Women's Educational Club held its regular meeting on Friday, February 15th, at their Headquarters, Odd Fellows Hall, North Gate park, West Newton, with Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Club, presiding.

Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield, chairman of the Legislative committee, described briefly the merits of the well-known Townsend Plan, which will be discussed in detail at the next meeting of the Legislative Class.

Mrs. Thomas Hayden, chairman of the department of Education, read a very fine report of the Education Conference of the State Federation recently held in Boston.

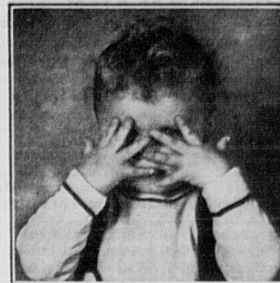

Mrs. Gilbert R. Jones then introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. Samuel Macaulay Lindsay, who talked on Current Events. Dr. Lindsay's discussion of present-day conditions in Russia, Japan, Mexico, and in the United States was forcefully and skillfully presented. He has the unusual faculty of holding his audience spellbound by the power of his delivery, and is not only a forceful but a convincing speaker.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the Tea room by the Hospitality committee, of which Mrs. Carl Thomas is chairman. Mrs. Henry F. Keating and Mrs. Gilbert R. Jones were the pourers.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The Literature Class, of the Newtonville Woman's Club, sponsored by the Education committee and conducted under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden and Mrs. Charles A. Richardson, will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Mace, Andrews, 67 Clyde street, on February 25th, at 2:30 p. m. At the last meeting, Mr. Wallace C. Boyden gave a delightful talk on "Emerson's Concord," which will be followed this time by discussions of Emerson's writings. Mrs. Irving O. Palmer has made selections from his Journals which she will review, and Mrs. Walter Jameson will read some of his poems. Those attending these Classes are enthusiastic in their praise of the subjects considered and of the excellent speakers. There is no obligation for participation on the part of members or visitors at these afternoons, and the leaders will welcome any who care to take advantage of the enjoyable and helpful programs which they prepare most carefully.

The Drama committee announces a Dramatic and Musical afternoon for Tuesday, February 26th, at 2:15 o'clock at the Club House. Mrs. Roger Wheeler, the chairman, will present Margaret Lamprell Burien, well-known in the dramatic field, who will read a one-act play and several sketches. Mrs. William F. Ferrin will sing. A silver tea will follow the program. All Club members and their friends are invited to this afternoon of entertainment and sociability. On the 28th, at 10:15 a. m., the lecture on History in the Making, by Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor, scheduled for those holding the Course tickets, will be open also for Club members upon presentation of membership (Continued on page 6)

THE BILL BOARD SITUATION

The recent court decision upholding the rights of municipalities to control the erection of bill boards is one in which residents of Newton should take considerable interest. For some years the question has been one which has been unsettled in many localities because of the case before the Supreme Court. In a letter to the editor, published in another column, Mr. Herbert J. Kellaway of the Planning Board outlines the situation and urges that Newton citizens sponsor the adoption of local regulations to protect the city from the encroachment of unsightly bill boards. In order that Newton may retain its desirability as the Garden City, immediate steps should be taken in this direction.

RESTORING CONFIDENCE

Although there is considerable difference of opinion regarding the 5-4 decision upholding the government as to the gold clauses the general feeling is that much uncertainty has been removed. There is also the possibility that the case may be reopened in the event that it becomes apparent that widespread loss of purchasing power has resulted from the removal of the gold clause from contracts. In the case decided this week it was evident that unjustified profits and not damages was one of the chief issues. Closely following the decision comes the plea from former President Herbert Hoover that the dollar be stabilized at its present value and that it be convertible into gold. Such a removal of the threat of further devaluation of the dollar would, we believe, be another distinct step forward. It would not only check the threat of inflation but would greatly restore confidence in public and private contracts. In turn this would undoubtedly result in an impetus to industry and finance that would go a long way toward putting the country back on the road to prosperity.

FIRST IN THE HEARTS OF THE COUNTRY

Today is Washington's birthday. George Washington was first in war, first in peace, and is first in the hearts of his countrymen. Today we are living in a more complicated age than when Washington was President of this country. But we still revere his memory. We still cling to the ideals which he inculcated into the foundation of the nation. And we must continue to build upon the Constitution of the United States if we would survive as the leading nation of the world.

LETTING DOWN THE BARS

A hearing last night before the Aldermanic committee attracted considerable opposition. The hearing was on a petition changing the zoning laws in business locations. The change would permit the operation of distilleries and rectifying plants in business zones throughout the city. It might well mean that any unused garage or other building in a business zone could be used for such purpose. Many Newton residents attended the hearing to protest. If the entire import of the proposal had been more widely known there would have been many more opponents of the change. Letting down the bars in this direction should be promptly and firmly discouraged.

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY COUNCIL

February 14, the members of the Junior High School Library Council visited the Main Library in Newton. Mr. Julius Lucht, head librarian, gave a brief history of the library and some facts concerning it. He then guided the members through the building explaining as he went. They passed through the art department which contains pictures and slides for use in a lecture or in the school room; the circulating department where books are sorted to be sent to branch libraries; the hospital where books are mended; the stack rooms which contain hundreds of reference books all filed in their proper place; and finally, the main part of the library where the fiction and smaller reference rooms are, and the cataloging room where every book is recorded.

Mr. Lucht informed the boys and girls that the library contained 170,000 books. 70,000 of that number are in the branch libraries. The children's books have been transferred into a library for children.

Secretary of the Junior

A Shakespearean theatre with characters and a coach of the period of Dickens—"Tale of Two Cities," made by the pupils of Our Lady's High School, are on exhibit at the Boys' and Girls' Library.

Near Crash of Auto Brings Trio Into Newton Court

A near collision by two automobiles on Adams st., Nonantum, on Sunday night, February 10, was responsible for the appearance in the Newton court last Friday of Anthony Dettaro of Parsons st., Brighton; Elmer Dezolet of 57 Faxon st., Nonantum, and Nicholas W. Lupo of Waltham st., Watertown. The two latter had been arrested on warrants following a complaint by Totaro that they had assaulted him following an argument. The court Dezolet and Lupo testified that Totaro had assaulted them with a knife, cutting the former's head and a sleeve on Lupo's coat. Special Officer Feeley then asked that a complaint be issued against Totaro for assault with a dangerous weapon. The trial was continued until Feb. 20.

Woman Saved From Gas Fumes At West Newton

Mrs. Annie Russell, 58, of 108a Derby st., West Newton, was nearly asphyxiated by gas in her apartment on Monday night. Shortly after midnight, Tuesday morning, Edwin Romkey, owner and other occupant of the building in which the woman had her apartment, smelled gas. Effecting entrance into the woman's apartment, Romkey found several burners on the kitchen range open, the rooms filled with gas and the woman unconscious. He telephoned for assistance and police, firemen and gas company employees quickly responded and started resuscitation work with an inhalator. The woman was taken to the Newton Hospital. A few weeks ago Mrs. Russell dropped off the railroad bridge near Concord st., Lower Falls into the Charles River and was rescued by men who heard her cries for aid.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

Isn't it odd to observe all the gushy, mushy, slushy sympathy some folks display in behalf of condemned murderers who heartlessly killed their victims in the commission of crimes, when these same sympathetic souls don't show any interest in the plight of thousands of decent men and women who die every day and whose lives might be saved if they had proper care and medical attention? Nor do the sympathizers take any great interest in lessening the slaughter of persons by automobiles.

According to the headline of a news report in the Boston Herald on Tuesday regarding the controversy between Governor Curley and Police Commissioner Leonard of Boston, a rumor was current that—"Leonard May Get His Job to Quit Police Post." Included in this news story was the following sentence—"The position available for Leonard if he will resign was said to be as counsel for a public utility corporation, through the use of political pressure." As most of us through necessity must help support the principal public utility corporations in Greater Boston, naturally we are, or should be, interested to learn whether, or not, this alleged rumor is true.

Lent begins this year on March 6, but the holy season for Newton streets started the past week.

The Boston Herald deserves commendation for giving so little space Tuesday morning relative to the execution of the unfortunate Kaminski. Respectable citizens executed by murderous autoists get 10 or 12 lines of publicity when they are killed.

Because sidewalks were not cleared of snow since the recent storm pedestrians have been forced to walk on highways and have been splashed more than in any preceding winter by slush and muddy water scattered by the tires of passing automobiles. Too many autoists show no consideration for persons walking and drive by at speeds which splash anyone unfortunate enough to be nearby. If you can get the car registration number of any such mean autoist, report him or her to the Registry of Motor Vehicles. Also, you can bring civil suit for damages to your clothing caused by lack of care on the part of such onery autoists.

What an uplifting change from the sordid, morbid details of the Hauptmann trial to the news articles of the gallant fight being waged by little Alyce McHenry. Even those of us, who, on merit, shouldn't have much influence with the Almighty, will offer a little prayer that Dr. Truesdale's skill will save Alyce.

We would suggest to liquor package store dealers in Newton that they refrain from indiscriminate distribution of cards and circulars advertising sales of liquor. When such advertising is received by "drys," it only incites them to more determined opposition to the sale of liquor.

A lady who has been a resident of Newton for over 40 years complained to us the other day that on Monday evening, Feb. 20, she had a trying experience attempting to cross Centre st. near Nonantum square, Newton. During this rush hour the policeman operating the signals in the traffic tower has a busy time guiding street car and heavy automobile traffic through the square, as well as watching out for the many passengers boarding and leaving Elevated cars and crossing to the busses. For years he has had the assistance of a second traffic officer stationed at the crosswalk on Center st. A second officer was not on duty Monday evening. And this has happened frequently of late. The reason given is—that enough members of the police department have been off duty through illness during the winter months to make the department short-handed and substitutes are not available. The result has been—that pedestrians crossing Centre st. at the Newton Corner traffic jam, risk getting hit by drivers of motor vehicles who don't stop before reaching the crosswalks, and who force persons on foot to scurry. Measures should at once be taken to provide a second traffic officer at Nonantum square every evening as has been done for many years, and to keep officers on other dangerous posts where they have been stationed in the past. Sufficient funds should be available for the police department to do this. Economy which jeopardizes citizens' lives is poor economy.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night Alderman Temperley objected to the change in the City Charter which reorganized the Welfare Department by authorizing the appointment of two overseers of the poor, instead of one as in the past. The account of this matter is printed in another column of this week's issue of the GRAPHIC.

Alderman Cronin displayed poor judgment in attempting to impute mean motives to Alderman Temperley's opposition to the change. Temperley effectively answered Cronin's query: "Do you want the Mayor to discharge Miss Fitzgerald?" by answering that he believed Miss Fitzgerald should be retained as the head of the Welfare Department. And when Cronin asked Temperley: "Do you want persons who have been getting two leaves of bread to get only one?" he did not make a favorable impression. Because those who know Temperley realize that he has always during his public career been on the side of the people in humble walks of life. Any member of a deliberative body who speaks impetuously, or who ascribes mean motives to one who differs from him, does not gain prestige.

Letters To The Editor

EXPLAINS SURVEY

(Editor's Note—The following communication has been received as an explanation in reply to the letter by John Cutler published in this column last week.)

There are going about Newton at present a most earnest and intelligent group of E. R. A. workers gathering the vital figures from which may be built the foundations for practical business revival in this city. We are not living in the same city we knew in 1929 to 1930, when vacancies according to the Boston real estate exchange survey of that year amounted to 5% in Newton and 4.8% in Cambridge. Last Saturday the final figures from the Cambridge Real Property Inventory reported a vacancy of 9.9%. What are the facts in Newton?

A sound business revival must be based on carefully collected facts, not on "hunches." These facts properly tabulated and analyzed will reward citizens of Newton ten times over for their co-operation.

It is only through the collection of "statistics" rather than odious "sucker lists" such as Mr. Cutler visualizes in his letter to the GRAPHIC on February 15th that the privacy of our citizens may be protected. Every enumerator on the Real Property Inventory carries credentials stating, over his signature, that the names and addresses of those he interviews will not be made public.

Misunderstandings are bound to occur for there are some 12,000 buildings to be visited and the field supervisor of each group of enumerators is instructed to assist the enumerator by calling and making such additional explanation as may be required or referring the householder to the headquarters at the City Hall.

We in Newton need not hesitate to co-operate with this project as it passed through the experimental stage four years ago when Cleveland furnished the "guinea pigs," referred to in Mr. Cutler's letter and we have a project tested in sixty-four different cities before it was tried in Boston. In fact the organizer himself was trained in the Boston project before he had the temerity to canvass in his home town of Newton.

One good thing we hope may result from this effort is that we Newtonites after seeing the reflection of our selves in this report as in a mirror, will revive our confidence in the opportunities existing in our city and sweep the whole "pestiferous" depression into oblivion.

RESTRICT BILLBOARDS

To the Editor:

One of the subjects for criticism of the city government is the existence of the Bill Boards that now obstruct the view at the corners of highways, protrude into the best views of the landscape and depress the value of real estate. This is especially noted in important areas such as near City Hall and the approaches to the City of Newton upon its main highways.

This can now be changed, as perhaps few people know that the Supreme court has decreed that the Concord by-law is constitutional, valid and enforceable.

This decision is a hundred per cent victory for the people over the combined outdoor advertising companies of the country. It establishes on the firm foundation of the Constitution of the United States, the right of states, cities and towns to restrict bill board advertising on public property under the authority of the police power. It further sustains the important decision of Counsel for the state, recognizing aesthetic considerations as adequate ground for restriction.

The bill board interests will now doubtless renew with increased vigor and chances of success their attempt of last year to repeal or draw the teeth of the present state law, which authorizes cities and towns to pass ordinances and by-laws restricting bill boards.

If any one is interested in the subject it would be well to secure a copy of the Massachusetts Federation of Planning Board, News and Notes for February, which will give an outline for the adoption of such ordinance in the City of Newton that would be of great help to the situation. This adoption of such by-laws should be the task of not only the city government but of individuals, improvement societies, and others of civic pride and interest to secure legislation before restrictive efforts can be made.

It takes years to secure the right as mentioned above and the new generation will benefit from the efforts of those who have given of their time and money to secure this act and of those who now are still working upon the best effort to save the beauty of Newton. I hope many will begin to take heart now and push for such legislation in Newton.

We want to have Newton a beautiful City of homes.

HERBERT J. KELLAWAY,
Feb. 16, 1935.

ized the practice of applicants for being asked embarrassing questions in front of a roomful of persons in the Welfare Department office, Alderman Cronin took exception to their remarks by saying that anything that happens in the office of the Welfare Department should not be discussed in the open meeting. Why not, Mr. Cronin? If the Alderman, the elected representatives of the people, do not take action against unkind treatment of the many in distress through no fault of their own, who will? And the quickest way to end an improper practice is through open publicity.

Maybe It's Coming

Having faced with aplomb the rigors of what has certainly been a man's winter there is none keener than I for Spring. Not that I cannot put up with more snow storms and icy winds, as I confidently expect will be required of us all, but merely because enough is enough. Too much may drive us to things heretofore scrupulously avoided, including observance of the cocktail hour or perusal of communistic propaganda. These, combined, would justify a plea of insanity.

No, Spring, that elfish creature of many moods and charms—must be on the way. Otherwise we would never have known that fashionable milliners have been thrown in a panic because New York society women are said to have found it smart to lunch hatless in public; that Boston is to have a season of opera (always booked for late winter or beyond) or that the assessors are sharpening their pencils to make the most of what they may find. These and other facts or fancies I have gleaned from sources which are more or less authoritative. Yet I am still skeptical. Spring may be at our very door but I am not convinced.

When I have discarded those clumsy overshoes, when my muffler has been put away and the mothproof hat and when my lead is free from petty colds then—and then only—shall I say, "Welcome, Spring, thrice welcome."

Remarkable Collection

Possibly one of the greatest ambitions possessed by mortals is that of acquisition. Many of us make a hobby of collecting things. Among those of which I have heard are first editions, minerals, fossils, rare paintings, ship models, theatre programs, stamps, rare coins, firearms, models of steam engines, seashells, historical documents and walking sticks.

The newest called to my attention is that of a Newton citizen who has found much genuine satisfaction and pleasure in accumulating phonograph records. Already his library contains nine hundred and twenty-six. Some mathematical genius could probably tell how many hours it would require to play them all without interruption or what distance on this earth they would cover if placed end to end. Musically however, they must fill every need.

When They Mean It

If it were asked with an actual desire to learn the condition of one's health the question we daily put to each other, "How are you?" might not be so frequently repeated. Sometimes it happens that a friend will take us at our word and in reply begin to recount a series of misfortunes. Usually it staggers us for the moment. We had expected—if we thought anything about it—that he would follow custom and repeat, "How are you?" or say "Fair" or "Fine" and let the matter drop.

So routine has the formal inquiry become that little or no attention is paid to the reply. The answer might be anything and we would never notice. In fact, I once heard a man ask, effusively, of a friend, "How's all the folks?" The other, being a bachelor, grudgingly retorted, "What folks?" At this the first man, who had given not the slightest heed, slapped the first man on the back and roared, "That's good, glad to hear it."

Personally, I'd like to see more consideration given to the truth. It would at least be novel. It pleased me not long ago when an old-time politician, with plenty of originality and fun in his make-up, inquired, "How are you?" I know you've just had a shave and a haircut, but outside of that how do you feel?"

Somebody Should Say It

Unfortunately I am disturbed when I see a man dressed, more or less slatternly, in a business suit at some public occasion in the company of an attractively gown woman. It grieves me that a man can be so thoughtless and I pity his fair companion.

Often a husband, when told that plans have been made for him for the evening and that he is to do escort duty, often whines, "O please don't make me dress up." If allowed his way he is happy, of course, but I doubt if it is true of the lady. It doesn't seem that she can be proud of him. A man who is granted such indulgence usually shows up with clothes that need to be pressed and himself in need of a barber's ministrations.

No doubt I shall get in bad with a lot of men for this but as a matter of fact I'm merely telling them of their own good and they should know it. Furthermore, it is easier to write it than to look 'em in the eye and say it.

Arrest Youths For Junk Theft

Two youths, John Civetti, 19, of 238 Nevada st., Newtonville, and Carmine Magnarelli, of 125 Adams st., Nonantum, were charged in the Newton court on Saturday with the theft of 100 pounds of tin from the junk yard of Jacob Klugman at Watertown st., Newtonville, and two aluminum motor bases from the junk yard of William Shriberg on West st., Nonantum. Special Officer Feeley, who was the complainant in the case, told the court that the junk was stolen in October and sold to a Waltham junk dealer. Each was sentenced to five months in prison and the sentences suspended on condition that restitution be made for the value of the stolen junk.

Arrested For Raising Rumpus At City Hall

Guido Di Rienzo, a young man residing on Chapel st., Nonantum, was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday charged with creating a disturbance at Newton City Hall. It was alleged that on the preceding day he became abusive and boisterous when he failed to obtain satisfaction to a request for more aid for his family when he visited the office of the Welfare Department, and after he was told at the Street Department that no work could be given him. At the request of James Dempsey, secretary to the Mayor, Patrolman Stanton ordered Di Rienzo to leave the building. The latter complied with the order, but returned to the building later, renewed his protests and was placed under arrest. Judge Bacon placed him on probation until June 1.

Adult Education In Newton Schools

Progress is reported on the new adult education program recently inaugurated in Newton Schools as an ERA relief measure for unemployed teachers.

A change has been made in the courses offered to the public. Instead of the dressmaking and dress design courses originally announced, there will be a course in drawing and one in architecture presented by a man who is eminently qualified in these allied fields.

Beginning with Monday of the coming week, the following courses are scheduled to be given: Conversational French, Dramatics, Typewriting, Free Hand Drawing, Architecture, and Current Events.

Mr. Julius E. Warren, Supt. of Schools, will gladly furnish further information on request. Telephone, Newton North 1570.

Smokes In Bed; Fire Results

A fire in the home of Frank Knight, 7 Pennsylvania ave., Upper Falls, at 7:13 a. m., Monday, was caused by a man smoking in bed. The blaze was confined to the room where the fire started.

On Sunday night at 11:04, Engine 2 went to 227 Valentine st., West Newton, to extinguish a fire in an automobile owned by Charles Speaks. The fire was caused by an overheated motor.

Forged Check; Gets Suspended Sentence

Anna Gallagher of Hunt st., Watertown, was given a suspended sentence to Sherborn Reformatory in the Newton court on Saturday when she was found guilty of stealing a pocketbook, the property of a fellow employee at a radio tube factory in Nonantum, and forging a signature on a pay check for $13. The check was in the stolen pocketbook. The sentence was suspended when the court was informed that the defendant had made restitution.

Child Coaster Runs Into Truck

Robert Tocci, 4, of 18 West st., Nonantum, received injuries to his head on Tuesday when he coasted out of a yard at 369 Watertown st. onto that thoroughfare and hit the rear of a passing lumber truck driven by S. P. Colantuono of Waltham, who was unaware of the accident until bystanders informed him. The boy, not seriously injured, was treated at the Newton Hospital.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 24.

The Golden Text is: "Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding" (Job 28:28).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all" (1 Chronicles 29:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mind is the grand creator, and there can be no power except that which is derived from Mind. If Mind was first chronologically, is, first potentially, and must be first eternally, then give to Mind the glory, honor, dominion, and power everlastingly due its holy name" (p. 143).

Reckoning in "Dollars and Cents"

GEORGE WASHINGTON often dug down in his own pocket to keep his Army clothed and rationed.

But busy general that he was, he kept his own books, making entries that told the story of every dollar spent.

How can any of us hope for personal independence unless we also reckon in "dollars and cents"—and definitely set aside so much for our savings account every week!

NEWTON Girls To Usher at Children's Play at Repertory

Newton girls will usher boys and girls somewhat younger at the Saturday morning performance at the Repertory Theatre of "The Prince's Secret," a mystery play by Clare Tree Major and Katrina Hincks, according to Mrs. Metcalf Melcher, of Newton Centre, chairman of ushers of the B. U. Women's Council.

The morning ushers are Betty Butts, head usher; Virginia Brown, Priscilla Chappell, Betty Kelly, Jane LaMotte, Ada Merriam, Carolyn Newell, Ruth Randolph, Caroline Perry, Priscilla Speasman, Martha Stevenson and Barbara Woodworth.

Assisting Mrs. Melville H. Smith, of 180 Commonwealth ave., with the sale of candy at the two performances will be another group of Newton girls including Eugenia Wallen, Gertrude Dennison, Mary Louise Melcher, Suzanne Pierce, Barbara Stevenson and Therese Thomas.

Queen Esther Society Presents

"In The Fountain of Youth"

The Queen Esther Society of the First M. E. Church presented a very amusing comedy entitled "In the Fountain of Youth" at the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening. The following members and friends composed the cast, Miss Ruth Shaw, Mrs. Helen Ufford, Mrs. Priscilla Newcomb, Miss Mary Jowett, Miss Dorothy Giles, Miss Ruth Hartshorn, Miss Martha Royal, Miss Dorothy Hartshorn, Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, Mrs. Eva Newcomb, Miss Mary Madangian, Mrs. Florence Davis and Mrs. Ruth MacKenzie.

The vocal hits were solo by Miss Mary Jowett and selections by quartette composed of the following members of cast: Mrs. Ruth MacKenzie, Miss Ruth Shaw, Mrs. Helen Ufford, and Miss Ruth Hartshorn. Music was furnished by an orchestra.

Recent Engagements

At a bridge given at their home on last Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Ridgeway of 121 Eastbourne rd., Newton Centre, announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Ridgeway, to Victor H. David of Waltham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Herbert David.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. John F. Tolman of Milton of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Louise Tolman, to Joseph Beery Eldridge, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Eldridge of Ellison rd., Newton Centre. Miss Tolman graduated last June from Simmons College. Mr. Eldridge will graduate this year from the Boston University College of Business Administration.

Recent Weddings

ARCHIBALD—HODGES

Mr. and Mrs. Roger S. Hodges of Newton have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Hodges to Mr. Howard S. Archibald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ashmore C. Archibald of Lynn, on last Friday at the Goddard Chapel at Tufts College. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Lee McCollister and the president of Tufts College. Only members of the immediate families were present. The bride was graduated from Jackson College in the class of 1933 and Mr. Archibald was graduated from Tufts College in the same year. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald will be "At Home" after March first at 156 Vinton street, Melrose.

STUART—GOULD

Miss Madeline Gould, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gould, was married to J. Ralph Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Stuart of Newton Centre, on Saturday morning, February sixteenth, at Chestnut Hill.

On their return from a wedding trip to Miami, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will reside at Eliot Manor, Cambridge.

Miss Gould is a graduate of the Katharine Gibbs School. Mr. Stuart graduated from Dartmouth in 1924 and is a member of the University Club of Boston and the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Newton Nursing Assn. To Organize Mothers' Classes

The Newton District Nursing Association, under the supervision of Miss Hilga Nelson, Executive Director, is cooperating with the Newton Hospital Out-Patient Department in the organization of Mothers' Classes among expectant mothers.

Miss Nelson and Miss Charlotte Raymond, nutritionist with the Red Cross, are co-workers in this venture. The Hospital and the Hospital Aid Association are contributing space and equipment necessary.

It is hoped that in this way much valuable instruction can be given the mothers by means of talks, demonstrations and individual help with the ultimate aim of making it easier for the mother to adjust her life to the new demands made upon her and also in the care of the very young.

These classes will begin about the first of March and the workers look forward to them with much enthusiasm.

Speaks on Recent Developments in Germany

Professor Ralph V. Bischoff, of the Department of Government at Wesleyan University, was the guest speaker of the German Club of the Newton High School yesterday afternoon in the school library. His subject was "Recent Developments in Germany." Professor Bischoff, a resident of Newton, has spent many years in Germany and as a student of government has a well-founded knowledge of his subject.

Picture Directed by Local Man Is Paramount Feature

The Paramount Theatre at Newton Corner will present an excellent bill next week opening Sunday with Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy in "Broadway Bill," an excellent comedy-drama. A million dollar cast includes Walter Connolly, Helen Vinson, Claud Dillingwater, Alan Hale and others. The picture was directed by Frank Capra, who directed "Lady for a Day" and "It Happened One Night." On the same program Elissa Landi and Cary Grant will be seen in "Enter, Madam," a story of a young opera star on a European tour. The thrilling voices of Richard Bonelli and Nina Koshetz, formerly Chicago Grand Opera Company stars, will sing "La Tosca," "Il Trovatore," "Cavalleria Rusticana," and other grand opera numbers. This picture will be a treat to music lovers.

For the last half of the week the much talked of film "The President Vanishes" will be the feature. In it Arthur Byron plays the part of the President and opposite him is an array of excellent players. This is not a political picture but a straight mystery in which the President is kidnapped from the White House. The picture was directed by William Wellman, son of a prominent Newton family. On the same program Ginger Rogers and Francis Lederer will be featured in "Romance in Manhattan," a romance between a young immigrant and a chorus girl who befriends him. This is a very likable story. Bob Mills' Kiddie Revue is on the Saturday program as usual. Mr. Mills is now putting into preparation a "May Festival" in which many Newton children will take part.

cards. For the Club members, attendance at this lecture is substituted for the one cancelled on January 24th, due to inclement weather. Those wishing to attend, who have neither course nor membership tickets, will be admitted upon payment of admission fee. The one remaining lecture by Mrs. Taylor is listed for March 7th, and is a Club-sponsored lecture.

Attention is called by Mrs. Anton A. Wild, chairman of Community Service, to the bag which has been placed in the vestibule of the Club House for contributions to the Clothing Chest at City Hall.

The fifth in the series of Conferences on Education, conducted under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, of the Education committee of the Club brought out the largest gathering of the season, on February 14th, at the home of Mrs. Cecil W. Clark. The forty or more present included many of the teachers of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the Horace Mann, Clafin, and Cabot Schools, who were especially interested in the subject, "New Angles of the Familiar Sixth Grade," as presented by Mr. G. Winthrop Brainerd, principal of the Horace Mann district. He gave many phases of grade school work, and also read some of the highlights of a radio talk given previously.

One of the interesting features of the meeting was the reading of some of the "Interpretations of the Ideal School Teacher," a topic on which the guests present had been asked to write, and many and varied were the ideas set down.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served, with Mrs. Charles Peterson and Mrs. Raymond Green assisting at the tea-table.

The February 19th meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club assumed the aspect of a Colonial Afternoon, with musicians and pourers in costume of this period, and the lecture one on "Historic Homes of New England."

During the business meeting, Mrs. Wallace H. Jose spoke of several legislative matters and asked for a showing of hands to indicate the opinion of the members concerning them. A very interesting dialogue between Mrs. Edwin P. Crave, president, and Mrs. George H. Tracy, a vice-president, dealt with the different methods of raising money to take care of the Club's budget for the next season, with the result that a large majority of those present favored a Club Bazaar to be held early in the fall.

Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols then presented Mrs. Virginia Gardiner Batchelder, Soprano, and Mrs. Malcolm Ball, Accompanist. Mrs. Batchelder's beautiful voice and pleasing personality, together with Mrs. Ball's background of accompaniment, made the music a charming feature of the program.

The Program chairman, Mrs. George Lowry Davis, introduced Mr. Park Pressey, whose delightful stories and photographs of old New England houses and homes made a most fascinating lecture, full of both interest and information. Mr. Pressey showed pictures from the earliest cabins to the much later type of fine colonial architecture, while giving interesting description and comment.

In the Tea Room, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden and Mrs. J. Walter Allen, in attractive costumes, presided at the tea table, and Mrs. Edgar S. Barker, Mrs. Charles A. Rouillard, and Mrs. Warren D. Thompson served as hostesses, under the direction of Mrs. Henry M. Weidner, chairman of Hospitality.

Social Science Club

On February 27th Mrs. Andrew T. George will speak before the Social Science Club on "Current Events."

Mrs. Harry W. Pitts and Mrs. Vernon B. Swett will receive.

Newton Centre Woman's Club

The Literature Study Group, sponsored by the Literature committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, will meet at the home of Mr. Harold R. Keller, 47 Oxford road, on Wednesday, February 27th, at 2:30 p. m. The subject will be "Certain Contemporary Essayists: E. V. Lucas, The Bensons, Agnes Repplier, and A. Edward Newton."

On Thursday, February 28th, at 10 a. m., at the Club House, Miss Emma A. Tighe will give her third Cooking Lesson. Her topic is cleverly worded: "Quick Meals for the Gadabouts," and will take up electrically-broiled meats and fish, salads, and desserts.

Newton Community Club

Valentine's Day was celebrated at the February 14th meeting of the Newton Community Club when Dorothy Tremble Moyer gave a talk, illustrated by piano selections, on the Grimm's fairy tale opera, Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel." Attractively gowned, and looking as if she had just stepped from a lovely valentine, she took the older folk back to their childhood, and delighted the children with the telling of this well-known fairy tale. Mrs. Moyer, who is a member of the Newton Community Club, has given many of her delightful opera talks in Newton.

The guest of honor was Mrs. John F. Capron, Twelfth District director, who gave a very interesting ten-minute talk.

Presiding at the tea table, which was decorated with red hearts, were Mrs. George W. Wyman, Mrs. M. Stella Spike, and Mrs. Frank Dennison. The idea of the day was also carried out in the decoration of red hearts in ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Joseph W. Gerrity, first vice-president, presided at the business meeting in place of the president, Mrs. Steven Bayard Wilson, who was confined to her home by illness.

A Food Sale, which followed the meeting, was in charge of Mrs. Royal C. Warring.

Mrs. David Black, chairman of the Community Service committee, gave notice of the Musical and Dramatic Evening on February 27th, at 8 p. m., at Mrs. Frank P. Scofield's residence, 11 Washington street. The play "Storm Swept," by Mrs. Elizabeth Lawton, of Grasmere street, will be read by Mrs. Lorraine Foat Holmes. Thanks go to Mrs. Peter Turshon for procuring the Twentieth Century Ensemble, which will play Italian music preceding the reading of the play, and following it, with Soprano solos, and a concert of solo and ensemble music by violin, cello, and piano. The artists of the evening will be Miss Esther Oettinger, soprano; Miss Anita Malkin, violinist; Miss Dorothy Lutz, cellist; and Mrs. Gladys Troupin, pianist. A well balanced and beautiful musical program has been arranged for the Ensemble and Trio. After the entertainment there will be a short period for dancing. Tickets are priced at 50 cents and may be secured from the chairman (Newton North 0187) or from any member of the Community Service committee.

The third meeting of the Child Study Class, which was postponed because of the snow storm on January 24th, will be held at the home of the chairman of Public Health, Mrs. Harold Higgins, 322 Franklin street, on Monday, March 11th, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Brian Decker, director of Play at the Winsor School, will speak on "The Educational Value of Play," and Mrs. Chester Sloan, of the Newton Children's Library, will give advice on books suitable for children.

Auburndale Woman's Club

"The Old Ordway House," a three-act mystery play by Alice Williams Chaplin, was presented before the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon, under the management of the Drama committee. The Club members included in the cast were Mrs. W. A. Stiles, Mrs. Wilbur D. Gilpatrick, Mrs. Rufus H. Lovering, Mrs. Keble Parine, Mrs. John F. Wheelock, Mrs. Herman Krueger, Mrs. Ralph W. Phipps, Mrs. Richard Keyes, and Mrs. Arthur W. Lane.

Assisting Mrs. Edward B. Gray, chairman of the Drama committee, in the production were Mrs. Joseph Badger in charge of Stage and Properties, Mrs. Alfred Becker who saw to the Costuming, and Mrs. Thomas Brown who did the "Making Up" for the cast.

LODGES

The following officers were elected on February 15, 1935, for the Odd Fellows Building Association: Burt M. Rich, president for the ninth time; Fred E. Perkins, vice president; E. Everett Forknall, clerk; Ralph L. Fox, treasurer; directors, M. W. Calhoun, Stanley Beale, William T. Campbell, Henry Urquhart, Ralph F. Card.

LAND COURT

To Michael Morrissey, Margaret
Morrissey, and Emma M. Menge, of Newton, in the County of Middlesex, and said Commonwealth; and to all whom it may concern:

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court by Leonard D.
Chandler of Abington, in the County of Plymouth and said Commonwealth, Willard D. Chandler, of Winchester, in the County of Middlesex, and Harry S. Chandler of Toronto, Ontario, in the Dominion of Canada; to register and confirm their title in the following described land:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon, situate in said Newton, bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly by Mt. Ida Street,
89.74 feet; Southerly by the junction of said Mt. Ida Street and Newton-ville Avenue, 9.35 feet; Southwesterly

Need for Emergency

Lighting Grows

The question of a lot of automobilists are asking is "How Safe Is Safe?" is driving an automobile a science—or a gamble. Well, perhaps, it's a little of both. Let's stop and analyze.

According to a survey made by one of the major insurance companies of this country, during the year 1933 there were about 29,000 persons killed and about 350,700 injured as a result of automobile accidents. The deaths exceeded by 2.5 per cent the 29,196 recorded for the previous year, 1932.

During the normal daylight hours of 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., 413,890 automobile accidents last year resulted in 13,670 deaths. During the normal hours of darkness from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m., 342,610 accidents resulted in 16,230 deaths. The rate of death per accident was 43.5 per cent worse during the dark hours. Thus, it may be seen that while perhaps more accidents happen in the daytime the most serious accidents happen after dark so drivers and pedestrians alike should be afraid of the dark.

The key to the whole horrible situation is held in the two words "poor visibility." Of course, a certain percentage of night accidents are due to the same careless driving that causes so many daytime accidents. That much is gamble. As long as this type of driver is allowed upon the road there will be many needless accidents and all the scientific advancements in the world are not going to stop them. But what about the other side—what about when good, careful drivers are involved in bad accidents they cannot see the danger that lies before them. Many of our state highways throughout the country are adequately illuminated. Long strides have been made in this field. The depression, however, curtailed much of the advancement. To light every highway as it should be lighted would at this time put an unbearable financial burden upon Federal, State and Municipal Governments.

Most of these after dark accidents are between a vehicle in motion and a vehicle standing still. The driver of the oncoming car is either blinded by headlights coming the other way or else he does not see the obstacle in his path in time to swing clear of it. Science, in the person of research engineers, has had the question put squarely up to them. What can you do about it? Can you give us something more effective than a tail light? Science as usual has risen to the occasion. All railroads have for years used a pyrotechnic type of flare that they call a fuse. One of these burning on the track means "Stop." Not only does it mean stop, but it can be seen for a long way ahead, and provides considerable illumination in the vicinity where it is.

Therefore the research engineers feel that the pyrotechnic type flare is the nearest thing possible to a perfect emergency road light. Working along this line they developed wire holders for these fuses, so that they would be adaptable to any kind of a road. These fuses are now available under a number of trade names with burning time of from 5 to 30 minutes. When set up a few feet in front of, or behind an automobile, they provide a warning that is never disregarded. There is enough light so that whatever they are protecting can be clearly seen. Because this light is colored—usually red—they also attract

School Affairs

A regular meeting of the School Committee was held on Monday night. Among the matters acted upon was that of giving notification of "No School" in the public schools of this city when such a severe storm as that of January 23rd occurs, or weather conditions are deemed bad enough to have no school session. Three methods will be used to inform school pupils and their parents. As early as 7:15 a. m. on any day when there will be no school, word will be sent to the three largest radio stations in Boston—WEEI, WBZ and WNAC and these stations will broadcast the information. The Newton Fire Department at 7:15 a. m. will ring the "No School" signal 3-3-3 on the bells at the following fire stations: Engine 1, Newton; Engine 4, Newtonville; Engine 7, Upper Falls; Hose 8, Norantum; Engine 9, Chestnut Hill; and on the bells at the Mason School, Newton Centre, and the old fire station on Grove street, Lower Falls. The police department will notify all the day patrolmen by means of the blinkers on police signal boxes and the police radio station.

The resignation of Marian B. Sumner as kindergarten at the Pierce School was accepted. Her position will be filled by Ida Broughton, kindergarten at the Lincoln School. Miss Broughton will teach at the Lincoln kindergarten mornings and at the Pierce kindergarten during afternoon sessions. The resignation of George I. Rohrbough, teacher of English at Newton high school was received. He has been appointed principal of Monticello Seminary, a private school at Monticello, Illinois. His position will be filled by a substitute for the balance of this school year.

Emma Porter Lennow who has been supervisor of art in the Brockton public schools was elected a special teacher of art in the Newton schools. Her field will be largely with the grades from Grade 4 through the junior high grades. Miss Ada Rice, present assistant supervisor of art will continue to teach in the kindergartens and Grades 1, 2 and 3.

A delegation of Oak Hill residents attended the School Committee meeting to present the claim of that district for consideration among the first of the new school building projects. This delegation presented statistics to prove the claim. The delegation was headed by Henry Cummings of Oak Hill road and Charles Davis of Arnold road. A new school at Oak Hill is included in the 10 year building program recommended by the School Committee on January 28. Whether or not the new school building recommended become realities depends as to the acceptance or rejection by the Mayor and Aldermen of the School Committee's recommendations.

Supt. of Schools Warren, Paul Elicker, principal of Newton high school and Herbert Landry, director of guidance in the Newton schools, will attend the annual convention of Department of Superintendents of the National Education Association to be held at Atlantic City from February 23 to 28. This is the largest meeting of educators held in the world. Mr. Warren, who is a member of the Resolutions Committee, will speak at one of the main sessions.

considerable attention. Incidentally they are not affected by wind, rain or snow and there's no fusing around with matches, for this type of flare, with its friction cap ignition, might be called a huge match itself. All one has to do is remove the cap, according to instructions, and scratch the end of the flare with it.

The first to appreciate the necessity for and take advantage of this pyrotechnic type flare were State and Municipal Police, Sheriffs and other County Officers whose duties include attendance at the scene of traffic accidents.

After these flares had an opportunity to prove their value, many State Legislators interested in decreasing the accident rate became tremendously interested in them. Now in Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Kansas, Indiana, and New York compulsory legislation demands their use. Other states will undoubtedly follow as many of them have such laws pending at the present time.

These flares have the double advantage of being both inexpensive and highly efficient. All persons interested in safety devices for automobile trucks, buses and pleasure cars should acquaint themselves with more of the facts concerning pyrotechnic flares. There will undoubtedly be much comment upon them as time goes on. Right now they are still very new, yet the demand for them is great.

Village Players Rehearsing For Next Presentation

The Village Players are now in full rehearsal for their next offering, "Interference," by Roland Pertwee and Harold Dearden, to be given at the Unitarian Parish Playhouse, Newton Centre, on Friday and Saturday nights, March 1 and 2.

Seven Man-Made Wonders

Known to Ancient World

The seven man-made wonders of the ancient world were these:
The pyramids of Egypt and the sphinx.

The hanging gardens of Babylon.
The temple of Diana at Ephesus, in Asia Minor.

The statue of Jupiter at Olympus, in the valley of Olympia in southwestern Greece.

The tomb of Mausolous at Halicarnassus, in Asia Minor.

The colossus of Rhodes, a brass statue of the sun god Apollo.

Of the seven wonders, the only satisfactory survival is the first group, the pyramids and the great sphinx. The foundation and many fragments of the mausoleum have been disclosed by modern excavation; the structure was destroyed by an earthquake. Mounds indicating the position of the walls and gardens of Babylon have also been identified.

The colossus, composed of brass cast in pieces, was overthrown by an earthquake in 224 B. C. The pieces lay there for many centuries, until the Turks took Rhodes. They sold the brass to a merchant, who is said to have employed 900 camels to carry it away.

The temple of Diana was burned in 356 B. C. by Erostatus, an obscure individual who thought thus to make himself famous. It was rebuilt in a less pretentious manner and survived until the coming of the Goths in 256 A. D. Barbarian invaders are thought to have destroyed also the Olympian Jove and the pharos of Alexandria.

Fooling Ducks an Indian

Art That Was Successful

With a calabash over his head and no weapon other than his own two hands, an Indian of northern Mexico at the time of the Spanish conquest felt himself well equipped for a duck hunting expedition, according to an ethnologist of the University of California, who found the method by which this equipment was used described in early Spanish chronicles.

Discovering a band of ducks feeding in fairly shallow water, the Indians would set a lot of big calabash gourds afloat in their midst. Not until several days later when the ducks appeared to have become so used to the calabashes as to pay little attention to them did the actual hunting start. Then an Indian would don a similar calabash, hollowed out to admit his head and perforated so he could see, and cautiously lower himself into the water until only the calabash showed above the surface. It was then a comparatively simple matter for him to move out among the ducks, seize them by the legs, draw them under water, wring their necks and fasten them to his belt.

Rhode Island's Capitals

Rhode Island not only had two capitals, but in the early days it had virtually as many as it had towns, the general assembly meeting in circuit, first in one town and then in another. In time the general assembly grew to such size that the small town could not take care of so many people, and the meeting places became fewer and fewer until only two cities could take care of them—"Providence and Newport. For many years Rhode Island had these two capitals. The legislature opened its annual session in May at Newport, and after a few days adjourned for a more extended one at Providence which began the following January. Since 1900 the legislature has met at Providence, the new state house being completed in that year. The state's constitution was so amended as to dispense with the session that met at Newport.

Enoch Arden

As the name implies, it is a case similar to that described in Tennyson's poem, in which a husband disappears and remains away for a long time, then returns to find his wife married to another in place of the supposedly dead husband. In Tennyson's "Enoch Arden," the returned sailor goes away without revealing himself and dies of a broken heart. A similar story but with a different ending is found in a poem "Homeward Bound" by Adelaide A. Proctor. Certain states, such as New York, have had what are called "Enoch Arden laws," providing for the dissolution of a marriage where the husband or wife has been absent for five years and is believed dead by the remaining partner.

Crabs Slow Travelers

Despite adverse currents that impede their progress certain species of crabs occasionally travel from the Mediterranean sea to the Red sea. Scientists have found, although migration of these crustaceans in the other direction is much more common. When they do make the harder trip, however, their progress is not very rapid. A representative of the Paris museum, who has made a study of the fish of the Suez canal region, relates one instance in which a crab took 29 years to travel from Port Said through the Suez canal.

May Ban Ugly Recruit

A man can be perfect—physically and mentally—yet not pass his examination for enlistment in the army of the United States. He can be rejected when his face is characterized by "extreme ugliness," writes W. R. Melton, Fort Huachuca, Arizona, in Collier's Weekly.
